ELECTION

was nominated as clerk to succeed the late James V. Bayley.

David Anderson is the nominee for treasurer, Jacob Bauman for highway commissioner, Edward Sikorski for justice of the peace, and Edward Hagerman for the board of review. Four constables will be voted upon, with Barnard Gilles, William C. Foreman, Ralph Hemmerly, and E. C. Mathews as nominees. Col. Edwin S. George is chairman of the Township Republican committee, and Frank J. Maurice is vice-chairman.

Republican Slate

In Troy Township, Martin H. Stumpf is candidate for supervisor, and the remainder of the Republican slate includes: Glenn W. Ladd, clerk; Clifton Truesdell, treasurer; Harry Grant, justice of the peace; Clarence Westlake, board of review. Candidates for the four constables are Leroy Weaver, Merton Todd, John Beach, and William Renshaw.

On the Democratic ticket in Troy Township, are: Paul Nelson for supervisor, John M. Barrett for treasurer, Jacob Attenberger for highway commissioner, George D. Keyes for justice of the peace, Frank King for the board of review, and for constables, Robert C. Barrett and Russell F. Barnard. There is no Democratic candidate for clerk.

Southfield Township's only contest, that for the office of justice of the peace, was settled in the primary with the elimination of Oliver Kirk, Birmingham attorney. James S. Simpson, who opposed Kirk was nominated.

All others seeking re-election are Republicans, and are unopposed. Lynn Everett for supervisor, Mrs. Fannie Adams for clerk, and Albert J. Johnson for treasuper. Clyde Gass is candidate for a vacancy on the board of review, and Mrs. Helen Campbell seeks a full term on the board. William Dreisner is candidate for constable.

Where's Their Enterprise?

American publishers must be losing their towie. So far there has been no announcement of "The Memoirs of Freddie Bartholomew" or "The Life and Letters of Shirley Temple."

In view of recent developments in Europe, I wonder what the professors of international law in our universities now intend to offer in lieu of courses of study in international law.—"Alabama."

Her Favorite Wedding Gown

The bride walked to the altar on the arm of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, her half-brother. She wore a white satin dirndl and a veil of old lace that her mother wore at the first of her four marriages.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Abstemious Gourmet

The gourmet does not smoke much, if any, for an hour or two before a dinner, nor any at all during dinner (until dessert and coffee), because he knows that tobacco blunts the palate, which is unfair to a good dinner.—Gourmet Society's Code.

What Is A Gentleman?

Genteel in personage,
Conduct, and equipage,
Noble by heritage,
Generous and free.
