Franklin Scouts Hold Picnic Today

Mrs. Abraham J. Levin of Franklin road will open her house and grounds for the Girl Scout picnic luncheon scheduled to be held today. The affair which will be begun this morning at 10 o'clock will continue through the afternoon with badminton, tennis, croquet, games and stunts on the program of events planned by the members of the Franklin troop.

The committee which has made all arrangements for the affair consists of Mrs. Beecher Compton, Mrs. Edwin B. Scott, Mrs. Edward B. Houseal and Mrs. Albert Grigg. This committee was assisted by Jane Houseal and Lois Solden, Girl Scout troop members, who were in charge of games and sports for the picnic.

This picnic will serve as the means of raising money for Scout activities for the next year and anyone interested is invited to attend. It is expected that the attendance will reach 100.

Appearance by Cinema Starlet Has Been Promised

A "sneak" preview, the appearance of a lovely new movie starlet and all the glamour and excitement of a regular Hollywood preview has been promised members of Oakland Hills Country Club this evening when the movie industry's latest four bell picture is shown on the Pool Terrace of the club.

The showing of this picture is considered as a "sneak" in entertainment inasmuch as the picture will not be shown to the general public until September.

In addition to the picture, which would ordinarily attract a great number of the club members, the personal appearance of a glamorous new starlet in the film capital, has also been promised to members of Oakland Hills Country Club.

The starlet, who vaulted to fame as one of the most popular girls tested for the Scarlett O'Hara role, is the only feminine member of this picture.

G. R. Frye, Jr., Attending Fort Knox ROTC Camp

George R. Frye, Jr., of Birmingham, is among the 180 members of the Purdue University unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps attending the summer camp at Fort Knox, Ky.

The camp, which ends Saturday is designed to give the students actual experience in field artillery tactics. Rotations, and other activities at the reservation, are frequent occurrences at camp.

The Purdue field artillery unit is motorized, thus permitting excursions over all kinds of roads.

The ROTC training at Fort Knox is part of the regular curriculum for the Purdue student who elects to take a major in military training. Normally, students take their camp training between the junior and senior years.

Former Birmingham Residents Feted By Picnic At Charles J. Shain Home

Birmingham of 1924 is represented Friday night at a picnic supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Shain at their home on Park street.

At this reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gilmore and son "Lad," of La 4 residents, Calif., when the Gilmore stopped in Birmingham for four days while en route to the World's Fair in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore lived in Birmingham on Ravine road from 1921 to 1923, on their first friends who gathered on this occasion.

Parties Compliment Jean Rutherford

Miss Jean Rutherford, whose marriage to James Barber Talman is scheduled for Sept. 2, is furnishing the incentive for a number of pre-nuptial affairs.

The evening will be performed at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at Church Street Christian church and will be followed by a reception.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rutherford, of Puritan road, Birmingham, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Talman, of Westwood drive.

Two parties are on the calendar for next week in Miss Rutherford's honor. The first will be a luncheon and party shower to be given on Tuesday, by Mrs. Irving B. Babcock, Mrs. J. Reed Alexander and Mrs. Robert Vinick at Mrs. Babcock's home on Lone Pine road.

Miss Marilyn Prussing of Church Street Christian church, the bride-to-be on Thursday with a luncheon and table top shower at the Bloomfield Hills Country club.

Last week, Miss Mary Miner of Detroit, gave a luncheon and miscellaneous shower. Miss Rutherford, at the Detroit Golf club. Thirty guests attended this function.

Detroit Girl Guest Of Miss Peggy Bailey

Miss Helen Price of Detroit was the guest during the last part of last week of Miss Peggy Bailey at the Bailey home on Hamilton avenue and during her short stay was honored at parties which introduced her to other young residents of Birmingham.

Miss Helen Price, who is a member of the class at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, O.

Among the affairs which included Miss Price as a guest was a small luncheon at which Miss Mary De Mong of Southfield road entertained. Those attending besides Miss Price were Beulah Martin, Mary Gunn and Miss Bailey.

Miss Alice Frazier, Miss De Mong and Miss Price were also entertained during the past week at a luncheon at the Bailey home and a swimming party later in the afternoon at Forest Lake Country Club.

Chairman Mrs. Charles J. Shain

Mrs. Charles J. Shain is general chairman of the committee which has been appointed by the Board of the Community House to arrange for the 1939-40 lecture course which the association will sponsor.

