

Needlework Guild will Hold Ingathering on Tuesday

Prayer Meetings Set To Precede United Presbyterian Series

A series of cottage prayer meetings will be held next week and signals are to deepen the spiritual approach to the four evening meetings in the United Presbyterian Church, Oct. 30, and Nov. 1, 2 and 3. Dr. Frank Boyd, minister at the Southfield United Presbyterian Church, is to be the speaker.

On Thursday night, Oct. 26, cottage prayer meetings will be held in the homes of Walter Allison, 332 Purdy and Dale Tarbison, 711 Forest; on Friday, the 27th, in the homes of Mrs. Elizabeth Reid, 724 Bates, and Samuel Howling, 719 Chestnut.

An added attraction each evening in the prayer series will be a visiting church choir, augmenting the United Presbyterian choir. On Monday, Oct. 30, the choir from the Broadstreet Avenue Church in Detroit is expected; Wednesday, Nov. 1, the choir from the Southfield Church, Thursday, Nov. 2, Dayton Plains Choir and on Friday, Nov. 3, Oakland Avenue Church, Pontiac. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

L. C. Cowen, 740 Oakland, would like to know the identity of the blanket-blank truck which ran into his car Monday while it was parked at 431 South Woodward.

Community House Will Be the Scene Of Annual Affair

Tuesday is an important day for the Birmingham and Hills branch of the Needlework Guild of America for that day marks the annual Ingathering which is to be held at the Community House.

During the afternoon, tea will be served from 3 to 6 o'clock in order that members of the guild may gather to see the garments which have been made this year. Mrs. Lewis K. Marshall and Mrs. Wallace Dodds are in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm, Mrs. Carlotta C. Patterson, Mrs. Fred M. Brock and Mrs. M. G. Kirk will pour, assisting will be members of the board. Officers for the Birmingham and Bloomfield branch are: Seaholm, first vice president; Mrs. Marshall, second vice president; Mrs. Frederick E. Booth, third vice president; Mrs. Dodds, fourth vice president; Mrs. Kirk, secretary; Mrs. Harold J. Lauer, assistant secretary; Mrs. C. Howe, treasurer and Mrs. Leglar Paxton publicity chairman.

On Wednesday the better part of the day will be devoted to packing and storing the clothing in the Community House for distribution during the winter months. The Needlework Guild is the largest volunteer charitable organization in the world and last year collected and distributed more than two million garments.
