

Garden Clubs Lay Plans for Birmingham-Bloomfield Day at Conventions

Miss Anibal Feted At Pine Lake Club

Miss Phyllis Ahlers of Broadway boulevard, was hostess last evening, at a dinner and handkerchief shower at the Pine Lake Country club, in compliment to Miss Eleanor Anibal, whose marriage to Stark Rittelle will take place June 8. Besides the honoree, the guests included her mother, Mrs. Benjamin H. Anibal; Mrs. R. H. Ahlers, the hostess' mother; Mrs. Albert Webber of Pontiac and her daughter, Mrs. Albert Theller, of Sacramento, Calif.; Miss Jane Jossman, Miss Habel Corwin, Mrs. W. S. Morgan, Miss Jean Steere, Miss Marjorie Gilray, Miss Hilda Brown, Miss Leticia Lester, Miss Wakeman and Mrs. Robert Ensworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Stanton and their daughter, Margaret, of Mohegan road, went to Grand Rapids, to occupy their cottage over the weekend and Memorial Day.

Why Wait?

Let Us Do Your
Housecleaning NOW!

Phone 1162
ACME
Window Cleaning Co.
"Oakland County's Oldest Window Cleaning Service"

ROSS RIDDELL

Chiropodist

Is pleased to announce that he will have office hours in Birmingham every Monday, from 8:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. EVENINGS BY APPOINTMENT

211 Wabash Bldg. Phone 1672

Announcement!

We have added 800 square feet to our floor space which will be devoted to the display of

"SPRING AR"

Springs and Mattresses

We will carry a complete line of these famous Springs and Mattresses . . . as advertised in America's leading magazines.

WIELAND'S

515 N. WOODWARD - AT THE FOOT OF THE HILL

Upholstering . . Furniture Repairing and Refinishing

Protect Your FUR COAT WITH MATTHEWS' 10-POINT PLAN

VALUATIONS $6.95 AND UP TO $100.00

1. CLEANING by approved furriers' sawdust method.
2. GLAZING by expert furriers.
3. STORAGE in certified frigid vaults.
4. INSURANCE in a $1,000,000 policy covering fire, theft or damage.
5. LINTS replaced (if necessary).
6. LINTS replaced (if necessary).
7. ANTI-MOTH sterilizing kills moths and larvae.
8. BONDED MESSENGER calls for your coat.
9. ESTIMATES on repairing and remodeling.
10. ELECTRICITY on the fur.

ALL WORK DONE IN OUR OWN LOCAL PLANT!

TELEPHONE 9011 DELIVERY SERVICE

MATTHEWS

Exclusive LADIES & GENTS Tailoring

CLEANING - PRESSING - REPAIRING

Wetmore-Denby Troth Told with Apple Blossoms

The names of the couple, spelled in blossoms on the tea table, announced the engagement of Miss Marion Denby, known to her friends as "Sue," to Louis Benis Wetmore, Saturday. Miss Denby is the daughter of Mrs. Edwin M. Denby of Bloomfield Hills and the late Mr. Denby, and Mrs. Wetmore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Wetmore of Glen Falls, N. Y. No date has been set for the wedding.

Invitation were sent to 150 guests for Saturday's affair, which was held at Cranbrook School. Apple blossoms and spruce, surrounded by evergreen, formed the words "Sue and Louis," on the tea table. Garden flowers were used about the room.

Mrs. Denby received her guests in a black and white print gown. The bride-elect chose dusty pink cotton lace, fastened with a full skirt and a high-necked, puffed sleeve bodice. After the afternoon were Mrs. Cleveland Thurler and Mrs. Thomas S. Hart, aunt of the bride-elect; Miss Frances Barbour, Miss Helen Melroy, Mrs. Roy C. Manson and Mrs. Alpheus F. Jennings.

Miss Denby attended Liggett School and was graduated from Warren County School in Warren, Va. Mrs. Wetmore attended Massachusetts Institute of Technology and also studied at the Cranbrook Academy of Art.

Miss Romayne Thompson Heads Hostesses Who Will Entertain For Opening Program

When the State and National divisions of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association meet simultaneously at the Hotel Statler in Detroit, on Tuesday, June 6, the 1000 delegates will be greeted by members of the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills branches. The local matrons, who will be hostesses for the first day

NEWCOMER

The standing committee are nearly all headed by Birmingham and Bloomfield matrons, including Mrs. Sarah E. Sly, invision; Mrs. Clarence H. Booth, invision; Mrs. William M. H. Purves, invision; Mrs. Donald G. Eade, marketing; Mrs. John T. Shaw, nominating; Mrs. Aaron H. Webster and Mrs. William M. H. Purves, invision respectively of the Birmingham and Bloomfield branches of the Association.

