

League of Catholic Women to Conclude Season

Musical to Sponsor Glee Clubs' Concert

A concert by the Cranbrook and Kingswood Schools Glee Clubs will be the contribution of the Birmingham Musicals to National Music week, which will be observed throughout the nation, next week. The program will be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, May 11, at the Community House. The public is invited to attend.

The Cranbrook Glee Club will be directed by Vernon B. Kellett. Miss Ruth McCormick will direct the Kingswood singers. Miss Grace Emory will also appear on the program, in several selections at the piano.

Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp, program chairman for the day, has announced that the glee clubs and a capella choir from Baldwin High school have been invited to attend the program as special guests of the Musicals.

General Chairman Names Committee For Spring Event

Members of the League of Catholic Women who will assist with preparations for the fourth annual May Breakfast are announced this week. The affair, which will be held at Holy Name Church and at Devon Gables, is the last event of the season for the League and as such will draw the interest of the entire League. Mrs. J. W. DeBeaulieu is general chairman of the committee.

Following the annual tradition, High Mass will be celebrated at the Church at nine o'clock in the morning. At ten, the League will adjourn to Devon Gables. Following breakfast, Father John Gabels of Lansing, annual speaker at these affairs, will appear on the program. His subject will be "Ireland."

Assisting Mrs. DeBeaulieu is a large committee which includes the names of Mrs. John C. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Rex Foye, Mrs. Edna Connelly, Mrs. Harry S. Starr, Mrs. James W. Partlan, Mrs. George J. Velt, Mrs. Carson Bingham, Mrs. Millard T. Smith, Mrs. E. R. Hayes, Mrs. Vincent J. Forde and Mrs. Caroline Corsi.

Although group activities will be officially concluded for the season at Monday's function, a number of group activities will continue for some time. The next meeting of the study club, sponsored by the League, will be held at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, May 10, at the Community House.

Program is Planned By Michigan League

Members of the University of Michigan League will meet at eight o'clock this evening, at the same time similar Michigan clubs are meeting, to observe the country to commemorate the opening of the Michigan League building in Ann Arbor. The local group will be entertained by Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington in her home on Arlington drive.

Assisting Mrs. Sappington will be Mrs. W. Clifton Randall and Mrs. Robert F. Watt, who will serve as co-hostesses.

Mrs. and Mrs. Elbridge G. Newhall Jr., who recently returned from Mexico, will appear on the program. They will show colored slides, as well as ornaments and other mementoes of their trip.

Members are asked to bring the banks, in which they have been collecting funds for Henderson program, the new co-operative dormitory for women students.

Young Couple Will Make Home Here After Quiet Rites

Miss Marie L. Wright became the bride of Les F. Hooper at seven o'clock Friday evening, in a quiet ceremony performed at the First Christian Church in Pontiac. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright of Ann Arbor and Mr. Hooper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hooper of Pontiac.

The Rev. John D. Garrison officiated at the ceremony. Guests were limited to the families and a few close friends of the bridal couple.

The bride was attired in a coat and dress ensemble of beige, with which she wore a small hat in a matching shade, and accessories of British tan. Her flowers were tea roses, sweet peas and forget-me-nots, in a corsage arrangement.

Miss Irene Wright attended her sister as maid of honor. She too chose a street-length frock in thistle crepe. Her accessories included a navy, and she wore a corsage of roses.

A small reception was held following the wedding ceremony at 7 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Hooper will reside in Birmingham, and are making their home at 284 East Maple avenue.

D. A. R. Reveals Date For Annual Meeting

Fifty Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its annual meeting at Devon Gables at eleven o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, May 9. There will be a business meeting during the morning session, followed by luncheon and an afternoon of bridge.

Mrs. E. H. Cole is in charge of luncheon arrangements, assisted by Mrs. D. H. DeGraff, who recently attended the Continental Congress in Washington, D. C., will present a detailed report of her activities while there. She represented Fifty Hill Chapter as official delegate.

