REMODELED COLONIAL FARMHOUSE ON 43 ACRES

Located close to Birmingham, this farm answers the popular request for "something in the country—close to town and transportation." The house is a charming old farmhouse in a beautiful setting of evergreens, picturesque old apple and fruit trees. It has been completely modernized and has the following accommodations:

FIRST FLOOR: Living Room 34 x 17, with fireplace; Dining Room; Library; Bedroom with Dressing Room and Lavatory; large Kitchen with sunny breakfast nook.

SECOND FLOOR: 5 large, airy Bedrooms, Linen Room and Bath.

There is a large clean basement, a modern steam heating plant and water system. The entire house has been newly decorated with attractive colonial papers.

Other buildings include a large barn with cow stalls and box stalls; 2 big chicken houses; garage and a well house. There is an orchard of varied fruit just coming into its prime—and enough land to support the livestock. The vegetable garden is already planted for you.

The price is astonishingly low—it's ready to move in.

Counselors Named For Oakland Co. 'Y' Camp at Hale

Counselors for Camp Mahngotah-see, Oakland County Y. M. C. A. camp at Loon Lake, near Hale, Mich., for the coming season are announced today by Robert D. Lynd, camp director. Mr. Lynd, who will begin his tenth year in this capacity, and his 25th year in Y. M. C. A. work, will have as assistants counselors who have served several years on the staff of the same camp.

Eugene Hubbard, Baldwin high school teacher, will act as associate director. Mr. Hubbard will begin his seventh year at the 'Y' camp, in charge of the camera club, sailing and canoe trips.

Other counselors, all of whom have spent from one to three years at the Oakland County camp, in different branches of camp activity, include: Vernon Larson, Richard Northway, Jr., William Jensen, William Carhart, Jr., Robert Erickson, Chris Montross, Thomas Kohler, and Larry Wagner, Jr. Miss Winnifred Burley, registered nurse, will return to camp after having served as camp nurse for two years.

Selections still to be made, according to Mr. Lynd, are camp doctor and more cabin leaders. James Young, camp chef, who has cooked at Oberlin College "Quads" for a number of years, will begin his fourth year at the 'Y' camp this season. He will be assisted by Mrs. Fannie Dyer, also a chef at Oberlin College.

GYPPED—NO LUCK
IRON RIVER (MPA) — Mrs. Anna Sirbu has not one, but 24 rabbits' feet and considers herself unlucky. And well she might, for she paid $100 for them. They were attached to a pair of boots as "baby seal skins" from a stranger. The rabbits' feet are worth $4.50.

PONTIAC—Five Pontiac High School students, members of the commercial art class of Miss Leila Ma Davenport, were among winners in a Statewide potato poster

Oakland County Briefs

HAZEL PARK—Three youths are held under $500 bonds for examination on charges of breaking and entering in connection with robbery of a Hazel Park residence, April 29. They were arraigned before Justice Roy F. Koltz.

They are Thomas Cannon, 18 years old, 2434 McDowell avenue; Albert Thomas, 17 years old, 1914 Romeo avenue; and Francis Tronze, 18 years old, 445 West Maxlow avenue, all of Ferndale.

A fourth youth, Robert Eckhart, 17 years old, 140 West Grand avenue, Hazel Park, waived examination and is held for trial. They are accused of taking $800 from the home of Victor Freiberg, 440 West Maxlow avenue, Hazel Park.

PONTIAC—Removal of all transients from the Emergency Relief Administration rolls is scheduled within 30 days, Stacy S. Skelton, county administrator, announced.

Skelton said that the Oakland County Relief Commission had voted to remove 200 families which have not established county residence. The families will be provided transportation back to areas where they have established residence.

Skelton said that the bureau no longer would accept applications from single men and that those now on the rolls face removal if funds prove insufficient.

ROYAL OAK—An eight-year-old Detroit boy was injured seriously at 9:50 a. m. today, when an automobile driven by his mother went out of control and crashed into the Radio City theater, Woodward and Withington avenues, Ferndale.

The boy, Harold Rodgers, is in Royal Oak hospital. His jaw was fractured and his teeth were knocked out. His mother, Mrs. Ina Rodgers, age 36, 710 Peterboro avenue, Detroit, was treated at the hospital.
