Amherst Club To Receive Gay Welcome From Society Here, Preceding Concert

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills will greet the Amherst College Glee Club on a wave of festivity, when the group presents its only Michigan concert at the Community House on Wednesday evening, March 29. Alumni and friends of the college will open their homes for the occasion, to entertain the singers as house guests, and to honor them at dinners preceding the program. After the concert, there will be a dance at the House for the Glee Club members and the Birmingham and Bloomfield girls who will be their partners for the evening.

George D. Clark, Brookline drive is general chairman of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Rockwood N. Bullard, Mrs. Rufus B. Jones and an extensive list of patrons.

Bullards To Entertain

Given by Mr. and Mrs. Bullard, in their home on Manor road. Their guests will include Mrs. Bullard's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Wilson of Mohegan avenue and their two Glee Club guests, William B. Stillwell and William C. Wheeler; James Packard of Pierce street and his two children, Robert H. and Samuel Sacerdotti; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason of Windsor, who will spend the night with the Bullards; Miss Mary Curtis of Chicago, the house guest of Mrs. Bullard's daughter, Miss Catherine Wilson; Miss Wilson, Miss Frances Morley, Miss Betty Ward, Miss Phyllis Ahlers, Miss Katherine Wygant, Miss Joan Hart, Miss Esther Lee-Mixer, Mrs. Ruth Asper; from the Glee Club membership, Charles M. Allen, David Garton, Henry B. Poor and Oliver M. Marcy, all of whom will be their house guests, and Rockwood N. Bullard, who will spend his vacation from Amherst with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Leichen of West Lake road will also be hosts at dinner. Among their guests will be Miss Johanna Staffin, Miss Betty Anne Pease, Miss Mildred Lynch, their son, Ed, who is a student at Amherst, and their house guests, Mrs. Pease, George F. Hunt, H. D. Ker and Malcolm Stearns.

Many Parties Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Heimiller of Linden road will have as their house guests, Franklin K. Paine, Jr. of Louis, Mich. They will entertain them at dinner along with their daughter, Miss Alice Lee Heimiller, and Miss Jeanne Heimiller. Mr. and Mrs. Clark have issued invitations to a group of their friends from the ranks of the younger married set for a buffet dinner, preceding the concert. John Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Allan of Hupp Cross road and a graduate of Amherst, will entertain for Hartley Joyce and LeRoy Farnstrand, who will be his house guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Jones, whose son, Logan O. Jones, is a member of the Club, will also give

Hunt Club Members To Don Frills For Gay Nineties Dinner-Dance

Dressed in the frills and furbelows of the Gay Nineties, members of the Bloomfield Hunt Club and their guests will dine and dance at the club Saturday night. The meals of the dining-room will be lined with sets depicting street scenes of the gas-light era, replete with horse-drawn vehicles, and the frills and courtly gentlemen and elegant ladies, the latter in flowing skirts and, it is expected, with elaborate hats.

Clay E. Herbst and C. George Shepherd are co-chairmen of the party, which will be the occasion of much entertaining. Preceding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Emmert will be hosts at a cocktail party at their home on Berwyn road.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacManus will entertain at the dinner-dance, their guests to be Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stoen, Miss Sarah Walker, Miss Jane Leszczynski and William M. Walker, Jr. of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Williams will act as co-chairmen of the party assisted by Corinne Cooley, Shirley Hatherley, Pat Ridgen, Jean Annan, and Helen Hopkins.

Local Matrons Take Interest In Flower Show Plans

One of the features of the annual Detroit Flower Show, which will open at noon of Saturday, March 25, for a nine-day run, will be an educational unit sponsored jointly by the Detroit Garden Center and the children's division of the Michigan Horticultural Society. Local matrons from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills will assist their fellow-members of the Center in arranging the unit.

Mrs. George I. Bouton of Detroit, chairman of the Center's executive committee, will attend on the afternoon of the Flower Show, and will be available to explain the services and work of the organization. During the morning attendants will be Mrs. John T. Shaw, Miss Margaret Hendrie, Mrs. John F. Keys, Mrs. John W. Nagle, Mrs. John L. Morley, Miss Romayne Thompson, Mrs. Frank Allen Whitten, Mrs. Hope Whitten, Mrs. Percy C. Hill and Mrs. A. A. Enrick. Other members of the Garden Center who will play important parts during the Flower Show include Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, chairman; Mrs. W. D. Thompson, vice-chairman; Mrs. E. R. VanDusen, secretary; Mrs. Lee E. Joslyn Jr., judges and removals; Mrs. Benjamin B. Warren, Mrs. W. Bradford Palmer and Mrs. William Childtenden.

Would-be gardeners who must express themselves in window and porch boxes only, will be interested in one especially novel feature of the show, the "Garden in a Box," a member of the board, will provide four boxes, to be planted with different plants. Two are designed for sunny exposures and two for shady ones. All the plant materials, which will be easy to grow, and inexpensive, will be displayed separately, with a complete price list.

A consultant service for those whose gardens are on a larger scale, will also be shown. Two well-known gardeners will be on hand every afternoon and evening, to give advice on every gardening problem. Miss Addie Sly, whose talents are well-known to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills enthusiasts, will be present from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. on Thursday, March 30, to advise would-be iris fanciers.

