Two Bloomfield Debutantes Revive Custom Long On Wane

The current debutante season seems to be at an end, but the social season is far from over. While Bloomfield's two debutantes, Miss Mary Louise K. and Miss Mary Jane K., have completed their duties, the social scene is far from dead. Both debutantes have been active in various social events throughout the season, and their presence will be missed by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. DuPont at their home in Bloomfield on Wednesday night, April 13, in honor of Miss Mary Louise K. and Miss Mary Jane K., the debutantes of the season. The party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. DuPont, and was attended by many of their friends. The guests enjoyed a delicious dinner, followed by dancing until late into the night.

Mrs. Harrison B. and children, Misses Margaret and Katherine, returned to their homes on Christmas day, after spending a pleasant holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison B., in Bloomfield.

Large Crowd Is Attracted By Flower Show

A large crowd attended the flower show at the YWCA in Bloomfield on Sunday, April 10. The show was sponsored by the Bloomfield chapter of the Woman's Club, and was open to the public. The flowers were arranged and displayed by members of the Woman's Club, and ranged from beautiful bouquets to individual flowers. The show was a great success, and many people purchased flowers to take home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Thompson, of Bloomfield, returned to their homes on Thursday, April 7, after spending a pleasant weekend in New York City. The couple enjoyed sightseeing, shopping, and enjoying the city's many attractions. They returned home well-rested and happy, ready to resume their daily routines.
