

Teen Mau Announces Betrothal at Tea

Forty Guests Hear Plans For Wedding Set For Nov. 18

When friends of Mrs. F. G. Mau assembled at the Mau home on Chestnut street on Sunday afternoon for a tea, they found the occasion to be of more than ordinary interest. It was, in fact, the occasion of the announcement of the engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Mau's daughter, Helen G., to Henry E. McCurry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCurry, of Puritan road, Birmingham.

The news was made known by means of miniature corsage bouquets of autumn flowers, which contained scrolls tied with white ribbons and bearing the names of the affianced couple and their wedding date, Nov. 18, and which were passed to the 40 guests on a silver tray.
