

Harriet Brelsford Reveals News of Engagement to Fred W. Boynton Jr.

Bride-Elect Chooses Early Autumn As Tentative Date Of Her Wedding

Two of the most popular members of Birmingham's younger set figured in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Harriet Brelsford to Frederick W. Boynton Jr. News of the betrothal was revealed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Brelsford, of Pilgrim road, parents of the bride-elect. Mr. Boynton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Boynton, South Bend, Ind., formerly of Dorchester road in Birmingham. The young couple will exchange their vows early in the fall, it was indicated. Further details will be announced later.

Miss Brelsford is a graduate of Baldwin High School. Later, she attended Michigan State College, where she was active in undergraduate activities. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority and also of the Tau Gamma Phi leadership and leadership honorary for women. Mr. Boynton is also a graduate of Baldwin High School. He received his degree in engineering from the University of Michigan, where he was affiliated with Beta Theta Beta fraternity and Triangles, junior engineers' honorary society.

Gardenias Convey Brien-Widenmann Engagement News

Thirty scrolls attached to the stems of gardenias, and bearing the names of the engaged couple, announced the betrothal of Miss Mary Louise Widenmann to James Gayle Brien, at a tea Saturday. The affair was given by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Widenmann of Puritan road, parents of the bride-elect. Mr. Brien is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Brien of Woodland avenue. No date has been chosen for the wedding.

Miss Widenmann attended the University of Michigan. Mr. Brien is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where he was affiliated with Chi Psi fraternity.

The gardenias which conveyed the announcement to the 35 guests, were distributed to them at the door.

Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. E. McCord Mulock Jr., Mrs. Robert Voss, Miss Barbara Stecker, Miss Julie Kane and Miss Eleanor Lawrence of Detroit.

D. A. R. Announces Annual Book Drive

Through state-wide chapter efforts, the annual book and magazine drive for the benefit of the American Merchant Marine Library is now being conducted by the chapters of the American Revolution. The drive will continue through April 7 according to Mrs. Verne L. Murray, of Lake Park drive, chairman of local arrangements.

Louisa St. Clair Chapter of the D. A. R. is again sponsoring the work, under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas D. Moule. Books and magazines of all kinds are needed. Mrs. Moule states that a special effort is being made to get light fiction and adventure stories, history and technical works.

Donations may be brought to the nearest public library, or to a special collection. The books obtained are made up into small library units of 25 or more diversified volumes, and are routed from one ship to another in order to be of service to as many men as possible. Seamen in the American Merchant Marine Service are almost entirely dependent on books gathered by D. A. R. drives for their entire reading material. Mrs. Moule continued.

Interest Centers On Garden Lecture

The Birmingham Unit of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will move to Detroit for the April meeting. Members will attend a lecture at the Detroit Institute of Arts at 2:30 on Wednesday afternoon, April 6. The program will take the place of the regular monthly meeting scheduled for Monday, April 10.

Charles G. Adams, landscape architect, brought from California by the Michigan Division of the National Farm and Garden Association, will appear as principal speaker to the audience. The meeting will be made up of members from all the units in the Detroit area. Luncheon for the various groups will precede the lecture.

The Birmingham contingent will meet at La Casa Loma on Woodward avenue, at 12:45. Mrs. Derwood B. Gamble, chairman of the luncheon committee, has set the afternoon of Wednesday, April 6, as the deadline for reservations. Members who wish to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Gamble or her assistants: Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. A. J. Underwood or Mrs. Douglas H. Ewen.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hassberger, of Vinewood avenue, returned on Sunday, from a few days' visit in Flint.

Charles Savage To Play For Triangles

Charles Savage will present a piano concert on Sunday afternoon at the Community House, for the regular meeting of the Triangle Club. He will offer a number of light classical selections, although his complete program has not yet been announced. George Flower, chairman of the meeting, states that it will begin at the new time, of four o'clock. Mr. Flower is informal head of the club, under the reorganized plan. He is assisted by Miss Alice Sawyer, Miss Elise Taylor, Ray Sucher and William Guckelberg. At the organization's last meeting, plans were discussed for the new series of programs, which will carry the group through the summer. The club welcomes all young people in the district who are of post-high school age.

Miss Mary June Hastreiter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter of Abbey road, will arrive today from Virginia, where she is a student at Stuart Hall, in Staunton, for her spring vacation.

Piety Hill Will Send Group To State Meeting

Several officers and members of Piety Hill chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have announced that they will attend the organization's 30th annual state conference, to be held in Saginaw, March 29 to March 31.
