

Pine Lake Club To Crown Tennis Star After Play-Offs

Lovers of sports are manifesting much interest in the finals of the annual club tennis tournament at Pine Lake Country Club, to be played off during the approaching week-end. Preliminary in the tournament, which is limited to members of the club, were begun over the past week-end. Singles for men and women and mixed/doubles are the means by which the champion will be selected.

A strong feminine contingent registered for the first-round matches. Included were Miss Dorothy and Miss Ruth Forrest of Birmingham, Miss Evelyn Dohany of Pine Lake, Miss Margaret Nichols of Blenheim Hills, Miss Pierce of Farmington and Miss Jean Fishleigh and Mrs. James Wilkie, both of Detroit.

Men contestants included James Ingle, Harry and Dick Denyes, John Allman, John Baumgartner, Carl B. Wilson Jr., Robert W. Ziggy, Walter Stecker Jr., Richard J. James Wilkie and William H. Manning.

Results of several of the men's singles games were announced by score-keepers as follows: Baumgartner vs. Manning, 7-5 and 6-2; Denyes, 6-0, 4-6 and 6-2; Ingle vs. Wilkie, 6-0 and 6-2. The women contestants defeated over a week-end will be dropped from rolls for the coming contest.

HONORED

Orchard Lake Club Wins First Round In Annual Meet

The tall, golden trophy awarded to the winner of the traditional Pine Lake-Orchard Lake country club tennis meet, came a long distance towards a place in Orchard Lake's trophy case, following the July 4th contest. Orchard Lake invaded the home courts of its opponents to win three out of the five games played. The occasion marked the first time in two years that a winner was named in the tennis portion's contest ended in a tie.

A return match is scheduled for Saturday, August 12, at Orchard Lake. Sports lovers are taking a keen interest in the plans, which will be made known in the near future.

Julian J. Frey led the Orchard Lake team as captain. Players included Paul L. Penfield, Frederic C. Pew Jr., Gardner Staunton, Genaro A. Floriz, Miss Joan McKinney and Miss Nancy Strelinger.

On the Pine Lake team were Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkie and Raymond T. Penning of Detroit; Miss Evelyn Dohany of Pine Lake; William H. Manning and Robert W. Muzzy.

The contestants played men's and women's singles, and mixed doubles.

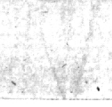

Photo by Camera
Miss Hastreiter

Miss Mary June Hastreiter, who last spring won national recognition in the American Magazine Youth Forum, has been awarded fresh honors by her classmates at Stuart Hall, Staunton, Va., which she entered last fall.

Hastreiter was elected president of Delta Phi, preparatory school literary honorary society, and will also serve as business manager of the Stuart Hall yearbook. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter of Abbey road.

Popular Couple Exchange Vows At Evening Rites

Miss Beth Ranney and Richard M. Coons, two of the most popular members of Birmingham's post-collegiate set, exchanged their vows at eight o'clock on the evening in St. James Episcopal Church. The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth read the wedding service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Ranney of Atkinson avenue in Detroit, formerly of Birmingham. Mr. Coons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Coons of Greenwood avenue.

The bride chose a shadow-print organza gown, in white, for her wedding. A flat coronet of daisies confined her long tulle veil, which extended beyond the flowing of her gown. She carried additional Shasta daisies edged with white larkspur, in a lace Colonial bouquet.

Shadow print organza in a lime-yellow shade formed the gowns of the seven bridal attendants, and their flowers were daisies. Miss Mary Margaret Barnes of Detroit served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Miss Betty Coons, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Joan Edmondson of Pontiac, cousin of the bride; Miss Hermine McCormick of North Hollywood, Cal., a former resident of Birmingham; Miss Julie Preston, Mrs. Joseph A. Braun Jr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Gustafson.

Joseph A. Braun Jr. attended Mr. Coons as best man. Seating the guests were Jack Coons, brother of the bridegroom; Jack Edmondson, the bride's cousin; John Case, Frank N. Mosher, Floyd C. Gustafson and Harry V. Collins Jr. of Saginaw, formerly of Birmingham.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ranney were hosts at a wedding reception, in their Detroit home.

