Geraldine Shaw Speaks Her Vows At Home Affair

The wedding of Geraldine Shaw and John Day Gottson on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock was held at the home of the bride's parents here in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Gottson, the groom's father, and Mrs. J. G. Gottson of Detroit.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle, a fashion which James R. shaped neckline and long sleeves fastened tightly at the wrists. The frock had large bustle bow and a white train.

The bride's veil was of tulle with a tier of orange blossoms graded down the sides from the center. Her bouquet consisted of orchids, lilies of the valley and white sweet peas.

Jane Shaw, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and wore a gown of love blue tulle with heart shaped neckline, and short puffed sleeves. Her gown, too, had a bustle bow and a short train. A small hat in the shape of a bow with flowers topping the streamers finished her headpiece. Miss Shaw's flowers were Johanna Hill roses and orchid mums.

The groom's father was best man and Bunker Hill was the ring bearer. The bride's mother wore a gown of orchid crepe with showers of lilies accentuating the bodice. Her corsage was of orchids. Music was furnished by Miss Lyle Engstrom and Mrs. R. W. Darby of Flint sang.

A reception for 40 was held immediately following the wedding. The bride and groom left for Chicago where they will remain for two weeks. Upon their return they will be at 720 Whitmore drive, Detroit.

P. T. A. At Baldwin Plan Family Frolic For Tuesday Night

Gayest of all day evenings is being planned by members of the Baldwin P. T. A. for Tuesday evening when the group will hold what they are calling "Family Frolic."

Parents of both junior and senior high students as well as the students themselves and their teachers have been invited to attend this affair which committee women hope will help to cement a feeling of good will between the parents and pupils of the four school districts in Birmingham who are represented at Baldwin High School.

Assisting Mrs. L. B. Billings, chairman of the hostess' committee, are Mrs. Wm. Angus D. McLay, Mrs. Harry Clark and Mrs. L. H. Hanna and members of the executive board. Mrs. Lett R. Eis is making table arrangements and helpers are Mrs. Robert E. Wait, Mrs. Angus D. McLay, Mrs. H. Ross Mack and Mrs. William C. Howe.

Mrs. Paul Penfield is in charge of entertainment during the evening and others who are working on committees for this affair are Mrs. Herbert G. Wood, Mrs. L. A. Farquhar, Mrs. Aaron H. Webster, Mrs. J. Lenard Juhl and Mrs. A. E. Saunders.

A four-piece cantata orchestra will play for dancing during the evening and various games will be played. Plans are also being made for a fortunate telling booth which is expected to be popular.

The reception committee for this meeting is composed of officers and chairmen of the standing committees of the P. T. A. group including Mrs. Mahlon H. Stevens, Mrs. Wm. Angus D. Ginn, Mrs. Geraldine Forsythe, Mrs. George M. Rounds, H. Ross Mack and Mrs. R. Navin. Others on this committee are Mrs. Forsyth, Mrs. John H. Ross; James R. Longwell, Robert R. Allen, Mrs. Frank Maccaus, Mrs. Billings, Mrs. Wood and Charles E. Lewis.
