

Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble Becomes First Woman to Head St. Dunstan's Guild

Traditional Tennis Match Will Be Played By Orchard and Pine Lake Clubs

A holiday event of much interest will be the tennis match between Orchard Lake and Pine Lake Country Clubs, on July 4. The match will be staged at 10 a. m., at Pine Lake, and ranking players from both clubs will appear. Singles for men and women, men's doubles and mixed doubles are on the schedule.

Members of the host club who will play include Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilkie and Raymond T. Penning of Detroit, William H. Manning and Robert W. Muzzy of Birmingham, and Miss Evelyn Dwyer of Pine Lake.

From Orchard Lake, the team will be composed of Julian J. Frey, Paul L. Penfield, Miss Jean McKinney, Gordon Staunton, Fred C. P. Jr., Genaro A. Flores, and for the final feminine contestant, either Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff or Mrs. Waldemar P. Adams. Mr. Woodruff is last season's club champion at Orchard Lake.

This traditional contest between the two neighboring clubs, always a source of keen interest among members, will be doubly interesting in view of the fact that no victor resulted from last year's match. The contestants split the eight games evenly.

Another outstanding tennis event at Pine Lake will be the annual club tournament, which starts over Saturday and Sunday. Members already entered include Mr. Muzzy, Richard and John Allman, Harry and Richard Denyes, Bill Sninning, George Fremont, Mr. Manning and Miss Dorothy Porritt. Play is restricted to members only, and the finals will be played off July 8 and 9.

Phil Williams Says It's A Fact!

See proof in our Ad next week.

If you're going to "fish" for bargains, you'll want to match them with quality by patronizing us.

Proof of Last Week's Fact "BEAUTIFUL AND DUMB" IS NOT BASED ON FACT!

Studies made, as well as objective comparisons, show that there is no relationship between appearance and intelligence. Confirmed by the Department of Psychology of New York University.

WILLIAMS BOOT SHOP 115 W. Maple

"Outfitters To Happy Childhood"

KEEP THEM COOL FOR Camp and Summer Play

You can pick a summer full of practical, easy-to-keep-clean clothes from our varied new stock. Everything to keep the boy and girl comfortably dressed at camp, in the country, or in town, is thriftily priced in this—the children's store.

OVERALLS . . 79c to $1.95 PLAYSUITS . . $1.00 to $2.95
JACKETS . . $1.00 to $2.95

The CHEER SHOP
IN THE THEATRE BLDG.
Infants' and Children's Apparel and Accessories

Directors Name Other Officers At Summer Session

Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble of Birmingham road became the first woman to head St. Dunstan's Guild, following the election of officers by members of the board of directors, held Monday.

Mrs. Noble will bring to her position as chairman, a broad background of experience in dramatic work. Her husband, Sheldon R. Noble, has also achieved widespread recognition in amateur and professional theatrical work.

Assisting Mrs. Noble during the 1939-40 Guild season will be Richard P. Kuehman, first vice-chairman, and the Rev. Robert W. Woodruff, second vice-president.

Mrs. Jones B. Shannon, the second of three feminine board members, will hold the office of secretary. Clark Bennett has been elected treasurer.

Mrs. John W. Blanchard brings the feminine representation up to three, in her capacity as chairman of the play-reading committee. H. Kenneth Bingham, retiring president of St. Dunstan's, will remain on the board during the coming season, as member ex-officio.

Bragaw-Callender Nuptials Set For August Nineteenth

Miss Sylvia Elizabeth Callender, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Sherman D. Callender, of Detroit, has set Saturday, Aug. 19, for her wedding to James Berry Bragaw, of Bloomfield Hills. The ceremony will be performed at 3:30 o'clock in the evening, in Pilgrim chapel of the North Woodward Congregational church and a reception follow at the Detroit Golf club.

The bride will have her sister, Mrs. Norman Gable, of Tucson, Ariz., as her matron of honor and Miss Virginia Jackson and Miss Dorothy Plunkett as bridesmaids. Mr. Bragaw, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bragaw, of Leno Pine court, will be attended by Arthur Batten.

Mrs. Bragaw will entertain for her son's fiancée on July 7, with a luncheon and shower. Other parties for the bride-elect include a bridesmaid shower and dinner, to be given July 6, by Mrs. Harry Ackles of Cleveland, at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Ploch, on Shrewsbury road.

Present Day Club Honors Mrs. Barrett

Members of the Present Day Club honored their retiring president, Mrs. Horace Barrett of Emmons avenue, at a special meeting on Wednesday. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. R. W. Turner of Bird avenue.

