

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Members of the Birmingham colony at Grand Rapids, Mich., summer will include Mr. and Mrs. W. Sydney Gilbreath, Jr. and their children: Marian, Nan and Billy of Puritan road. The Gilbreaths will journey to the northern resort at the end of the month, for a six-weeks' sojourn.

Miss Joy Stewart of Frank street was hostess at luncheon, followed by bridge on Saturday, at Orchard Lake Country Club. Covers were laid for 25 guests.

Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb departed early in the week for New York, after a short visit in Birmingham, during which she was the house guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Hassberger of Vinewood avenue. Mrs. Cobb, who was widely entertained while here, was accompanied by her son, William, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Colgrove of Puritan road since his family moved here, in April.

Miss Mary Palmer, daughter of Ray A. Palmer of East Maple avenue, returned recently from a fortnight's stay in Philadelphia, where she visited her brother, John Palmer, a former resident of Birmingham, together, they saw the New York World's Fair and other points of interest.

Thursday was a gala occasion for a group of members of the younger set. Miss Virginia Fyfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fyfe of Riverchase, entertained her friends at Pine Lake Country Club, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. In the party were Miss Natalie Seaborn, Miss Nancy Walker, Miss Virginia Hammes, Miss Mary Bronson, Miss Mary Virginia Lawson, Miss Maude and Miss Jean Merritt. Later in the afternoon, the group adjourned to the farm on which Miss Seaborn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Seaborn of Kennasau road, spend their summers, for the annual and a party for members of the graduating class at Adams School.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baggett returned this week from a fortnight's motor trip through the south, during which they visited the Williamsburg restorations, the Carolinas, and the Great Smoky Mountains.

Popular residents of Birmingham will move out-of-town in the near future are Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Chandler and their three children, Miss Frances, Carol and James, of Safford road. The family will depart for Meriden, Conn., in August, to join Mr. Chandler, who will leave soon. A number of parties will honor them, prior to the move.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Pattison and their family of Puritan road have left Birmingham for Palisades, Mich., where they will pass the summer months.

Among the last of the college students to return home for the summer is Miss Rhys Ewald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ewald of Farmouth road. Miss Ewald, who completed her freshman year at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass., early in the month, has been occupied with a round of visits in the east, including a trip to the New York World's Fair, since the end of the school year. She is expected in Birmingham, early next week.

Another family which has departed for an extended summer vacation is that of Louis A. Farquhar, of Lake Park drive. Mr.

Farquhar and their children, Sally Ann, Louis Jr. and Gretchen, have gone to Goodhart, in northern Michigan, where they will remain until early in September.

An interesting gathering was held over the week-end at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cunningham on Hawthorne road. To celebrate the tenth anniversary of the date of their wedding, the Cunninghams invited three couples from their home in Toledo, all of whom were members of their wedding party, to visit them here. Included were Mr. and Mrs. John Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Suder and Mr. and Mrs. William Ritzke. Besides the visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis and a contingent from Detroit were invited to dinner, Saturday evening. The McGinnis home on Shirley drive was the scene of a breakfast on Sunday, with the Cunninghams and their visitors as guests.

Miss Yvonne Gay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gay of Safford road, is currently spending a month in Chicago, where she is studying dancing. About the middle of July, she will journey to New York, for an additional six weeks of study. During a part of the month, she will journey to the house guest of Miss Peggy Mills and her parents, Colonel D. C. Mills and Mrs. Mills of Irving-on-the-Hudson, formerly of Birmingham. Miss Genevieve Gay has returned to Birmingham after a course in Chicago, and will remain with her parents at least until the end of the month.

Mrs. William Cote Allee of Henley drive was hostess at a small luncheon Friday, in her home.

Mrs. William G. O'Rourke of Chicago arrived in Birmingham early in the week, to attend the wedding on Saturday of Edith Babcock and John Pratt. While here, Mrs. O'Rourke will be the house guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. O'Rourke of Pilgrim road.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Howe and their son, William Jr., will return to their home on Tibbly place at the end of the week, after passing several days in Chicago.

Friends of Lieutenant Arthur J. Smith and Mrs. Smith (Jane Fowler) of Randolph Field, Texas, are much interested in word that they will come north early in July, for the first time since their marriage, last summer. They will be the house guests of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Fowler of Rochester, formerly of Birmingham, and many affairs will honor them. On August 1, the young couple will depart for their new station at Balboa, Canal Zone, Panama.

Mrs. R. J. Waterbury was hostess to 20 guests on Tuesday, for luncheon and bridge in her home on Williamsburg road. She has issued invitations to 16 friends for the second in a series of bridge-luncheons she is planning, to be held at her home on Wednesday, June 28.

A popular visitor in Birmingham has been Miss Helen Hay of Cheyenne, Wyoming, who is the house guest of her fellow student at the University of Michigan, Miss Barbara Brehm, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brehm of Hawthorne road. Miss Katherine Pickering of Detroit entertained for the visitor at luncheon on Wednesday, at the Detroit Athletic Club. Today's hostess is Mrs. Beecher W. Compton of 13 Mile road, who has invited a luncheon and swimming party at Oakland Hills Country Club. The affair will jointly honor Miss Hay and Miss Ruth Armstrong, who moved here recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armstrong of Shirley drive. On Friday, Miss Hay and Miss Brehm will return to Ann Arbor to enroll in summer school.

