

Strawberries, Ice Cream and Swing with Mark First of Outdoor Dances

K-Hop Invitation Is Sent To Young Social Set Here

Members of the younger set in Pontiac are inviting their neighbors in Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham to the annual K-Hop, to be held at Oakland Hills Country Club on Friday evening, June 23. The affair is sponsored by the Kelso Club.

Kelso alumnae and active members are cooperating on plans for the affair. Co-chairmen of arrangements are Miss Isabel Snyder and Miss Lorraine Boice.

Missionary Society Plans Summer Social

The Ladies' Missionary Society of Redeemer Lutheran Church will combine a cafeteria supper and ice cream social on Friday evening, on the lawn of the church. Serving will begin at five o'clock, and the menu will center around Virginia baked ham. Members of the society in charge include Mrs. Roy Lewis, Mrs. Clarence Raymond and Mrs. John McKee.

Old-Time Festival To Be Presented At Barnum Court

The Barnum School Parent Teacher Association will stage the opening street dance sponsored by the Birmingham Recreation Commission, on Friday evening, at the Barnum court. Inclement weather will have no chance to spoil the evening because the affair will be held in the school gymnasium in the event of rain, according to an announcement made by Mrs. S. I. Johnston, general chairman.

The P. T. A. will provide added attraction in the form of an old-fashioned strawberry and ice cream festival. The refreshments will be served throughout the evening, amidst novel decorations. Glen Watson is chairman of the group of boys which will form the decorations and cleanup committee. Assisting him are Jack Greenzack, John Ellis, Norman Porter, Glen Reardon, Jack Dunn, Delore and Paul Westerby, Leo Renault and Jack Stanger.

Mrs. Andrew S. Watson is among Mrs. Johnston's chief assistants, as chairman of the refreshments committee. Serving in with her will be Mrs. Harry Clark, Mrs. Burton Jackson, Mrs. W. C. Casson, Mrs. Harry Lee, Mrs. Karl Bronson, Mrs. Clarence Walkwitz, Mrs. Louis Heck, Mrs. Arthur W. Gillespie, Mrs. Norman Porter and Mrs. Charles W. Marling. A number of P. T. A. fathers will also be present, to act as general assistants.

The affair will mark the first in a series of all-fresh dances sponsored by the Commission. The city's various P. T. A. groups will take turns as hosts, assisted by neighborhood committees.

Bloomfield Hills Man To Wed Winnie Girl

An out-of-town wedding of interest to Bloomfield Hills society will be solemnized on Saturday, uniting Miss Barbara Taylor Ballenger of Winnetka, Ill., and Mr. Walter H. Williams of Bloomfield Hills.

Miss Ballenger is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ballenger of Winnetka.

Miss Nancy Smith Will Wed In Fall

Miss Nancy Burrows Smith, daughter of F. F. Smith of Devon road in Bloomfield Hills and the late Mrs. Smith, will become a bride in the early fall, her father announced this week. Miss Smith will wed John Aligned Staff of Chicago, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy Staff of Chicago and Mount Pleasant, Ia. No definite date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect attended Kingswood School (Cranbrook and Mrs. Graves' School in New York City. She is a graduate of the University of Iowa.

After the announcement of her engagement, Miss Smith announced that she would depart for a trip through the west at the end of this week. She will return to Bloomfield Hills late in the summer.

Bride Wears Blue To Repeat Vows At Morning Rites

Miss Eileen Lapham, a teacher in the Franklin School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lapham of Farmington, became the bride of Louis Higgins of Farmington at nine o'clock on Saturday morning, at Our Lady of Sorrows Church in Farmington.

For John Larkin performed the ceremony, against a background of roses, peonies and delphinium, in tall baskets. Illumination was provided by white tapers in Cathedral candelabra.

The bride chose a powder blue shade for her marquisette gown, which was fashioned on flowing princess lines. Her picture hat was in a matching shade of blue. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white larkspur.

Mrs. Byron Lapham was nation of honor for her sister-in-law. She wore a pastel velvet gown of marquisette, with a matching yellow picture hat. Her flowers were tallman tea roses.