Mrs. Turner is president of the executive committee of the organization, and her assistants include Mrs. Percy Parkyn, vice-president; Mrs. James Dammell, secretary; Mrs. Ralph C. Brundage, treasurer, and Mrs. Fred Wilson, corresponding secretary.

The executive committee was in charge of arrangements for the luncheon, which opened Wednesday's meeting. Mrs. Roy Smith was chairman of the committee which presented a gift to Mrs. Barrett, in recognition of her work as president for the past two years.

FREE SUMMER STORAGE FOR WINTER CLOTHES RIDLEY CLEANERS

...PAY CLEANING CHARGE IN THE FALL

A. A. U. W. Head Reports Resolutions Passed At Recent National Convention

In what they termed their "proposed legislative program" for the coming year, the American Association of University Women passed Federal protection by legislative measures and security measures appropriations at their national convention, held June 19-23 at Denver, Colorado.

Activities were made by Mrs. Royce L. Beers of Arlington drive, president of the Local A. A. U. W. branch, who returned from Denver on Monday. Mrs. Beers as local president-elect and Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, retiring state president.

Mrs. Beers, who said it was her first big convention, stated that the blanket passage of the resolutions was a "revelation" to her, preceding as it did, the possibility of opposition.

Curry-Bell Vows Are Exchanged At Morning Ceremony

The poetic hour of early morning, as dawn is breaking on a new day, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Curry and Mr. David H. Bell, Jr., for their wedding solemnized at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Renwick Bell of Knox street, and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. David H. Curry of Philadelphia, formerly of Birmingham, and the late Mrs. Curry.

The double ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Glen Harris, at a quiet ceremony, held at the Presbyterian Manor.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of embroidered white net, fashioned over pastel blue tulle. With it, she wore a corsage of gardenias and blue bachelor buttons.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Bell were hosts to members of the family at a breakfast, in the home. Mrs. Bell greeted her guests in a sheer gown of blue and white tulle.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry departed after the breakfast, to spend the week-end on a Lake Huron cruise. For traveling, the bride chose a narrow and white sheer ensemble, with which she wore a white hat and maroon accessories.

They are at home to their friends at 224 Brown street, preceding an extended trip to the east which they will take later in the summer.

One of the final parties for the pleasure of the bride, preceding her marriage, was a miscellaneous shower, given on Monday. Co-hostesses at the affair were the Misses Esther and Lucy Purdy, and Mrs. John T. Purdy. It was given at their home on Frank street.

Social Studies

An regards social studies, the convention will support "Legislation is the interest of the consumer, including strengthening of the Food and Drug Act and its administration, and coordination of consumer activities in the Federal Government." Further protective legislation is urged.

"Adequate appropriations for the Children's and Women's Bureaus of the Department of Labor," and for the Department's Wage-Hour division, "To insure fair and uniform enforcement of Fair Labor Standards Act."

Endorsement of the Social Security Act expressed in a resolution supporting "A coordinated social welfare program, including an increase of benefits under the Social Security Act." It was also recommended that the merit system in government be "extended and improved."

"Such measures as may be necessary to protect civil rights in the 'United States' will also receive A. A. U. W. support, the resolutions resolved."

Convention delegates attended a chuck-wagon dinner on Monday evening, after a day spent in business sessions. "Yesterday's Women," a western pageant with a cast of over 300, occupied the evening hours.

State and branch officers and chairmen met on Tuesday. In the evening, a special dinner marked the 50th anniversary of the first A. A. U. W. fellowship for women A. A. U. W. speakers included Dr. Cecilia Payne Gaposchkin, astronomer from Harvard University, whose topic was "The Problem of a Women Scholar," and Dr. Helen C. White, professor of English at the University of Wisconsin, who discussed "Our Status in Creative Scholarship."

Michigan Breakfast

The Michigan delegation held a special breakfast on Wednesday, and sectional luncheons were held at noon. "How Women Achieve" was the theme for dinner, which followed the day's meetings.

Speakers were the Hon. Frances Perkins, Secretary of the U. S. Department of Labor and the Hon. Dorothy Kenyon, judge of the Municipal Court of New York. Dr. Susan M. Kingsbury, professor emerita of social economy at Bryn Mawr College, presided.

