

Gardeners' Corner

(This column is conducted for The Eccentric's readers by Mrs. Marc T. Patton, Box 146, Bloomington, Ind. Questions on gardening matters may be addressed to Mrs. Patton and they will be answered in the Gardeners' Corner or directly by mail.)

Tulips
Tulips are among the half dozen flowers known by name to every one. Their form is so well known that they bloom with ease on the windows of kindergartens. This form has changed to little with the years that you would recognize a woodcut of the sixteenth century as a tulip. But can you distinguish the change as readily? There are three types most used in gardens—The early singles and doubles. These are useful for early flowering, for mass effects as they are low and full, and they are out of the way for summer plants. Early types are splendid for forcing indoors during the winter. Electric and Marillo have been used by florists for years. Their height is from 11 to 17 inches.

Cottage tulips are the next to bloom. The name comes from the cottage gardens that kept these types alive through a period less enthusiastic about tulips. Many of them are fragrant. Heights are from 20 to 30 inches.

Late May flowering hybrids—The Breeders, the Darwins and the Triumphs. Breeders have sold colors in the order shades of red, bronze, brown and violet. Growing as high as three feet, they are the giants of the group. Darwins are known for their rich colors, although we find pastels and whites among them. They vary from 25 inches to a little over 30 inches and are certainly the favorites of the moment.

Newest and longest flowering are the Triumphs. A cross between the early and Darwins, they out-bloom either parent. The colors are still few but cover most of the spectrum. They grow from 20 to 25 inches.

In the Gardens on Parade
Given in the Flowerfield bulb catalogue is a list of the tulips used at the New York World's Fair.

COTTAGE—Carrara (white), Dido (orange-red shaded), Grenadier (orange-red), Mrs. Moon (yellow), Rosabella (salmon-rose), Plectra (creamy white, rose red margined), Inglecombe (yellow), DARWIN—Black Eagle (black purple), Clara Butt (Salmon rose), Farncombe Sanders (geranium-scarlet), Pride of Harlem (old rose), City of Harlem (scarlet), Prince of Wales (cherry red), Princess Elizabeth (rose pink), Rev. Ewbank (heliotrope), Mrs. Babington (violet), Venus (pink), Yellow Giant (golden yellow), Zwanzenberg (white).

BREEDER—Dillenberg (salmon-orange), Louis XIV (purple), TRIUMPH—Kansas (white), Telescopium (rose-scarlet).

Companions
Tulips in masses of two or more colors in similar nights each spring. Large beds are filled and beautiful but after the tulips are gone we are left with the problem

Plan Patrol Camp
A patrol camp will be held at Camp George this Friday by the Bulldogs of Troop B-3, Harrison Cornwell patrol leader. The patrol will go out Friday night and camp overnight in the four pup-tents belonging to the troop. Saturday morning some of them will return to town and the others will remain in camp until the troop arrives about noon Saturday. The boys will return with the troop Sunday afternoon. Members of the patrol are Donal Burnett, Spencer Peck, James Church, Robert Church, and Harold Watts. Senior Patrol Leader John Rossio may accompany the patrol.

Sea Scout Meetings
The Sea Scouts have changed their meeting night from Thursday night to Wednesday to accommodate the many boys who would come to town, but who have other things to do Thursdays. The Sea Scout Ship Edwin S. George now meets in the Scout room at the Community House at 7:00 Wednesday evenings.

Recipes For Use of Lettuce, Mint Celery and Parsley Are Given

Lettuce, celery, mint and parsley have made a reputation. Lettuce is eaten to the very last leaf; there are many ways in which to serve it.

Celery is the most versatile of them all, its varied uses enable the housekeeper to make use of the coarse stalks as well as the crisp leaves.

Mint has a distinct appeal to the appetite and appears in the form of leaves, essence and oil. Parsley is a piquant addition to many dishes and should be served often.

Braised Lettuce
Cut lettuce into wedges and spoons of butter. Pile in center of vegetable dish and surround with beet.

Braised Celery in Green Pepper Rings.
1 bunch of celery.
1-2 cups of beef stock.
1 onion.
1 spring of parsley.
1 green pepper.
Wash and scrape celery and cut in 3 inch pieces. Place in a casserole on sliced onion and parsley, cover with beef stock and bake 1 hour. Remove celery and serve in rings of green pepper.

Celery and Olive Stuffing
3 tablespoons of fat.
2 cups soft bread crumbs.
1 teaspoon salt.
3 cups of finely chopped celery.
1-2 cup chopped stuffed olives.
1-2 teaspoon sugar.
Melt fat, add crumbs, salt and pepper and mix well. Add celery and olives and mix thoroughly. Use for stuffing shoulder of pork.

Current Mint Sauce
2 tablespoons chopped mint leaves.
1 glass currant jelly.
Mash jelly with a fork. Add nuts and mint leaves and mix well. Serve as a relish with roast lamb.

Dinner Panach
Pour 1 cup of strong green tea over 1 tablespoon finely chopped mint. Add 1-4 cup of lemon juice, 1-2 cup of orange juice, 1-2 cup sugar syrup, a few grains of salt and the rind from 1 cucumber, cut in strips. Let stand until cool. Strain and chill. Just before serving pour into a lemonade jug half full of ice. Add 1 pint of loganberry juice, ginger ale and carbonated water. Garnish with a sprig of mint, thin slices of orange and lemon.

Parsley Sandwiches
Cut hearts of celery in fine pieces. Add about half as much parsley and a slice of minced onion. Mix with a little mayonnaise

CORRECTION
The following is the corrected recipe for "Tea Kisses," which recently appeared in The Eccentric without all of the necessary ingredients being listed.

Tea Kisses
1 cup sugar.
1-2 cup butter.
2 cups flour.
2 eggs.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
2 teaspoons milk.
Cream butter and sugar and eggs. Add flour, baking powder and milk. Dip the dough with a teaspoon and drop on a greased tin. Sprinkle with sugar, bake 10 minutes in a moderate oven.