National Council members from this region include Mrs. Harry B. Davis, Mrs. John T. Shaw, D. Thompson. Six additional members of the Council are drawn from the rest of the state.

Chairman of hostesses for Birmingham and Bloomfield Day, June 6, is Miss Romayne Thompson. Mrs. Richard P. Rasmussen, Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Purves will assist her with plans for the day. Following a convention delegates will be transported to the suburbs for a festive afternoon and evening, arranged by Miss Thompson and her committee.

To Tour Sly Gardens

Miss Romayne Thompson will open her lovely six gardens on West Maple avenue, for the group to tour early in the afternoon. Hostesses in the gardens will be Miss Marie Sly, Mrs. Harrison E. Thurston, Mrs. W. K. Knecht, Mrs. Alfred A. LaBelle, Mrs. Douglas H. Ewen, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, Mrs. H. H. Muzzey, Mrs. Louis Kahn, Mrs. Donald D. James, Mrs. George Wellington Smith, Mrs. Carlton Fox and Mrs. Herbert A. Fisher.

Whirl of Affairs Crowd Days for Anne Mary Linton

Miss Anne Mary Linton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Linton, of Redford road, is one of the busiest girls in Bloomfield Hills at the present writing as she not only is to be graduated Saturday from Kingswood school, but must meet everyone known by now, she is to be married June 10, to Richard Hitchcock. Between pre-nuptial parties, activities attendant upon the graduation and trousseau shopping, her days are filled to the brim.

Mrs. Carroll M. Boutell gave a linen shower and bridge-luncheon yesterday, for Miss Linton, who is taking at her home on Glenview circle. Another luncheon was given Saturday in Miss Linton's honor, by Mrs. Latta W. Partridge. This affair was at Devon Gables. Miss Shirley Cole will be hostess next Monday, at a bridge-luncheon at the Detroit Golf club for Miss Linton, and Mrs. Hampton E. Rich will entertain at luncheon Tuesday, at her summer home at Green Lake.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Harmon were hosts at a cocktail party at their home on Suffolk road, Saturday evening, before the opening dinner-dance at the Country Club. The Geoffrey Strengers, of Dorchester road, also entertained before the dinner-dance.

Mrs. and Mrs. Harold J. Lauer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff were co-hosts at a buffet supper party Sunday evening, at the Lauer's home on Parition road, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Daisley of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Daisley, of Linden road. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart J. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reeder.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stillman and their 11 children returned last week from Florida, where they spent several months. They are staying with Mr. Stillman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leary, of Kennerly road, until their own home on Monon court in Lathrup Townsite, which has been rented, is vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly, of Hamilton road, will leave the end of the month by motor for a fortnight's sojourn in New York. They will be accompanied east by Miss Margorie Adams, of Kennerly road, who will be the guest of Miss Louise Cobb in New York.

Mattresses and Pillows

RENOVATED and REPAIRED

All Kinds of Bedding Cleaned
Gliders Recovered

Royal Mattress Co.

Ph. B'ham 1-0788

Union Announces Details of Final Summer Meetings

The six divisions of the Women's Union, First Presbyterian Church, will conclude their summer meetings within the next fortnight. The final gathering will be held on June 14, with others coming before that date.

The first four divisions of the group have chosen Wednesday, June 7, as their meeting date. Luncheons will precede all of the business meetings and the regular programs.

Mrs. W. O. Jeffery Jr. will open her home on Fairfax road to Division One, which has Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese as chairman. Division Two, led by Mrs. F. W. DuBois, will be entertained by Mrs. Carl E. Heuser of Brookside drive. Members of Division Three, who have Mrs. W. M. Glen Coley, will gather at the home of Mrs. Harold H. Hough of Brookside drive. Division Four, which is led by Mrs. J. B. Brennan.

On June 14, Mrs. R. P. Cole will open her home on Buckingham road for a garden party. Her guests will be members of Division Five, led by Mrs. Robert Fisher. Mrs. Karl E. Herrick of Madison avenue will entertain members of Division Six, who have Mrs. Henry A. Manley, Mrs. W. L. Graham, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. E. E. Bryn and Mrs. Clark C. Coulter.

Kathleen Mead Starts Round of Parties With Plans for Her Wedding, July 1

With the announcement of wedding plans by Kathleen Jane Mead, it is certain that the parade of brides will extend well into the summer. Miss Mead, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Raymond Mead of Parton road, is chosen Saturday, July 1, as the date of her marriage to Dana Poole Seelye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana E. Seelye of Ann Arbor. The Robert W. Woodruff will perform the rites at 4:30 in the morning, at Christ Church-Cranbrook.

