

BALDWIN IN LIGHTS

BY ANN NOMIMOUS
The man is no fighter, but the woman is going to print the truth.

No matter who gets mad-age. The boys can drink the rain for you'll see right here each week.

A boost in spirit for the first Saturday night game was probably a result of the success of the second football game last Friday.

It was a most wonderful dance. Right? It was a most wonderful dance. Right? It was a most wonderful dance.

Milling around during intermission, spotted Dave White, Nan Fish, Lefty Whalen, Marilyn Prising.

Only to mention a few: spotted John Wilson, Edgar Eidel, Ervin Conover, Bill Brown, Tom Allen.

Tell us, does Bill Conway have an opinion on Rosemary De Rosebrien or is it handoffs? ... and "who" was safe as long as he didn't take a drink of water?

Barnum Students Vote on Officers

Barnum Junior High School has completed the details of formal organization. The central body student government is the Junior High Student Council.

Last spring Frank Wangberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ingevald Wangberg, Pierce street, was elected president of the council.

The council has decided to take over the halls this semester to obtain order between classes and to keep the halls clear during class hours.

The officers of the 8A home-room are: president, Harold Watts; vice-president, Betty Traxler; secretary, Nancy John, and treasurer, Randall Johnson.

The officers of the Progressive home-room are: Charles Mathews, president; Paul Peck, vice-president; Margaret Dean, secretary; and Billy Toothacker, treasurer.

The Vikings officers are: David Waddell, president; Dale Roberts, vice-president; Louise Bolt, secretary; and Paul Peck, treasurer.

Students Favorable To School Paper

A definite desire for a weekly newspaper in Baldwin Junior and Senior High schools was shown in the results of a student survey conducted last week.

Out of 867 ballots distributed throughout the school only 19 waste ballots were returned.

Willingness to subscribe by the semester was determined at 80 percent, and 48 percent indicated interest in writing contributions.

It is believed that because of fear of criticism, the present Baldwin Junior High School paper, "The Junior Crier," a great number of dissenting votes was cast by junior high students.

After a further survey of local opinion, the probable advertiser, the complete results will be submitted to Ray H. Bechtold, principal, through the board of education.

Coach Raymond and his Cranbrook School football team will open their season against the Detroit team at the probable opening on Friday night at Bowling Green.

The squad has had the benefit of six daily workouts since Sept. 10, and Coach Raymond and Captain Hank Uihlein, red-headed football star of the team, are confident that the boys will turn in a creditable record by season's end.

Sports Showup

BY JACK RIGDEN
The outstanding feature of the football game with Plymouth was the co-ordination of the line and the alertness of the backfield.

Jim Bennett was chosen acting-captain for the game. Birmingham hooses a captain before each game. This has many advantages.

Basketball practice started Monday and Coach Franklin Whitney had a number of letters returned plus some promising sophomores.

There was some talk of Baldwin sponsoring a cross-country team chosen a captain before each game.

Birmingham really supports its athletic teams as there was a large crowd of Birmingham rooters at Plymouth despite the rain.

It looks like we've got a football team that's going places in the good work.

Dramatic Club Has A New Division
A new division is the feature of the Dramatic Club this year.

The general club will stage current Broadway and Detroit plays, the fundamentals of acting, costume, props, make-up, and stage craft.
