CHILD STUDENT

(Continued from Page One) but to look at the beautiful flowers to see the mighty hand of God. In the second place we believe that God is a Perfection which bestows or imposes moral law upon our nature. God Holy, Everywhere in the Scriptures God is spoken of as being Holy. Holiness is purity, freedom from foreign elements, from impure elements, free from defilement from all defilement. The child who believes that a Holy God can love unholy men. All God's perfections may be summed up in Holiness even as all colors are summed up in light.

(Continued from Page One) Fellowship With God The almighty Christianity is personal holiness. "Be ye therefore holy, or perfect, as your Father Jesus in the heaven on the Mount. God created man in such a fashion that he has ability to fellowship with God, and He God demands that His creatures should be like unto Him.

(Continued from Page One) Dives into Snow Before we went to run, the cops were on me. They were on me with black-jacks and after being hit 2 or 3 times plus being smashed in the face I took a dive into the snow, face first. The snow immediately revived me enough to have sense enough to get my hands to prevent any injury to my nostrils. They shoved me into the patrol wagon and when no one else was carted, they took me to central station. There I, of course, had to fill out some blanks.

(Continued from Page One) The Old Testament declares that God sees, makes, and says. He says and does, all of which are elements of personality. God walked in the garden in the evening and talked with Adam. God is presented as a Father, certainly that comes within the realm of personality. We can understand that.

(Continued from Page One) Dean Takes Action Up to this, everything had worked out fine but now we had to see Dean Lobdel. His rule had been set up that those caught participating in a demonstration would be expelled from the school. Dean Lobdel decided to indict this punishment on two boys and I was dismissed from the dorms. Dean Lobdel decided to let go, the is a senior) Thus, right now, I haven't the slightest idea where an attorney lives.
