Bridge Luncheon Is Mid-Week Event

The regular luncheon and bridge at Pine Lake Country Club on Wednesday brought out a large contingent of feminine members and their guests. Mrs. Edwin G. Hollenbacher and Mrs. C. H. Slack formed the committee for the event.

The list of hostesses included the names of Mrs. Benjamin H. Arnold, Mrs. William B. Crawford, Mrs. W. Burl Schmidt, Mrs. Robert R. Tanner, Mrs. W. C. Hanaway, Mrs. John C. Kinsel, Mrs. Russell Eames and Mrs. Louis Cole.

Mrs. Robert H. Ahlers took two tables for the occasion, and single tables were taken by Miss Loretta Porritt, Mrs. R. P. Cameron and Mrs. William P. McCallum.

Franklin Circle Will Hold Ice Cream Social Tonight

Taking advantage of the weather, members of the Franklin Circle have set this evening as the time for their old-fashioned ice cream social. The affair, announced originally a fortnight ago, was postponed last week. The social will take place on the lawn of the Franklin Community Church. The public is invited to attend.

There are two kinds of people—good and bad. The classifying is done by the good.—Bathelien
