For Beauty Eat More Carrots, Advise Experts

"If you want to be pretty, eat carrots," how often have we heard this remark? There is a good deal of truth in this saying, as carrots contain many good qualities that have a direct bearing on good health. Many delicious dishes may be prepared by combining carrots with other vegetables. Try the following and see for yourself:

Mint-Flavored Glazed Carrots and Peas

Cook 3 large carrots in boiling water till tender. Plunge in cold water and slip off the skins, then cut in cubes. Cook 3 tablespoons of granulated sugar and 1 teaspoon of fresh mint leaves finely minced. Cook slowly until nicely glazed, then add a pint of fresh peas which have been cooked separately. Stir all together over the fire for 5 minutes.

Carrot Souffle

4 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt—pepper
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1 1/2 cups carrot pulp
2 eggs

Melt fat, add flour, salt and pepper. Mix well. Gradually add water (in which carrots were cooked) and milk; add carrot pulp cooked and mashed through a sieve. Bring to boiling point, stirring constantly. Beat egg yolks until thick and add. Cook slightly and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased baking dish and bake in an oven 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

Steamed Carrot Pudding

1 cup grated raw carrots
1 cup grated raw potatoes
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup flour

Butter size of an egg
1 teaspoon grated nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon soda mixed with the potatoes
1 cup raisins

Mix thoroughly and steam three hours. Serve with a sauce made of 1 cup of sugar, 1 egg, and the juice of 1/2 lemon. Beat and pour into the 6 tablespoons of oil. Serve hot.

Baked Stuffed Carrots

6 carrots
1 egg—salt
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
parsley—pepper
1/2 teaspoon shortening

Bread crumbs

Select carrots which are short and thick. Wash and scrub and cook in boiling water. Remove from water, drain and cool. Melt shortening and add to carrots, salt, parsley and pepper. Cook slowly for 5 minutes. Scoop out centers of carrots, and fill with onion mixture, packing down well. Dip in bread crumbs, then in egg beaten and mixed with a little water, and again in crumbs. Put carrots in a baking dish with pieces of butter on each one. Bake in a hot oven for 20 minutes.

Carrot and Mushroom Loaf

1 cup milk
3 tablespoons shortening
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt—pepper
1 cup cooked diced carrots
1/2 cup cooked diced mushrooms
4 eggs

Thin slices cooked carrots cut lengthwise.

Make a cream sauce of the milk, shortening, flour, pepper and salt. Cool slightly before adding the well-drained diced carrots and mushrooms. Beat the eggs and fold into the mixture. Turn into a greased bread pan which has been lined with the long slices of carrots. Set the pans in hot water and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Serve immediately with mushrooms and celery sauce.

Crook Carrots

Cook young carrots in boiling salted water until tender, but not soft. Remove seeds and slice from a green pepper. Cut carrots, green pepper and a pimiento in thin strips. Heat a little fat in a frying pan, add carrots and green pepper, and cook slowly for 10 minutes. Do not brown. Add pimiento, salt and pepper to taste. Mix well. When ready to serve sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Carrot Timbales

1 cup bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons of butter
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt—pepper
1 tablespoon minced parsley
2 eggs

1 1/2 cups grated carrot

Cook bread crumbs and milk until thickened. Add butter, sugar, pepper and parsley. Beat eggs until light and add with the grated carrot to the first mixture. Turn into greased timbale molds. Place molds in a shallow pan and fill pan with hot water to within 1 inch of the top of the mold. Bake in an oven 325 degrees until firm. As soon as they are done, they are removed from the pan of water, a small pointed knife is slipped around the edge and they are inverted on a hot serving dish. They should slip out easily, but if they hesitate just tap the mold gently on bottom and sides. Pour creamed peas over and around them.

Fashion Tips

Evening dresses vary to please every figure and age. There are stiff silks with boules, starched chiffons in white and pastels, empire-waisted models and shirtwaist types.

One of the most attractive ensembles for those who will entertain their guests in night club consists of a chiffon dress with a floor-length pattern. Polka dots or stripes in subtle colors are used.

Eyebled embroidery is popular again. Adorable short jackets of it are used over colored chiffon dresses. In fact, nearly all of the summer frocks have gay jackets.

Knitwear is another old favorite which is being used as a trimming on evening jackets.
