Cobbs In Center Of Social Swing

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Jack of Indiana, Pa., arrived on Saturday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb of Aspen road. They were accompanied by Mrs. Cobb's mother, Mrs. Lewis C. Wetling, who has been visiting her other daughter, Mrs. Jack. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb entertained for the pleasure of their guests at an informal buffet supper on Sunday evening. About 25 guests were invited to the affair. Mr. Cobb will leave for New York soon, returning at the end of the month to take his family to the eastern city, where they will occupy an apartment on Fifth Avenue for about seven months. Innumerable parties are being arranged in honor of the Cobbs, among the first of which will be a dinner to be given Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Donnelly at their home on Hamilton road. Guests have been asked to bring candid cameras, if they possess them, and flood lights will be arranged in the Donnelly living room, so the photo fans may have their fun. Invited, besides Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, are Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Averill, Mrs. Elizabeth Hassberger, Dr. J. B. Hassberger, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Giffels, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart. Mr. and Mrs. Grier will compliment Mr. and Mrs. Cobb with a buffet supper on Sunday, March 26, at their home on Fairfax road.

Mrs. Lee A. White, president of the University of Michigan League of Birmingham, is among the local matrons who are taking an active interest in the fashion show and tea, which the League will sponsor on an afternoon of Tuesday, March 14. The affair will be held at the Community House.

Mrs. Robert F. Watt is general chairman of arrangements for the event, which is designed to answer the ever-important question about what will be most fetching for that Easter bonnet or the new spring suit. Gowns and accessories to meet every need will be shown.

Mrs. Melvin J. Kates will assist Mrs. Watt as chairman of the tea committee. Those who will work with her include Mrs. William Robinson, Miss Helen E. Casius L. Miller, Mrs. Mark Harper, Mrs. J. E. Hanna, Mrs. Francis F. McKinney, Mrs. Helen E. McDonald and Mrs. J. J. Roua, Jr.

Mrs. George M. Dwellley heads the music committee. A number of luncheons at the homes of League members will precede the show. The affair will be open to everyone, as well as to members of the organization and their guests.

GIVE DINNERS AT CITY CLUB BEFORE CONCERT

Many Birminghamites who attended the concert of the Detroit symphony orchestra, Saturday evening, found their way first to the Women's City club for dinner. Dr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser McDonald were among those who entertained guests at dinner and later in their box at the concert. The group were Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Mitchell and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Winans, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Elden J. Bemis. Seen together at another table at the City Club were Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Winston, Miss Jessie Winter and Miss Margaret Auger.

Mrs. Dorothy G. Roosevelt had dining with her, her mother, Mrs. Francis P. Kemp, her daughter, Janet Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chapman and Miss Helen Fenton, of Detroit, and Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kemp. The Wallace Frosts, who entertained Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kahn of Detroit, in their box at the concert, were dinner guests of the Kahns at their home.

A. A. U. W. Appoints Four New Directors

Members of the Birmingham branch, American Association of University Women, elected four new members to the board of directors on Wednesday, at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Dye on Lake Park drive.

Those elected were Mrs. Dye, Mrs. William Colt Allen, Mrs. Charles J. Shain and Mrs. Karl B. Lutz. They will join the five current members in the election of officers for the coming year, later in the month. Officers will be chosen from the nine directors.

Also at the meeting, members were entertained at a dessert luncheon and program. Principal speaker was Professor Valentine Windt of the University of Michigan, whose talk was entitled "Broadway on Revue."

Pierce PTA To Hear Talk On Dentistry

Dr. George E. Marin, whose offices are in the Hanna building, will address members of the Pierce School Parent Teacher Association at their meeting this afternoon. The day's program will start at 3:30, at the school. Mrs. Mary Dalton, president of the organization, will preside.

Dr. Marin's subject has been announced as "Children's Dentistry." The nominating committee to elect officers for the P. T. A. has been appointed. Mrs. Jack Gill, Mrs. Jack Boomer and Mrs. Violet Thompson, teacher in the third grade, are serving on the committee.

Refreshments will be served during the afternoon, and will consist of mothers of children in the second grade. Mrs. Alma Darnell is serving as chairman of arrangements.

Fritz Adams, a student at Olivet college, spent last week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Adams, of Kennesaw road.

Mrs. Frederick E. Booth, of Harmon avenue, entertained her bridge club at luncheon yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Essen Olson who formerly lived on Oakland avenue, are now residing at 408 North Woodward avenue.
