Pioneer Frolic To Be Held Dec. 1 By Adams P.-T. A.

Word comes this week of a Pioneer Frolic which the Adams School P.-T. A. will hold Friday Dec. 1 in the afternoon and evening to raise money for purchase a new electric refrigerator for the cooking room. Proceeds from this frolic will also be used for the milk fund of the school.

The program will begin at 4 o'clock with a special entertainment for the children. It was indicated this week that there will either be a puppet show or a movie for the younger children up to junior high school age.

In the evening there will be modern and square dancing. Plans are also being made for a white elephant table and a country store. Games will include shuffle board. Those planning to attend have been instructed to wear old clothes. An auction will be held at 9:30.

Chairman of this frolic is Mrs. E. L. Birthing. Assisting her will be Mrs. Glenn Davoy, Mrs. John Maynard, Mrs. E. W. Allen, Mrs. Roy Smith and Mrs. F. J. Watkins.

Arts Institute Lecture

The story behind the expropriation of American-owned oil lands by Mexico will be included in a motion picture lecture, "All Over Mexico," to be delivered at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 19, at 3:30 p. m. by Julian Bryan, motion picture cameraman and lecturer. At 8:10 p. m. of the same day, Mr. Bryan will deliver a second and different lecture on Mexico, illustrated with a completely different set of motion pictures.

Cornelia Otis Skinner Program

The 1939-40 lecture course of the Cornelia Otis Skinner program will present a series of new character sketches as the third program on the 1939-40 lecture course of the University of Michigan Oratorical Association on Nov. 20 in Hill Auditorium. Fourth in the series will be H. V. Kaltenborn who will "Edit the News" on Dec. 12.