The election of chapter officers and directors will form the outstanding business of the morning. Mrs. W. H. DeGraff, who recently attended the Continental Congress in Washington, D. C., will present a detailed report of her activities while there. She represented Fifty Hill Chapter as official delegate.

Pythian Sisters Depart For District Convention

Under the leadership of Mrs. Edna Barber, Most Excellent Chief of the Birmingham temple, Pythian sisters, will leave this morning for Ann Arbor, to attend the annual convention of District Number Six. Temples from Ypsilanti, Adrian, Dundee, Tecumseh, Tipton, East Sike Jackson, Milan, Kelsey, Ann Arbor, and Birmingham will participate.

The Birmingham temple has been invited to demonstrate the ballet drill and also to furnish some of the entertainment. Mrs. Hazel Lawler of Birmingham is the District Deputy, and will preside at the meeting.

Mrs. Oliver Horn of Franklin Entertained the Franklin Librarians at Luncheon on Tuesday in her home.

Miss Adeline Cooke, Mrs. George B. Galtan, Mrs. Tennessee Campbell, Mrs. John Roth, Mrs. W. P. Wagoner, Mrs. Devere Woodruff and Miss Margaret DeView were included on her guest list.

Players Are Hosts Here At Conclave As Grand Rapids Carries Elections

Delegates to the sixth annual "The Spiders" State Association of Non-Professional Theatricals, held Saturday in Birmingham, elected members of the Flint Civic Players to all of the offices in the Association.

The announcement, as made at the evening banquet at the Community House by George M. Dwyer of the Village Players, chairman of the day, ran as follows: Frank L. Conins, president; Mrs. Jerry Healy, secretary and William Webb, treasurer. Sheldon E. Noble of St. Dunstan's Guild was elected to the board of directors of the Bloomfield Hills district. Number One Others: Amos Ruddick, Midland, two; Reno Carrier, Lansing, three; Mrs. Malcolm Smith, Allegan, four; Mrs. George Letebere, Muskegon, five.

Honor Grand Rapids.
Jackson E. Towne, education at Michigan State College and a delegate from the Lansing Civic Players, presented the Charles Spruill plaque to delegates from the Grand Rapids Players. Mr. Spruill, a Lansing merchant, offered the plaque as an encouragement to amateur dramatists in the Grand Rapids group for an ambitious list of plays which includes "Stage Door," "Men in White," "Noah," "When Ladies Meet," "The Spider," "St. Joan" and "The Milky Way" during the past season.

Official delegates convened at the Community House at 9:30 a. m. on Saturday, for a business meeting. Following luncheon at the House, the general afternoon session opened with Dr. W. Fawcett Thompson of the speech and dramatics department at Michigan State, presiding.

Speeches during the first of the afternoon included addresses of welcome by Ralf C. Spinning, president of the Players; "From Broadway to Birmingham" by Dr. Buell of Michigan State; "Adaptation of Plays to the Inadequate Stage" by Richard R. Dunham of Wayne University; "A Demonstration of Stage Make-Up" by Dr. Thompson, and a question and answer session presided over by Valentine Windt of the University of Michigan.

Round Tables Continue.
Mr. Windt, Mr. Conins and Loren T. Robinson conducted the first three round tables, which followed. The second series were led by Dr. Thompson, William P. Hall, president of the University of Michigan and Cecil H. Nickle of Michigan State.

Dr. Thompson presided again at the banquet, which preceded the evening entertainment. After the announcements were made, he introduced Professor W. L. Hair of Michigan State, who spoke on "Amateur Performances I Wish I Had Not Seen."

The conclave concluded with another performance of "The Players' final show of the season, "Small Miracle," by Norman Krasna. Incidental music between the acts was provided by Warren Power Jr., pianist, and Mrs. Clyde L. Hagerman and Mrs. George M. Dwyer, who played and sang.
