

Rev. and Mrs. Wright to be Feted During Visit Here

Friends of Popular Couple List Plans For Eventful Week of Social Affairs

The Rev. W. Clarence Wright, with Mrs. Wright and their daughter, Rebecca, will arrive today from their home in Los Angeles, for a week's visit in Birmingham. Mr. Wright, who is the former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, is now pastor of the White Pine Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles.

The family will be widely entertained by their many friends in Birmingham, during their stay here. They will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Huston of East Maple avenue from Thursday until Monday, after which they will visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer E. Moody of Greentield drive.

One of the first to entertain for Mrs. Wright will be Mrs. R. J. Waterbury of Willamson road. Mrs. Wright will share the honors with Miss Esther E. Grether, who will soon leave her duties as director of Christian education at the church to take a new post at Wheeling, West Va. Mrs. Waterbury has issued invitations to 14 guests, for a luncheon on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be honored on Friday evening at a young people's outdoor supper. Hosts on this occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clark of Oak street. The guests will be delegates to the Waldenwoods Conference, who will leave on Saturday for a week of study and teaching at Waldenwoods Camp.

On Sunday, Mr. Wright will occupy the pulpit for the regular morning worship service at the church.

The men of the congregation have arranged a stag dinner, to be held in Mr. Wright's honor on Monday evening, at Devon Gables. At the same time, a small group of Mrs. Wright's friends will hold a dinner for her pleasure at Hedge's restaurant. Mrs. Franklin Whitney is chairman for this affair.

Wednesday evening's hosts at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Wright will be Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Olson of Hawthorne drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews of Brown street took their son, John Fenton, to Camp Presque Isle, in Presque Isle County, last week, to spend his summer vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews returned from a short stay in Cleveland O., this week, bringing with them Mrs. Mathews' mother, Mrs. Ella C. Peck. Mrs. Peck will spend the summer in Birmingham, with her son-in-law and daughter.

Shirley Bushy Is Hostess to Group At Elaborate Fete

Members of the younger set found diversion on Wednesday afternoon at one of the largest affairs given for them, so far this season. Miss Shirley Bushy was the hostess for the occasion, a lavish party, combined with a bridge tea and garden party, given at the home of the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bushy of Pine Lake.

After the swimming, the numerous guests partook of tea, from a table decorated in black and silver, and centered with a large bouquet of garden flowers, Jane Bushy Macdonald presided at the table.

Included among the guests were: Maiva Jean Gracy, Dorothy Trump, Nancy Fisher, Betty Anne Pease, Evelyn Wragby, Betty Russell, Betty Dick, Katherine Walton, Betty Lee, Lucille Morehouse, Patricia and Jean Houff, Patricia Williams, Marilyn and Dorothy Prussing, Anne Louise Baldwin and Mrs. Jack Howlin.

Others were Jean McKinney, Catherine Haefner, Mary Jane Wiley, Jane Pointer, Virginia Ford, Louise and Shirley Hersey, Joan Billings, Charlotte DuBois, Doris Franklin, Emilie Giffels, Virginia Stanley, June Hackett, Josephine Fitzsimmons, Shirley Smith, Margaret Gardner and Rhoda Medbury.

V. F. W. Auxiliary Will Hear Reports

Special reports will be read to members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the regular meeting, to be held at the Community House at eight o'clock Monday evening, July 17. Mrs. Floyd Crouse, Mrs. John C. Doris, Franklin, Emilie Giffels, official delegates to the annual state encampment, held at Grand Haven, Mich. 23-25, will read the reports.

The Birmingham post of the Auxiliary was represented by a large contingent at the encampment. Besides Mrs. Crouse, Mrs. Bomer and Mrs. Wade, members who attended, in addition to Mrs. Charles Coburn, Mrs. Walter Benetor and Mrs. Earl Moody.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Arriving on Monday for a fortnight's visit here was Mrs. James Logan of Ypsilanti, Mich. who will be the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Sitta of Oak street. On Tuesday, the Sittas and their guest left for Cleveland, for a short visit. They will return on Saturday, and that evening, they will be honored at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Price of Detroit.

Mrs. Carl J. Moergell and her daughter, Miss Eileen Moergell, and Miss Marie Huevar of Pontiac, spent the weekend at Lakeside, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Hindley and their children, Carol Anne and Richard Jr., of East Lincoln avenue departed over the weekend for a motor trip to the Georgian Bay district of northern Canada. They will be gone for several weeks.

Howard Crull Jr., will spend the summer at a Y. M. C. A. camp near Erie, Pa. Crull and Mrs. Crull have returned to their home on Lincoln avenue, after spending a week at the camp. There Mr. Crull served as a vocational guidance counselor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thatcher of Woodward avenue will depart on Saturday for a motor trip to the east and north. They plan to be away for at least a fortnight, journeying to Quebec by way of the Adirondack mountains.

Stuart Linton, Richard Gilbert and James Lee are members of a group of high school students who will return at the end of the week after a ten-day motor and camping trip through the northern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Manuel have removed from their home on East Jefferson avenue in Detroit to join the youngest married set in Birmingham, in their new home on Adams road. Mrs. Manuel is the former Miss Catherine Hinshaw, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw of Pon Valley road.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon R. Pennington and their sons, Gordon Jr. and Malcolm, are expected to return at the end of this week to their home on Ridgedale avenue, after a fortnight's sojourn at Riverdale, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Welch, Jr., and their daughters, Barbara and Mary, are planning an extended motor trip through the west, for which they will depart over the coming weekend. They will tour California, and proceed up the coast to Olympia, Washington, where they will be the house guests of Mrs. Welch's mother, Mrs. A. F. Harrington. They will return to their home on Safford road about the first of September.

The west as a vacation spot has also proved attractive to Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Wingham of Bloomfield Hills, who are in Wyoming at present, catching a glimpse of ranch life. They will return around the end of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Smith of Pilgrim road will depart on Friday for a short motor trip, through northern Michigan and the upper peninsula. As they return southward, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will stop at Interlochen, for a visit with their children who are in camp for the summer. Marie is at Camp Interlochen, and Maurice Jr. is at Camp Penn Loch.

Miss Catherine Haefner extended hospitality to 16 of her friends

Pierce P. T. A. to Be Street Dance Host

Members of the Pierce School Parent Teacher Association will be hosts at the next street dance in the series, sponsored by the Summer Recreation Program, to be held on Friday evening. Arrangements have been made to hold the affair in the court yard at Barmum School, due to lack of facilities at the host school. Dancing will be enjoyed from eight until 11 p. m.

Serving on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crouse and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tate.

Mrs. Tate is in charge of refreshments, which will be offered for the pleasure of the dancers throughout the evening. Her assistants will be a boys' committee, headed by William Math. Others in the group will be Robert Peck, Jr., Norman Flemington, Richard Andrade, Allen McTear and Fred Kaasburg.

Pine Lake Crowns Singles Tennis Stars

Miss Jean Fishleigh and Jack Baumgartner, both of Detroit, became queen and king respectively of the tennis players at Pine Lake Country Club, over the week-end. Eliminating one of the out-of-field in the history of the annual club tennis championships; the two winners proved their supremacy in women's and men's singles during the final play-offs.

The mixed doubles championships will be played off in August, according to the club's tennis committee. No definite dates have been set. The doubles will be open to all members, whether or not they were defeated in the singles championships.