Mrs. E. M. Vehmeyer and her daughter, Ann, will return at the end of the week from a fortnight's sojourn in New York. They motored eastward, after which Mrs. Vehmeyer's daughter, Miss Doris, who will sail today for two months of European travel, in company with friends from Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Henry C. Duffield and her children, Dorothy and George, of Lone Pine road, will depart for Boulder, Colo., at the end of the month. They will remain in the west for the balance of the summer, as the house guests of Mr. Duffield's mother, Mrs. George E. Bragdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Welch Jr. and their family of Safford road are planning an extended trip to the west coast, including the Hawaiian Islands, and expect to be away during late July and early August.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Smith of Bannaville avenue motored to Marion, Mich., over the week-end, for a Father's Day celebration. They were the house guests of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Goodrich, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, also.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strosen-Reuter and their children returned recently to their home on Pilgrim road, after a week in the east, during which they visited the New York World's Fair. On Friday, small Margery Lee Streuen, Reuter will observe her third birthday at an afternoon party, followed by supper for six of her little friends.

Welcome additions to the newly-married set are Mr. and Mrs. Clement A. Penrose, Jr., who recently opened their home on Wadsworth road, near the University of Detroit. Mrs. Penrose is the former Miss Mary Louise Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Frye and their son, Royall, departed Wednesday from their home on Floyd street, for a week in Washington, D. C. While there, they will be the house guests of Mrs. Frye's mother, Mrs. R. T. Royall. They will motor back to Birmingham in about ten days. Another son, Rex Frye Jr., departed at the end of the week for the United States Army camp at Ft. Knox, Ky., where he will remain for about eight weeks, returning in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hart Strunk of Lake Park drive were hosts at a family dinner on Tuesday evening, in their home. The affair was designed to welcome Mrs. Strunk's mother, Mrs. C. R. Wilson, who returned to Birmingham on Monday after spending six months in St. Petersburg, Fla. Other guests at the dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Haynes Wilson and their daughter, Audrey; Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and their daughter, Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Sedwick and their son, Teddy; Mrs. L. A. Parsons and Howard Benn. Mrs. Wilson will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Strunk for an extended period.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. O'Gorman Jr. entertained a group of their friends at dinner and bridge on Saturday evening, in their home on Abbey road. Mr. O'Gorman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Platt, Jr., of Evanston, Ill., will spend the coming week-end with the O'Gormans. They will return on Sunday, accompanied by Mr. O'Gorman's grandmother, Mrs. J. C. O'Gorman, also of Evanston, who has been visiting here.

Departing on Sunday after a week's sojourn in Birmingham, were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert and Andrew Dutch of Trenton, N. J., and Philip Hury of Long Island, currently enrolled at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. The trio were the house guests of Miss Mildred Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Lynch of Fairfax road. Honoring her guests, Miss Lynch was hostess at a steak roast in her yard on Tuesday evening. On Thursday, Miss Lynch and Miss Herbert were among the guests at a luncheon given at Orchard Lake Country Club by Miss Betsy Baldwin of Wing Lake.

Mrs. C. O. Ball of East Maple avenue will entertain 36 guests at luncheon on Friday, followed by bridge. The affair will be held at Pine Lake Country Club. Mrs. Ball has asked Mrs. W. D. Duflois and Mrs. H. D. Harris to assist her. At the end of the month, Mrs. Ball will depart for a fortnight's sojourn in the east. She will be the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Martin P. Lath of Newton Highlands, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stetson and their three children, Rita, Bob and Bill of Lakeside drive, will depart by motor on Saturday for an extended trip through the far west. Their ultimate goal is the San Francisco World's Fair, where they will spend much of their time, but they will also visit relatives in Iowa and include many points of interest en route. They plan to return to their home about the middle of July.

Marjorie and Maurice Smith Jr., daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Smith of Pilgrim road, will depart on June 27 to spend the summer at their respective camps. Marjorie has enrolled at Interlochen, and Maurice will be a counsellor for eight weeks at the brother camp, Camp Penn Loch. Both are located at Interlochen, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. I. Sabom of Puritan road are entertaining as their house guest, Mr. Sabom's nephew, Bob Sabom of Houston, Tex. The visitor, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sabom, former Birmingham residents, will be in Birmingham for at least a month.

Mrs. O. R. Clemmons of Franklin turned on Monday from St. Louis, after a week's visit. Preceding the departure of the family for St. Louis, where they will make their future home, they will spend several weeks at Northport Point in northern Michigan, for which they will leave next week. Mr. Alexander, who is still in St. Louis, will join his family in the north, early in July.

Popular residents of Birmingham who will make their home in Santa Monica, Cal., in the future are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Neerke and their family of Oxford drive. The family recently departed for the west coast.

Watts Wacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wacker of Pilgrim road, is confined to his bed at present, with casts on both legs. He will welcome visitors from friends.