Dinner Precedes Dress Rehearsal Of Baldwin Play

Forks, spoons, glasses, and chairs were colorfully tagged "You Can't Take It With You" at the rehearsal dinner Tuesday night in honor of the cast of Baldwin High School's all-school play, "The Kaufman-Hart hit, 'You Can't Take It With You,' will be given at the school at eight o'clock this evening and Friday, at the same time. Directors, assistants, and the technical staff were included in the party which was held in the Baldwin high school cafeteria.

Among those attending were Miss Ruth Hull, Miss Emily Walker, Miss Joy Stewart, and Miss Lucille Dewar, faculty advisers. Those in the cast were Jean Cromwell, Martha Ann Mellinger, Patricia Hoff, Bill Holmes, Bob Bliss, Harold Borden, Viria DeWitt, Gertrude Rogers, John Bathgate, Marion Kirk, Bill Cobb, Warner Fordey Julian Feiler, Ed Ward, Jack Wood, Ward Crutick, Hank, Bob Eath, and Herbert Moore. Others included Mary Garfield, Jack Dunn, Tom Gorman, Charles Lyle, and Marjorie Ann Elliott.

Immediately after dinner, the members of the cast resumed their parts for the dress rehearsal of the play.

The dinner was prepared by members of the cooking classes supervised by Miss Eleanor Miller. Betty Fawcett and Thelma Manly acted as co-chairmen of the group assisted by Corinne Cooley, Shirley Hatherley, Pat Ridgen, Jean Annan, and Helen Hopkins.

Club Wins Praise

A feature of the concert will be the great variety of the 30 songs in the Glee Club's repertoire. Ranging from the austere chorales of Johann Sebastian Bach to the rollicking campus airs of their own college, the Glee Club will present selections from the works of Brahms, Grieg, Tchaikovsky, Chopin, and other composers. The program will include rollicking sea chanteys and haunting negro spirituals.

Ralph H. Outley, director, is responsible for many of the most popular arrangements, as well as the enviable balance achieved between the vocal and instrumental sides of music. The first tenor section in particular, has won high praise from critics of the dining-room. Tickets are available at the Community House, Schettler's or by calling Mrs. Bullard.

Health League To Accept Volunteers

The Maternal Health League of Michigan is now accepting the services of volunteer members for local administration, according to Mrs. Edward E. Rothman of Linden road, chairman of publicity. The League maintains clinics at Oak, for use throughout Troy, Royal Oak and Southfield townships, as well as southern Bloomfield Township.

Mrs. Lewis E. Daniels is chairman of the Southern Oakland County chapter, assisted by several other local matrons. Mrs. W. Williams serves as vice-chairman. Mrs. A. Schirmer is secretary. Mrs. Bruce B. VanDusen is membership chairman.

Those who would like to assist at the clinic, in transportation, publicity or clerical positions, are invited to telephone Mrs. Daniels, at her home on Telegraph road. New members may apply through Mrs. VanDusen.

The clinic is maintained through whatever contributions the League members or patients are able to make. Patients are also accepted without charge.

ANNOUNCE TOPIC HORMEL BOOK TALK

"Enjoying the Divine Poem," a lecture by Olive Deane Harnell, the seventh in the University of Michigan Extension series on contemporary literature and drama, will be given at two o'clock, Monday afternoon, March 27, in the Guild Hall of Christ Church, Cambridge.

Visitors' Day And Committee Reports Conclude Season For Saturday Club

Mrs. Ephraim Ross Gomborg of Hawthorne road, chairman of the Saturday Club committee of the Birmingham Branch, American Association of University Women, witnessed the climax of the current season's work on Saturday, when Club members were held at a visiting day and program. About 100 parents and guests attended the affair, which was held at the Community House.

Theodore "Caesar" Czerkowski, director of the Club, introduced Mrs. Gomborg, as first speaker on the program. She spoke briefly, welcoming the guests. "Your interest in coming here has made this work worthwhile," she said.

Mrs. Franklin Fricker, president of the local A. A. U. W., was the next to speak. For her organization, she thanked the Community House, as co-sponsor of the Saturday Club, and expressed a hope that the current season's day become a community affair. She also introduced Charles J. Shain, president of the Community House.

Praises Project

"Funds for next year's Club program will be included again in the House budget and publicized in our coming annual drive," said Mr. Shain. "The House appreciates this kind of work and is glad to do all it can. And we want particularly to thank the A. A. U. W. committees for carrying on the program."

The committee for this year, headed by Mrs. Gomborg, also included Mrs. Karl D. Bailey, recorder; Mrs. James A. Murray, clerk; Mrs. William C. Allen, equipment and supplies; Mrs. William E. Esery, publicity, and the following general committee: Mrs. W. J. Daveschir, Mrs. Leonard J. Lewis, Mrs. Milton F. Morrison, Mrs. H. D. McLeese, Mrs. Erwin D. Merriam, Miss Janet Peabody, Mrs. O. Ford Pearson, Mrs. George W. Platt, Mrs. Donald M. Spencer, Mrs. Bert E. Uebel Jr., Mrs. J. M. Welt, Mrs. Robert H. Whittlatch and Mrs. Chester L. Zook.

MUSICAL CHORUS WILL GIVE CONCERT

The Birmingham Musicales Chorus, under the baton of Frederick A. Probst and accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Arnold W. Berndt, will present a Lenten concert at two o'clock this afternoon, at the First Baptist Church. Mildred Gene Ritter will be featured as soloist at the organ.

Mrs. Adolph A. Klautsch will play several violin selections. Solo roles in the choral numbers will be taken by Mrs. Sereck H. Fox and Miss Vadne Scott.

The performance will be open to the public, as a continuation of the Musicales' winter concert series.