Following a crowded business day, the University of Denver entertained delegates at tea on Thursday. After dinner, the development of film history was traced. Special breakfast opened the day on Friday, as recent graduates and publicity workers met separately. The morning was taken up with the presentation of a demonstration of new techniques for A. A. U. W. programs. Dr. Kathryn McHale, general director of the A. A. U. W., presided over the final general session. In the evening, a college dinner was held. Dr. Mary Ellen Chase, noted novelist and professor of English at Smith College, appeared as principal speaker. Her topic was "The Tradition of Taste and Excellence in American Education."

NOTICE Annual School Meeting

The annual meeting of School District No. 5 of the Township of Bloomfield, County of Oakland, for the election of Treasurer and for the election of Moderator to fill the unexpired term of former Moderator who resigned, and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully come before it, will be held at the School-house on Monday, the 10th day of July, 1939, at 8:00 o'clock P. M.

(Brief statement of questions to be submitted)—

Election of Treasurer for three-year term;

Election of Moderator to fill unexpired term of Moderator who resigned;

Determination of tax levy for next fiscal year;

Usual business of annual meeting.

Dated this 24th day of June, 1939.

(Signed) EDWARD S. REID, JR., Director

Vows Repeated At Lovely Rites in Ferndale Church

One of the prettiest weddings to be solemnized this season at St. James Church in Ferndale, was that of Miss Mary Louise Rochelle of Pleasant Ridge, formerly of Birmingham, to Paul Behrendt of Ferndale. The young couple repeated their vows at ten o'clock on Saturday morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rochelle, former Birmingham residents, and Mr. Behrendt is the son of Herman Berndt of Ferndale.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, advanced towards an altar banked with peonies and larkspur in pastel shades, and white roses. She wore a floor-length gown of white silk marquisette, made over satin, and a finger-tip veil of bridal illusion. Her all-white Colonial bouquet of roses was tied with tulle and long satin streamers.

Miss Anne Rochelle attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a bouffant gown of powder blue chiffon. She carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed blossoms, in pastel shades of pink and blue.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Bink of Pontiac and Miss Jane Gloszner of Flint. They were attired alike, in pale pink chiffon gowns, made like that of the maid of honor. They carried Colonial bouquets of pink roses, to match their gowns.

James Behrendt attended his brother as best man and usher were Jerry and Edward Rochelle, brothers of the bride. All were attired in white.

Music during the service was sung by the Little Boys' Choir in the Church. Special solos were offered by Miss Lillian Schwan and Master Tommy Sark, friends of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony, breakfast was served to 30 guests at Rosemont Hills. In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rochelle were hosts at a reception for 150 guests, in their home.

The bridal pair will be at home to their friends at 617 East Bennett street in Ferndale, after August first.

Miss Pattie Main, daughter of Linden road, returned recently from the University of Michigan and left Tuesday for Camp Canwell on Lake Haron. She will spend the summer at the camp, serving as instructor in archery and swimming. Her brother, Bill Main, will leave Sunday, for Camp Tee-Tonk-Ha on Wolf Lake, where he will spend a month.

La Belles is alive with bright and beautiful things for the country house, and grand gifts for the week-end hostess. Let us show you gifts to take with you such as—books, new Hi-Ball glasses, coasters, salad sets, copper water pitchers, traveling irons, new gourd strings, etc.

We'll help you with your Bridal Gift, too.

La Belles
117 WEST MAPLE
"Birmingham's Shop of Books and Gifts"

Ross Riddell
Chiroprapist
Mondays—8:30 to 9:30 P. M.
Evenings by appointment.
211 Waabek Eldg. Phone 1672

LOADED with SAVINGS for Holiday Fun!

Sun Tan Oil 49c - 79c

Picnic Jugs 79c

BEACH BALLS $1.00

SWIM RINGS 69c to $1

BEACH BAGS $1.00

Take A Kodak With You

AT NEW LOW PRICES
Baby Brownie — $1.00
Brownie Jr. — $2.00
Bantam F6.3 — $8.50
Fifty Kodak — $7.50
Kodak 35 — $14.50

Eastman Film
Take plenty of fresh film with you.
10% Off by Doz.

J & J HOME BANDAGE KIT

SWIM SUITS
One Piece $1.50
Two Piece $3.00

Howland SWIM CAPS 69c to $1.25

Rubber STEP-INS . . . 50c

Beach Strollers $1.00 and $1.95

SPECIAL One Lot—Rubber Bathing Shoes Reduced To 49c and 75c

First Aid Kit
In metal Hinged Box Complete with scissors
Fine For The Car $1.00

WILSON DRUG
WE DELIVER PHONE 2500