William Andre of Pillsbury, Ont. acted as best man. The bride's brothers, Byron, John D. and Harry Lapham, seated the guests.

A wedding breakfast for 30 guests, at the Botsford Inn, followed the nuptials. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth and decked with pink and white snapdragons and sweet peas, and white tapers. Mrs. John E. Lapham greeted her guests in a flowered chiffon frock, with which she wore a corsage arrangement of tea roses.

Following a week's motor trip through Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Higgins will be at home on English street, Detroit. While away, they will visit Mr. Higgins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Higgins, who were unable to attend the ceremony.

For travelling, the bride chose a black net, trimmed in white. With it, she wore a large black hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Kingswood School Alumnae Carnival To Be Gay Affair

A gay company will take over the grounds of Kingswood School Cranbrook at six o'clock this evening for the annual alumnae picnic and scholarship fund benefit show. Kingswood graduates, their families and friends will be special guests at the affair, which is open to the general public. Miss Sylvia Callender of Detroit is general chairman, assisted by Miss Edith Hamilton.

Supper will be served, in surroundings transformed with carnival decorations. Miss Dorice Saffrin is chairman of the food committee, and the corps of decorators is headed by Mrs. Robert Weber.

Miss Janet Forbush, chairman of the entertainment committee, is among the busiest of Miss Callender's assistants. Her chief concern is with the floor show, which is being guarded with great secrecy, but which is rumored to contain much "head talent." Vying with the entertainers will be a collection of turtles, whose race, during the evening, will be in amusement what it lacks in thrills. Fortune tellers and other carnival booths are also being arranged.

For those who do not attend the supper, light refreshments will be served, under direction of Mrs. John Alexander McPherson and her committee. The evening will be closed with dancing. Miss Madeline Owen heads the orchestra committee.

Others who will assist as committee chairman, include Mrs. John Tucker, tickets; Miss Doris Otter, finance; Miss Jean Myers, flowers; and Miss Betty Kingdon, publicity.

Mrs. Bert F. Uehle Jr. entertained her bride club at luncheon on Wednesday, in her home. On July 1, Mr. and Mrs. Uehle and their children, Marjorie and Bert III, will leave their home on Safford road for their cottage at Grand Haven, where they will spend their vacation. They will return to Birmingham during the early part of August.

Miss McDougall Tells Final Plans For Her Wedding

Final plans for the wedding of Miss Catherine McDougall of Pontiac and Paul Case Haviland of Birmingham are announced this week by the bride-elect, Miss McDougall, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McDougall of Pontiac, and Mr. Haviland, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Wood Haviland of Santa Rosa, Cal., will exchange their vows on Saturday.

The ceremony will be performed at two o'clock, at Pontiac's First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Dr. William H. Marbach, pastor of the church, officiating. Miss Helen McDougall will attend her sister as maid of honor and another sister, Miss Alice McDougall, will serve as bridesmaid. Louis Traction of Lake Orion will act as best man. Ushers will be Manfred E. Mason and John MacLennan.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McDougall will have a reception at their home. Assisting them at the affair will be Miss Edna McGill, cousin of Mrs. McDougall, and E. Mason and Miss Doris Holdridge.

After the reception, the bridal pair will depart by motor for a fortnight's trip through the east. They have taken an apartment on Bloomfield Court, in which they will be at home, following their return.

Local Graduates Are Honored At Amherst College

Three Birmingham students were outstanding among the graduates of Amherst College, Amherst, Mass., at the commencement exercises on Sunday. They are Logan O. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Jones of Buckingham road; Rockwood N. Ballard Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwood N. Ballard of Manor road; and F. William Hutchinson, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson of Lake Park drive.

Jones, who was elected this spring to Phi Beta Kappa national scholastic honorary society, was graduated magna cum laude. Besides his scholastic achievements, he was active in extra-curricular affairs. He was a member of the famed Amherst Glee Club, which made its only Michigan appearance in Birmingham this spring, and also on the cheer leading squad.