Following the reception, the young couple left for the east. They will make their future home in Meriden, Conn.

Umbrella Man
The latest dance here is the champagne. It's called an umbrella.—Paris Dispatch in Variety.

BE CAREFUL with light colors
White flannel trousers—pale chiffon dresses—summer is the time when men and women wear light clothes that require our careful cleansing service. Birmingham 9011 is the number to call, for our pick-up and delivery service.

Telephone 9011 DELIVERY SERVICE
MATT EWES
Exclusive LADIES & GENTS Tailoring
FURRIERS
CLEANING—PRESSING—REPAIRING

Orchard Lake Club Wins First Round In Annual Meet

Coming as a lovely climax to an extensive round of pre-nuptial entertainments, the wedding of Miss Kathleen Jane Mead and Dana Poole Seelye of Ann Arbor was solemnized at 4:30 on Saturday afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Raymond Mead of Puritan road and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana E. Seelye of Ann Arbor.

White larkspur adorned the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook, where the ceremony was performed, with the Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe officiating. More white larkspur and delphinium, in tall standards, relieved a background of fern on either side of the altar. The young couple exchanged their vows in the light of ivory tapers, held in cathedral candelabra.

Wears White Lace
The bride descended down the aisle on the arm of her father, wore white lace. A bow of matching lace in her hair confined her fingertip veil. She carried white orchids and roses, and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Vaughan W. Greene of Ann Arbor, sister of the bridegroom, also a recent bride, was matron of honor. Mary Ann and Margaret Mae Mead also preceded their sister down the aisle, as bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid respectively. All three attendants wore white marquisette.

Kathleen Mead Weds Dana Poole Seelye On Saturday Afternoon At Lovely Service

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson returned on Wednesday to their home on North Adams road, after a four-day sojourn at Mackinac Island.

Miss Betty Harris and Miss Esther Legg, both of Pontiac, Ill., were the mid-week house guests of Miss Betty Peabody and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Peabody of Quorton road. The visitors spent Thursday here, en route to New York. Miss Peabody returned recently from a week's visit to New York, which she made in company with Miss Sally Baker of Riverside drive. Both were bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Rose and James VanLingen.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kneeland of Council Groves, Kan., arrived recently for an extended visit here. They will be the house guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chester L. Zook of Dorchester road.

Reception Follows
Woolley W. Hunt, Asheville, N. C., was best man for Mr. Seelye. The ushers included William H. Mead, brother of the bride; John B. Poole, cousin of the bridegroom; Vaughan W. Greene and Moreau Hunt of Meersburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead opened their home for the reception, which followed the ceremony. White larkspur and delphinium carried out the decorative motif throughout the house.

After the reception, the bridal couple departed by motor for an extended trip through the east. For traveling, Mrs. Seelye wore a light blue suit of silk gabardine. Her blouse and hat were yellow. She wore matching yellow accessories. On their return, the young pair will take up residence in Ann Arbor, on Fifth street south.

Birmingham Golf Sets Stag Day Date
The date of Stag Day at Birmingham Golf Club has been announced for Saturday, July 15. Members and their guests will be entertained at luncheon and dinner, as well as golfing events and entertainment.

There will be special prizes and refreshments for the golfers, during the day.

During dinner and in the evening, the program will include Yarn and Ray, the wandering troubadours; Malloy, singer and accordionist; the Georget Brothers, boxing and wrestling; and a novelty act by Florena.

DR. ROEHM WILL REMAIN HERE
It was erroneously stated last week that Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Roehm and their family had left their home on Lone Pine road to spend the summer at their summer home near Shoups. Dr. Roehm will remain in Birmingham for the summer.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mrs. David C. Babcock and her daughter, Miss Phyllis, will leave next week on an extended tour of the west. They will visit relatives in Chicago for a while, later going on to Portland, Ore.; San Francisco and Golden Gate Exposition, and other parts of California. They will return to their home on Southfield road in September.

Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders and her children, of Orchard Ridge road, are in Kansas City, Mo., at present, for a visit. There, they are attending the annual meeting of the Norma Knight Jones of Los Angeles, Cal., who is visiting there on the same Monday. Her guests are Mr. and Mrs. Saunders last week were Mrs. Saunders' brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. John Jones, and their children, formerly of Baltimore, Md., who stopped here en route to Chicago, where they will make their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll M. Boutell spent their home on Glenview Circle on Tuesday evening, for an informal al fresco supper, followed by games and out-of-doors events.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley M. Brown and their family of Waddington road entertained a group of friends at Orchard Lake Country Club for the 4th of July program. The party spent the day at the club, taking both luncheon and dinner there.

Mrs. Loren T. Robinson of Winterset drive, Mrs. B. M. Cary of Linden road and Mrs. Thomas H. Adams of Puritan road, returned over the week-end from a week's stay at the Sciency Club at Quince. They made the trip as official delegates from the Birmingham alumnae group of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority, attending the national convention of the organization.

O. F. Achtenhagen will return at the end of this week to his home on Bayview drive, following a three-weeks' fishing trip in northern Michigan. He was a guest at Fireside Inn on Grand Lake, north of Alpena.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Pratt returned on Monday from an eight-day trip, to take their place among the newlywed colony in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. They will be at home to their friends on Chester street.

brook road, following a visit in the east. After viewing New York City and the World's Fair, they follow the Hudson river, for a tour of the points of interest.

Miss Grace M. Pinney of Springfield, Mass., has arrived to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Horton of Pilgrimage road. Miss Pinney, who is well-known to local society, will be the honor guest at a number of affairs in the near future, one of the first of which will be a luncheon on Friday, Mrs. Walter T. Elliott will open her home on Hanna street for the occasion.

An exciting summer vacation is in store for Billy Carrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Carrick of Fairfax road, and Jack Lavoer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Lauer of Puritan road. The boys have departed for Teton Valley Camp, near Kelly, Wyoming, for an eight-weeks' sojourn. They will lead ranch lives for the summer, a highlight of which will be a trip on horseback to Yellowstone National Park, 45 miles from the camp.

Miss Barbara Bury of Beverly Hills, Cal., popular house guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lugh R. Sharp of Puritan road, will depart today to spend a fortnight at Mullet Lake. She will accompany her cousin, Miss Suzanne Sharp, to the resort.

BIRTHS

Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Sproule of Yorkshire road are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Kenneth Wellington Sproule Jr., born on Monday, July 5, at Harper Hospital in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lundberg are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Joan, on Wednesday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, in Pontiac. Before her marriage to Mr. Lundberg, the baby's mother was Miss Margaret Kamin.

Sheer Cottons

Smart for Town, Gay for Vacation, They Launder to Fresh Newness

Just Received—
... in time for cool, summer comfort.

$1.95 to $5.95

- Dotted Swiss
- Sheer Muslins
- Dainty Dimities
- Washable
- Rayon Crepes
- Checked and Plaid
- Gingham

There's one answer for—
"what can I wear to keep coolest all summer?"— and that answer is to be found in our sheer cottons! Buy a few at our unusual under-two-dollar price!

High waistline frocks with colorful piping... Slim panel front dresses smartly trimmed... Princess styles for youthful indulgence and sheer cotton prints with front or side zipper fasteners.

An unusually fine selection in a size range from 10 to 52, including 1/2 sizes.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO DIVE IN A POOL TO KEEP COOL!

Jockey UNDERWEAR

Coopers 50¢

Complete hot weather relief can be yours if you'll switch to summer comfort... and that means Jockey Underwear by Coopers. The porous knit allows air to circulate and cool your heat-weary body... the styling—short or mid-way—is just the thing for sweating days (and evenings too). Y-Front construction... support, convenient opening no buttons, no bulk, no binding, no squinting!

F. J. MULHOLLAND CO.
MEN'S AND BOYS' SHOP
Southern Entrance — Woodward

F. J. MULHOLLAND CO.