Show Reveals Spring Fashion Picture As 'Colorful, Pretty And Youthful'

Under auspices of the University of Michigan League, a large group of Birmingham matrons and misses witnessed a charming picture of the mode for spring at the Community House on Tuesday afternoon.

Color is lavishly splashed on everything from sweaters to hosiery. And some of the new red shades, like cyclamen, as well as the better known charrtruse and powder blue, are making a strong bid for the supremacy now shared by black and navy blue.

'Bride' Is Cook At Golden Wedding Anniversary

Numerous gifts of flowers, countless cards and the congratulations of friends and neighbors honored Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Moore on the anniversary of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have lived in Birmingham for 17 years. Prior to that time, they farmed in Troy and Royal Oak Townships for 33 years.

From the Women's Angle

Gardenias to the City Commission. Recently the orchid of the week was awarded to a public-spirited organization of Birmingham women.

Seriously, we wish to pay tribute to the City Commission as a group of men who have assumed a wide variety of public duties.

The Commission is particularly interested in learning the opinions of taxpayers and residents, and invites comment at hearings.
