Helen Mau Announces Betrothal at Tea

Forty Guests Hear Plans For Wedding Set For Nov. 18

When friends of Miss F. G. Mau assembled at Miss Mau's home on Chestnut street for luncheon, they were met by the young lady herself as they entered. At 12:30 o'clock, the reception of the one, and the engagement of the other, was announced, and lunch was served. Miss Mau is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Mau, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Mau, both of this city. The ceremony will be performed at St. James Episcopal Church, with Rev. W. A. F. Hoffman officiating.

Club Notes

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Asian Foreign War will be held Monday evening at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. W. E. D. Harrelson in the Community House.

The weekly meeting of the women of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Friday evening at the Club House.

Miss Herbst has asked Miss Jane W. Harris, a member of the Auxiliary, to be her matron of honor and Miss Lillian A. Smith, a member of the Auxiliary, to be a bridesmaid.

The program for the evening will feature a talk on "Food and Health" by Dr. F. E. F. Hoffman.

The Club House will be decorated for the meeting and the refreshments served will be under the supervision of the Auxiliary.

Book Club Holds Its Annual Auction

Next Wednesday night, April 7th, members of the Book Club will hold an auction at the home of Miss Ada A. Harris, 1234 N. 17th street. Members of the club have been busy collecting and preparing books in order to make the sale a success. The club is planning to sell the books to Mrs. J. E. A. Harris.

All members of the club are welcome to attend the sale. The proceeds will be used to purchase books for the club's collection.

VITAMINS

This is the time of the year when it comes to fortify and build up resistance for the coming winter season. Young folks, going back to school... Infants... Growing Children... or Adults all need vitamins more than is offered in our daily diet. VITAMINS are not a drug, but food essentials for our normal health and well being. To the purchaser, one vitamin may look like another, but effectiveness and merit of each product depends solely on its actual vitamin content... We know that vitamin containing materials may vary widely in potency.

For this Reason... We urge you to:

KNOW THE MAKER OF YOUR VITAMINS!

For Noble Davis & Company Vitamin Products are scientifically standardized.

Ask for our booklet on Vitamins. It is complete and recent regarding Vitamin Therapy, and prepared so that it is easy to understand.
