

Out of Town Reservations Pouring In A. A. U. W. State Convention

Mrs. Stecker Fetes Piety Hill Regents

Mrs. Walter G. Stecker entertained members of Piety Hill chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at tea Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Pilgrim road, honoring Mrs. William L. Graham and Mrs. Mark Harris, past regents, and Mrs. R. P. Cole, newly-elected regent.

Ornamenting the tea table was a silver vase holding yellow daisies, orchid delphinium and baby's breath and flanked by tall ivory tapers in silver candelabra. Great clusters of peonies were disposed about the house.

Assisting Mrs. Stecker were Mrs. Charles P. Butters, Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. Clark C. Coulter and Mrs. Charles Dann.

Charles E. Buck III To Wed Wisconsin Girl on Saturday

News of another June wedding involving a Birmingham man is of interest this week. The bridegroom-to-be is Charles Elton Buck, III, son of Mrs. Charles E. Buck, of Harbour terrace, who will take as his bride Miss Eleanor Shepard on Saturday, June 10. Miss Shepard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Shepard, of Weyerhaeuser, Wis.

The ceremony will be performed in Chicago, in the chapel of the Church of the Redeemer, with Rev. W. White officiating. Miss Alice Miller will be the bride's only attendant and Stratton Buck, of Knoxville, Tenn., will serve his brother as best man.

A breakfast for members of the two families will be served after the service and later, Mr. Buck and his bride will leave on a honeymoon trip through Northern Michigan. They will make their home in Detroit.

Mr. Buck will leave Friday, accompanied by another son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stratton Buck, for Chicago, to attend the wedding.

Mr. Buck is a graduate of Baldwin High school.

Recall Invitations To Linton Wedding

Owing to the sudden death Monday night of Mrs. George W. Linton, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. J. Linton, of Bedford road, have recalled invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Miss Anne Mary, to Richard Hitchcock, which will take place on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Linton, Sr., was Mrs. G. W. Linton's mother.

The marriage will be celebrated as planned at 4 o'clock in Christ Church Cranbrook, in the presence of only the immediate families. Rev. R. W. Woodroffe will officiate and there will be no attendants.

Two-Day Program Opens Tomorrow At Hills School

Over 100 out of town reservations received so far for the state convention of the American Association of University Women, to be held tomorrow and Saturday at Kingswood school, are an indication of the size of the attendance expected. Registration of delegates will start tomorrow at 9 a. m. under the supervision of Mrs. Robert H. Whitlatch and her committee.

Election of state officers will take place on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. Mrs. Fred D. Farrar of Birmingham, is the present state president of the organization.

At the opening luncheon Friday, Mrs. L. L. Beers, president of the Birmingham branch, and Miss Auger, headmistress of Kingswood school, will bid the delegates welcome to the meeting and Dr. Rudolph Lindquist, director of Cranbrook school, will be the principal speaker. His subject will be "Educational Fundamentals."

During the afternoon, round table discussions, led by prominent Michigan women, will be held and at 6 o'clock there will be the annual banquet, during which presidents of new branches, distinguished guests and past state presidents will be introduced and awards given.

Convention delegates will be guests at the play, "Elizabeth the Queen," to be presented by St. Dunstan's guild Friday evening, at the Greek theatre. Preceding the program, there will be an exhibition of English country and Morris dances, under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Wray. Wedding authentic Elizabethan dress, the dancers will do such age-old figures as "Shepherd's Hey," "Boat Song," "Picking Up Sticks," "Parson's Farewell," "Dargason," "Gloriouses" and "Gathering Peas."

Mrs. Lewis K. Marshall will have charge of costumes and Mrs. Gordon Pennington, of properties. The program will be directed by Virginia Farrar, Mary Francis, Conch John, Betty Klingensmith, Hele Tippet, Bill Frayer, Ward Cruickshank, Gordon Gittinger, George Sawyer, Kenton Shaver and Kenneth Spahr.

Music will be provided by George Austin and Jack Mellingier, clarinetists, and Gordon Eis, pianist.

Saturday's program includes breakfast at 8 a. m., the tables to be arranged for various discussion groups, business session and tellers' reports on the election of state officers at 10; an arts program at 11, and the closing luncheon at 12:30.

Featuring the arts program will be an address by Miss Lura Beam of Bronxville, N. Y., member of the headquarters staff of the A. A. U. W.

Dr. May Hall James of New Haven, Conn., a charter member of the Birmingham branch and its first program chairman, will be the speaker at Saturday's luncheon, her topic to be "Education in International Relations." Dr. James is assistant professor of social sciences at New Haven Teachers' college and a member of the summer faculty of Yale University. Mrs. Charles J. Shan, another of the six charter members, will introduce the speaker. The other charter members of the Birmingham branch are Mrs. Donald T. Stanton, Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. E. G. Wasey and Mrs. Farrar, and they, with Dr. James and Mrs. Shan, will be seated at the speakers' and honor tables.

Children Working On Their Exhibits For Flower Show

Not only are the mothers of the town coddling their brains over projected novel arrangements for the Birmingham flower show of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association, set for Saturday afternoon at the Community House, but many children are doing likewise in preparation for the young people's exhibit.

Graduation Memo to DAD!

This scissors ad is not so quick or so slick as a Schick. But it's the right idea... Shear 'em off rather than scrape 'em off... because they tell me a razor blade scrapes off skin as well as hair... and soon will leave me with "Roger-Blade Skin."

A Schick saves money too! You know how much dough you've spent—just in your lifetime—for blades, soaps, creams, lotions and shampoos. But I want none of these first-aid-to-the-rasorial set; I want a Schick—it cannot cut or nick.

DAD: What better way to "send" him into modern shaving than with a Schick Dry Shave? The gift he'll always remember! Prices from $1.25 to $2.50 (A.C.S.)

Inspiration

Compiled by Clarence W. Hamilton

We all need inspiration to make us improve, think harder and be more efficient. These messages by men and women who have overcome difficulties are intended as an aid to your success and happiness.

LOYALTY, AGGRESSIVENESS AND FAIRNESS

"Loyalty, aggressiveness and fairness play equally important parts in my business," according to Ralph Hitz, president of the National Hotel Management Company, Inc., one of the world's best-known hotel men.

"Loyalty perhaps is paramount. And when I say loyalty, I mean not only loyalty to the organization for which you work, but loyalty to your customers, too. In the hotel business you have got to satisfy your customers and keep them satisfied . . . because that is the only way you can keep them loyal to your hotel."

"Aggressive selling or promotion is a prime necessity in today's highly intensified competitive struggle in all fields of business. The hotel management companies face a particularly difficult problem as far as aggressiveness is concerned, as they must be aggressive in a diplomatic manner."

"Fairness must not only prevail in your relations with your guests—as in the hotel business . . . or customers—in other fields, but in your dealings with your own staff. Only by being fair can you create loyalty, which in turn bolsters the eagerness that makes any business machine a smooth working unit."

"Faced with the problem of selling an intangible product, the hotel industry is forced to cope with the problem of personalizing its salesmanship. This, of course, breaks down to courtesy. The hotel version of courtesy, however, is perhaps different from the commonly expressed interpretation of the word. We must convince our guests—in order to instill the desire to return to our hotel with the knowledge that we are interested in seeing that he has every reasonable wish gratified."

Ralph Hitz has established a world-wide reputation as a manager of fine hotels and has made a vast army of friends by the hospitality and courtesy shown to his guests.