Matron of honor will be Miss Joan Seelye, sister of the bridegroom-elect, whose marriage to Mr. W. H. Green will be an event of June 17. Miss Mary Ann and Miss Margaret Mae Mead will be their sister's bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid respectively.

Wendy W. Hunt of Ashfield, N. C., will attend Mr. Seelye as best man. Ushers will include H. H. Mead, brother of the bride-elect; Maurice Hunt of Meersburg, Pa.; Vaughn W. Hunt and John B. Poole, both of Detroit.

Miss Mead is the central figure in a whirl of pre-nuptial parties at present. One of the first to entertain for her was Leo H. Bartemore of Grosse Pointe, who was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday, in her home on Cleverly road. Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp entertained at a luncheon on Thursday, in her home on Yarmouth road.

On Tuesday, Mrs. George T. Jeffers has issued invitations for a luncheon in Miss Mead's honor. The affair will be held at the home of the bride-elect on Suffolk road. Her guest list includes the names of Mrs. Charles F. Dye, Mrs. J. B. Bartemore, Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. R. O. Mead, Mrs. Arthur King, Mrs. Wilfred Thompson, Mrs. Russell B. Fisher, Mrs. Milton E. Chandler, Mrs. Harry D. Wise, Mrs. D. W. Russell, Mrs. Bruce R. Gregory, Mrs. Richard Bay, Mrs. Raymond R. White and Mrs. M. R. Mead, mother of the honoree.

Miss Mead's cousin, Helen Magee, cousin of the bride-elect, will be joint hostess at a supper for her pleasure, at the Hoy home in Detroit, on June 9.

Mrs. Grace Booth Wallace and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Morton of Ann Arbor, will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner, to be held on June 30, at Mrs. Wallace's Bloomfield Hills home.

Hills Interested in Cassin-Bader Troth

Bloomfield Hills society is displaying much interest in the approaching marriage of a Detroit-Cassin couple. The bride-elect, Miss Georgia Bader, daughter of George T. Bader of Westminister avenue, will wed John Anthony Cassin of Chicago on Saturday, June 24, after a round of parties in which Hills socialites are playing an active part.

The weekend will witness a breakfast for Miss Bader and Mr. Cassin, who will fly from Chicago for the occasion, given Saturday morning by Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick W. Pader of Quanton road, in the Hills. The whole party will motor to Milford later in the day where Herbert B. Seymour Jr., of Cadillac boulevard in Detroit, will be host at a weekend party at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Shannon of Wing Lake will entertain for Miss Bader's pleasure at a picnic luncheon, to be given at her home on Saturday, June 24.

D. A. R. Regent Entertains Board Members At Tea

Mrs. R. P. Cole, newly-elected regent of the D. A. R. Chapter, Division of Part of the Hills, opened her home to board members on Friday, for a tea. A series of informal summer entertainments for members and guests was discussed, to augment the regular season program.

Guests included Mrs. Walter G. Stecker, Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, Mrs. J. B. Bartemore, Mrs. Henry A. Manley, Mrs. W. L. Graham, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. E. E. Bryn and Mrs. Clark C. Coulter.

Paul L. Penfield Leads Sailors As Club Races Begin

Paul L. Penfield of Dunes street leads the victorious men sailors at Orchard Lake Country Club, as the official racing season begins, this weekend. His position was achieved during the past weekend, when unofficial races were held and on Decoration Day, when the men swamped the women, 47-31.

An exciting schedule is in store for Orchard Lake's sailors, with at least three match races being considered. The traditional regatta with the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto will be an event of late summer, at Toronto. Orchard Lake's sailors, who will make the trip.

On Saturday, five skippers braved a rain-squall course, with Frederick S. Strong III and Clement Page crossing the finish line less than a yard apart, in the order named. Sunday provided a tumultuous meet, eight boats leaving the starting line and only five finishing, when a squall struck the fleet, midway. Mr. Strong won the race, with Mr. Penfield second.

Philip Jackson and Mr. Page, coxed, and minor damages were sustained by the boats of Harley O. Smith and Mr. Penfield. William D. Crim is second-hand man, with Mrs. Benjamin H. Mott and Mr. Cabell as coxswain. First and second respectively for the women.

