Gardeners' Corner

(This column is conducted by Mrs. Marc T. Patten, Box 146, Bloomington, Mich.)

While you are planting bulbs for next spring, save few for indoor blooming in winter. The needs of the bulbs are few—primarily good drainage and time to make roots...

The important step just now is to choose a soil for the bulbs. There are special bulbs for indoor or outdoor "forcing-pots." Lacking these environments, you will need to provide pots in a cool cellar, watering them from time to time...

Shrub and Rose Planting Time: Shrub and rose time is near at hand. One of our most able Birmingham gardeners, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, and Rumpert Place, will conduct a discussion on "Unusual Shrubs," Thursday, Oct. 26, at 2:30 p. m. at the Detroit Garden Center, 32 Lake Shore road, Grosse Pointe.

Spring is already in the veins of very early gardeners. The plants left by the first frost is all that is needed to abandon this year's hopes and plunge into the future...

Junior School Boys At Cranbrook Plan 2nd Costume Party

On Friday evening, Oct. 27, the Junior School boys at Cranbrook will enjoy their second annual costume party in the Assembly Hall at the school. The time will be from eight to eleven. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of Merrill Hunter, of Fort Haro, chairman; John Dieterle, of Milwaukee; and Bruce Jackson of Detroit. The decorations will be in the traditional Halloween colors of orange and black, and there will be plenty of corn stalks and pumpkins in evidence. Refreshments will also be in keeping with the occasion. The evening's entertainment will consist of a dance to the records of the best dance bands, a performance by a magician, and various games, such as bobbing for apples.

Adams Pupa Plan Halloween Dance For October 27

The Adams Student Council is in the midst of preparations for the annual Halloween Dance. The date is October 27 and the time is from 7:30 to 10:30. Besides the usual dancing in the gym, there will be games and refreshments in the new auditorium. The floor show plans are coming along fine and it shows promise of being one of those "super entertainments."

There are ten committees in all for the dance. The chairmen are as follows: Tickets, Carol Smith; Prizes, Lontony Leaf; Refreshments, Don R. D. Lindquist; and Mr. Mrs. Larry Hoey, and Mr. John De Boer Cummings. Tickets, Carol Smith; Prizes, Lontony Leaf; Refreshments, Don R. D.
