

P.N. Averill Named
Players President
At Annual Session

Paul Neal Averill of Broadway boulevard, became president of the Village Players, Monday evening, at the annual election of officers, at the Playhouse. For the one-year term, Mr. Averill succeeds Rolfe C. Spinning of Knox street.

New board members elected by the players include Mrs. Arthur L. Geneng, Mrs. Charles D. McCall, Dr. James H. Howell and Dr. John P. Hollister. Retaining their positions as board members are Mrs. Harold E. Middleton and Robert N. Woodruff. The entire group will meet in the future to select the officers which will assist Mr. Averill during the coming year.

Also at Monday's meeting, Edward S. Reid, Jr. was named to serve as treasurer.

The business meeting concludes the official season of the organization, although the annual players' picnic is still among the pleasures of the future. The picnic will be held at Orchard Lake Country club, near Farmington, Mich., on Saturday, May 20. Outdoor sports will occupy the afternoon hours, after which dinner will be served. In the evening, there will be dancing and bridge.

Horse Show Looms Large
On Society Calendar For June

Of paramount interest both to the horse and to society in general each year, is the big Detroit Horse show, which is set for June 8, 9, 10 and 11. It will be held, as usual, on the grounds of the Bloomfield Open Hunt in Bloomfield Hills, where the setting is perfect for such an event.

The four-day show, in addition to being fine entertainment, is a worthy project as well, as the proceeds are turned over to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Pontiac, and the Goodwill Industries in Detroit.

There will be afternoon and evening programs the first three days of the show, beginning at 1:30 and 8 o'clock, and an afternoon program only the last day, which will be Sunday. In addition, there will be a children's show on Saturday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Among the classes will be those for open jumpers, model hunters, touch and out steeplechase, polo ponies, jumpers, hunters, pairs of harness ponies, five-gaited saddle horses, knockdown and out, bridle path hack and many others.

Judges will be: Saddle horses, Douglas Chenault, Richmond, Ky.; harness horses and ponies—Fred P. Smith, Montclair, N. J.; hunters—M. Roy Jackson, Bryn Mawr, Pa.; polo—John A. Young, Detroit; jumpers—Clarence E. Otter, Bloomfield Hills; Charles H. Bray, Detroit; and James A. Beeson, Bloomfield Hills.

John T. Chandler
Weds Detroit Girl
At Church Service

In the presence of 300 guests, Miss Emma Margaret Parks, of Detroit, and John Thomas Chandler, of Farmington, Mich., were united in marriage at a church service Tuesday afternoon at St. James church, 23rd street, Detroit.

Matthews Catholic church, Detroit, Rev. Fr. Joseph Fillion performed the ceremony at 10 o'clock, which was followed by a nuptial mass. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with blue delphinium, yellow roses, lilies and other spring flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Joseph Egar, of Detroit, wore a gown of white lace over white tulle, fashioned with a bouffant skirt and trimming of tulle about the square neckline and short, puffed sleeves. A tiny rosette of white tulle, centered with orange blossoms, held in place the long bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley, tied with streamers of tulle.

Miss Mary Egar, niece of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore a stone blue lace over tulle, her dress being similar in style to that of Miss Parks. Both bridesmaids wore a blue tulle rosette, decked with pink flowers, and carried white sweet peas and blue delphinium, tied with pink tulle.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Jack Oden of Huntington Woods, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Evelyn Raven, of Detroit, who were in pink taffeta models, made with full skirts and shirred bodices, and pink tulle caps, trimmed in cornflower blue flowers. They carried pink sweet peas and blue delphinium, tied with blue streamers.

Mrs. Chandler, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in navy blue crepe, figured in rose and blue flowers, with a redinette of navy mousseline de soie. Her hat was a blue straw beret, trimmed in lavender and green velvet bows and finished with a blue noose. Mrs. Joseph Egar, the bride's sister, wore a floor-length dress of rose colored lace, with which she wore a hat of luggage tan straw, trimmed with a redinette of navy mousseline de soie. Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Egar wore corsage bouquets of tea roses, carnations, sweet peas and baby's breath.

Gorton Greene, of Birmingham, was best man and Jack Oden of Huntington Woods, William Chlopak of Highland Park, seated the guests. Robert Wilson and Carl Lounsbury were honorary ushers.

John and Joseph Egar, nephews of the bride sang during the recessional.

After the ceremony, a reception for 100 friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Egar on Courville avenue, where the bride's table was decorated with spring flowers in pastel tones and a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left after their wedding on a motor trip to Northern Canada. On their return, they will take up their residence in Highland Park.