Mother, Daughter To Fete Graduates With Unusual Tea

Among the most unusual entertainments planned for the June graduates is a tea, at which Mrs. Walter T. Elliott and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Ann Elliott, will be joint hostesses on Saturday afternoon in their home on Hanna street. Guests at the affair will include a group of girls with which Marjorie Ann began primary school at Barnum, the members of which are now graduating from Baldwin High School. Their teachers from Barnum School will also attend the affair.

The list of students includes the names of Constantine Peck, Jane Gibson, Jean Hoffman of Three Rivers, formerly of Hills, Florence Groves, Eleanor Kelly, Ella Tukey, Betty Jean Stevenson, another former Hills graduate, now living in Highland Park; Lorraine Habery, Nancy Fletcher, Ruth Steiner, Laura Smith, Persi Gader, Phyllis Wais, Lola Schwalbe, Frances Morrison, Margaret Forsvallier, Frances W. Smith, Dorothy Brinkley, Rose Berlin and The Fifth.

Faculty members in attendance will be Miss Dena Hillock, Mrs. Josephine Bristol, Mrs. Alfreda Purchase, Miss Ella M. Cross, Mrs. Evienne Boyer, Mrs. Della Wilson, Miss Jennie Forman, Miss Gertrude L. Herrick, Miss Maude MacMichael, Mr. George W. Smith, Miss Jeanette Krickard, Miss Lyla McCormick, Miss Lyla Trill, Miss Edith Bruch, Mrs. J. Stewart and Mrs. Howard D. Crull.

WEDDINGS

When your gift to the supremely happy bride is from LaBelle's, it carries with it that air of refined good taste which is reflected only in things of fine quality.

You are invited to come in and see the smart galaxy of gifts arranged for this Spring's weddings.

La Belles

137 WEST MAPLE
"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts"

Hot Weather Cologne

A SUMMER perfume and a quick freshener which your skin feels clammy, perspiring. Refreshing to your spirits...and wonderfully cooling. Use throughout the day, after baths, and whenever you feel you're beginning to wilt. A fragrant, fastidious way of maintaining that flowerlike fresh look. Delightful gift for your week-end hosts.

CHOICE OF 3 DOORS.

WILSON'S

WE DELIVER - PHONE 2500

Presbyterian Men Plan Golf and Dinner

The annual spring golf tournament and dinner will be held by members of the Presbyterian Men's Club on Saturday, June 10, at Troy Hills Country Club. Extensive plans are being made for the affair, which comes as a highlight to the club's spring season.

Karl H. Lutz, vice-president and chairman of the entertainment committee, will be in charge of the evening's meeting. Other officers who will serve next year, besides Mr. Lutz, include P. W. Duller, president; Donald Waterbury, secretary; and Charles B. Randall, treasurer.

PLAIN DRESSES

Men's
3 PIECE SUITS
Cleaned and Pressed
89c
Waters Garments Sprayed and Moist Bagged—Free!
Matthews
244 E. MAPLE

La Belles

137 WEST MAPLE
"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts"

Hot Weather Cologne

A SUMMER perfume and a quick freshener which your skin feels clammy, perspiring. Refreshing to your spirits...and wonderfully cooling. Use throughout the day, after baths, and whenever you feel you're beginning to wilt. A fragrant, fastidious way of maintaining that flowerlike fresh look. Delightful gift for your week-end hosts.

CHOICE OF 3 DOORS.

WILSON'S

WE DELIVER - PHONE 2500

Hot Weather Cologne

A SUMMER perfume and a quick freshener which your skin feels clammy, perspiring. Refreshing to your spirits...and wonderfully cooling. Use throughout the day, after baths, and whenever you feel you're beginning to wilt. A fragrant, fastidious way of maintaining that flowerlike fresh look. Delightful gift for your week-end hosts.

CHOICE OF 3 DOORS.

WILSON'S

WE DELIVER - PHONE 2500

Hot Weather Cologne

A SUMMER perfume and a quick freshener which your skin feels clammy, perspiring. Refreshing to your spirits...and wonderfully cooling. Use throughout the day, after baths, and whenever you feel you're beginning to wilt. A fragrant, fastidious way of maintaining that flowerlike fresh look. Delightful gift for your week-end hosts.

CHOICE OF 3 DOORS.

WILSON'S

WE DELIVER - PHONE 2500

NEXT WEEK . . .

GREEK THEATER - CRANBROOK

ELIZABETH THE QUEEN

By MAXWELL ANDERSON

Starring
Edith Goddard - Vernon Kellett - Helen Eden - Marshall Foxworth

ST. DUNSTAN'S GUILD

Outdoor Performance - 9 P. M. June 9 and 10

Ticket: 25c

May be purchased at Wilson's