He is affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity. Ballard, who was graduated cum laude, also made his mark in undergraduate affairs, as manager of the cross country track team, and as a senior cheer leader. He is a member of Phi Fraternity.

Hutchinson also received the cum laude rating with his degree. He served on the staff of the college paper, and was a member of the varsity debate team. His social fraternity is Phi Kappa Psi. Of special interest is the fact that the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan, pastor of Christ Church Cranbrook, delivered the baccalaureate sermon. He was formerly assistant pastor at the Amherst chapel.

A Cranbrook School graduate, Victor Pattengill of Lansing, also received his degree from Amherst on Sunday. Pattengill was a ranking football star during his collegiate career.

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Glen M. Davis and daughter, Dottie, of Larchlea drive motored to Toledo over the weekend, to visit Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirkbride. Dottie remained with her grandparents for the school year, but Mr. and Mrs. Davis returned on Sunday.

Miss Mildred Wood was hostess at a family dinner on Sunday at her home in Franklin, honoring her father, Bert D. Wood. Other daughters and their families who attended the affair included Mr. and Mrs. William Thos. Wood, Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hansen of Pontiac.

Miss Margaret Hall has reversed the usual procedure by coming from her home at Osceola, Mich., to be the house guest of relatives in Birmingham. The visitor has spent several days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hall of Chavin street and at present is the guest of another uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Theobald M. Cloud and their daughter, Miss Ida Cloud, of Davis street. Next week the Cloud family will accompany Miss Hall back to Osceola, to spend a week.

Miss Francine Martin, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John F. Martin of Westfield, Mass., will sail on Wednesday evening aboard the Aquitania. She will remain abroad until the end of August, attending the World Conference of Christian Youth in Amsterdam, Holland, in August, and touring several other countries before and after the conference. She will travel with friends.

Mrs. Genaro A. Florez of Waddington road entertained members of the club at luncheon on Monday, in her home.

White Blossoms Adorn Altar Saturday As Annas-Moore Rites Are Solemnized

White iris and peonies, barked with ferns and interspersed with ivory tapers in cathedral candelabra, formed a background for the wedding of Miss Mary Virginia Annas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore of "Red Oaks," Bloomfield Hills, and John Thomas Annas of Detroit, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Annas.

The young couple spoke their vows at eleven o'clock on Saturday morning, at Holy Name Church. Fr. James Trahey, C. S. C., cousin of the bride, and Fr. James W. Cotter officiated.

Miss Moore was attired in white net over white tulle. Her bodice and also on the puffs of the long, tight sleeves, sprays of satin formed a lily-of-the-valley design. In back, her skirt fell from applique which finished the bodice into a long train. A heart-shaped, crownless bonnet of shirred tulle confined her finger-tip veil. She carried white spray orchids, stephanotis and valley lilies.

Sister Attends Bride

Miss Charlotte Moore attended her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Lucille Martin and Miss Beverly MacDuff, cousins of Detroit. All three attendants wore gowned alike, the honor maid in Venetian rose, and the bridesmaids in shell pink. They wore net, fashioned with lace bodices and full skirts. Narrow belt pleats outlined the short, puffed sleeves and sweetheart necklines. Their heart-shaped bonnets were of net to match their gowns.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were entertained at luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore. The bride's father, Mr. John E. Moore, brother of the bridegroom, attended him as best man.

man, Philip Monaghan, Thomas Moran, Norman Fredericks and Lincoln Wurter, all of Detroit, seated the guests.

Breakfast Follows Rites

Bloomfield Hills Country Club was the scene of the breakfast and reception which followed the wedding. Mrs. Moore received her guests in a Vionnet model of crepe, in hazy blue, with a matching bodice of Alencon lace. Her flower train was in pink, and her veil shaded into pink. Her flowers were orchids, in a cottage arrangement.

The bride's table was centered with white blossoms and lighted with white tapers. More white blossoms were used in the ballroom, where the receiving line formed.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Annas departed for California. On their return, in about a month's time, they will be at home on LaSalle Boulevard in Detroit. For traveling, Mrs. Annas wore a navy and white sheer frock, with matching accessories, trimmed in white.