The lectures will be given by Prof. Preston Slosson of the University of Michigan. Prof. Slosson will speak on European and American affairs. Profits from the lecture-forms series will go to the Community House next year.

Mr. Slosson is well known here as a journalist and historian. Because of his clear and illuminating presentation of subjects, he is popular wherever audiences have had the opportunity to hear him.

Prof. Slosson has been lecturing in universities of the British Isles and has spent months in travel on the continent gathering first hand information about the situations in Europe.

Mrs. Shain will be hostess on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at a tea at her home for presidents of other representatives of all organized clubs of Birmingham at which time specific plans will be made for the lecture.

Dress for Dinner

Style flavor for summer semi-formal dinners: that's given worn by screen's Patricia Morrison. Printed organza is combined with crepe; skirt is of black and white. Round, corded neckline is slashed at shoulder; sleeves are short. Gossage of field flowers at waistline adds color note.

Among the Birmingham residents who will attend a celebration day to be held at Waldenwoods, Hartland, today are Mrs. D. L. Rice of Westchase way, and her daughter, Margerie. Also attending the affair will be Maxine Baldwin, Mrs. Tat's niece of Peru, Ind., Mrs. Howard D. Ritter of Hanna street, Mrs. Earl G. Potter of Ryewood drive, Mrs. H. B. Gardner of Aspen road.

Miss E. Josephine Smith and Miss Folsia Daniel, of Shelbyville, Ky., arrived Tuesday, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Graham John Graham, at "Valhalla." In honor of the visitors, Mrs. Ralph L. Polk entertained 12 guests at luncheon Wednesday, at her home on Lone Pine road. Mrs. Graham is planning on the luncheon later in the week and she also has arranged a house party for the week-end at the Graham holiday on the Au Sable.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald U. Bathrick, of Nashville, Tenn., who is visiting them will spend the week-end at Gull Lake near Battle Creek, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Weed were hosts at dinner Saturday evening at their home at Orchard Lake. After dinner, they took their guests to the Orchard Lake Country Club for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron H. Webster of Fairfax Hill will spend next week with Mrs. Webster's mother, Mrs. Arthur Laverock, of Detroit, at her summer home on Lake Erie in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan W. Joslyn and their children, of Sulfeld road, have left by motor on a trip to California. During their absence, their summer cottage at Watkins Lake is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce G. Booth, of West Maple road.

Mrs. J. J. Reilly To Entertain for Marian Liebold

Mrs. James J. Reilly will be hostess Saturday for Miss Marian Liebold whose marriage to Dr. Dean Nickerson will take place Sept. 2.

Miss Liebold is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Liebold of Boston boulevard, Detroit, and Dr. Nickerson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Nickerson of Oakland avenue, Birmingham.

A tea and shower will be Mrs. Reilly's manner of honoring the bride-elect. Mrs. Ernest G. Liebold, Sr. and Mrs. Harry R. Nickerson will pour. Garden flowers will serve as a centerpiece for the table.

Flannery of Bloomfield Hills; and Mrs. Harry R. Nickerson and Mrs. Harry Green of Birmingham.

Interest Shown in Oakland Hills Play

Interest was keen and nerves taut Sunday afternoon when Mrs. R. M. Burch and Miss Margaret Russell battled for the title of the match handicap tournament at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Miss Russell, who is club champion and who has a three stroke handicap, defeated Mrs. Burch, who plays with a handicap of 28, one up on 18 holes.

The match attracted considerable interest among club members because of the difference in the handicap strokes of the two players. The difference necessitated Miss Russell giving 21 strokes to her opponent. This was the first time that a champion has won at Oakland Hills with such a difference in the handicap.

Among other women's golf activities during the past week was the ladies' day held last week on Thursday because of the men's stag day, rather than the regular day of Friday.

Prizes were awarded for low net in each class. In the championship class Mrs. L. V. Brown was the winner with a 92-8-84.

Miss Letitia Bloss and Mrs. J. S. Dabey tied for the class A title, both having a net 82. In the B class Mrs. E. M. McTigue had a 115-28-57 and Mrs. E. C. Bloss, in class C, had 107-30-77.

FAMILY NIGHT MOVIES AT PINE LAKE

The regular family and movies with two full length pictures and two animated cartoons on the program will be at M. McTigue's home at Pine Lake Country Club.
