

Bechtold to See College Freshmen

Former Baldwin seniors attending the University of Michigan will confer today with Ray H. Bechtold, principal of Baldwin High School, at the university in Ann Arbor.

Baldwin Juniors Enjoy Assembly

Under the direction of the newly established assembly committee, Baldwin Junior High School enjoyed an outstanding assembly, Wednesday, Nov. 8.

BALDWIN HI-LIGHTS

By ANN NONIMOUS 'Swingin' on the doublebeat with Bruno Peters seemed to be the topic under discussion Saturday night.

Olson and Jean Houff, Jane Collins and Jim Bennett, and of course Anne Phillips and Barbara Houghton were there with their respective dates, Bob Valpey and Bill Merrill.

All Jones had Nancy Kim in tow while Rosta Essig, Jack Roberts, Barbara Eddy, Jim Longwell, Marion Siau and Emerson Pong came after attending the Michigan-Minnesota game at Ann Arbor.

George McCutcheon, Gordon Eis, Cal Vary, Carl Schweitzer, Bill Esery, George Gorman, Art Miller, Bill Hopkins, Bruce Carey, and Remondy the "Buckeye" are co-chairmen of the dance.

The committee working on the decorations and plans for the dance is made up of Alan Hopkins, Dick Harrell, Shirley Smith, Carl Schweitzer, Charles MacLeod, Harvey Cornwell, Jack Denney, Charles Lyle, Gordon Eis, Bob Brady, Barbara Saver, Bob Kendall.

'Joe College' Dance Set for Saturday At Community House

A "Joe College" Dance is under way for this Saturday night, Nov. 18 at the Community House. The college atmosphere will be created by decorations, pennant favors for the girls, and the "typical" college outfits many are planning to wear.

A Capella Choir Gives 1st Program

Singing before a capacity audience in Pierce School auditorium as part of the Pierce Fair, the Baldwin A Cappella Choir made its first public appearance of the semester last Friday night.

We Heard It Said By: Mable R. Bailey, 183 Oakland

"I used to live on Hamilton street near where Hunter boulevard now passes and that was the edge of town. We could see trees and fields outside; in fact, we were just on the edge of town."

Carnival Success At Big Beaver

Revival of the Big Beaver Carnival after being held absent last year proved a popular and unqualified success. Large crowds attended the many attractions both Friday and Saturday evenings.

Students from here attending the University of Michigan are Leroy Braisted, Quentin Brehford, Mary Carney, Bruce Coran, Milton Coulson, Jean Cromwell, Edwin Erickson, Charles Fiske, John Gellatly, Warren Herney, Frank McCarthy, Barbara Mosher, Loren Robinson and Steven Wyrant.

All ages of pupils, from primary to high school seniors, had a part in the program presented events which ranged from the almost all tastes and age groups.

A FRIENDLY CHALLENGE TO EVERY WOMAN WHO WANTS TO CUT HER FOOD BILLS!

Please consider we've made you a friendly challenge. Come into an A & P Market today, determined not to buy anything that isn't a real bargain. When you leave, see how many things you've bought at savings. You'll be amazed! Prices on 2,000 items are at lowebb every day of the week. You see, we do a great big business—so are content with a small profit on each item.

We buy many things direct, save in-between profits and share the savings with you. We have no credit losses or delivery charges to add to the prices you pay. You make extra big savings on many fine foods that we both manufacture and sell. Join the parade of "Eargain wise" women today.

AROUND BALDWIN

By BILL BALDWIN Honorary members of the Swing Minstrel at the hard-working Assembly Club will have a rest this week.

The junior class plans to give a record dance after every home basketball game. There will be no extra cost for this, but refreshments will cover the expense of the dance.

The Student Congress is going to sell pencils with the school colors and basketball schedule printed on them.
