

Pierce Principal Idea Rejected

A full-time principal for Pierce School, requested by the Pierce P.T.A., has been deferred until another year by the Board of Education.

School districts near Birmingham which send pupils to the Birmingham schools must pay over the primary fund money the districts receive from the state for these pupils.

Triumphal Homecoming ROYAL OAK—Triumphal from its second national championship victory, the VFW drum and bugle corps was welcomed home with a parade, and speeches.

Loyalty Day Echoes

What if a fire had occurred when two of the city's trucks were parading Saturday? Chief Verne Griffith has thought about the contingency, and he made sure that his trucks followed a police car equipped with a siren.

It Can Be Done! How to get out of an automobile which is completely covered with ruffly crepe paper was demonstrated by Jack Erwin who drove Wilson Drug Co. float in the parade.

Cold and Sweet, It's Quite a Treat!

Ice cream—35 gallons of it—was avidly consumed by boys and girls after the Civic Loyalty Day parade, and it was all free. The trucks which carried the ice cream were loaded with cones and sundaes.

Abandoned The gaily decorated bicycles looked strangely gloomy they lay on the grounds of the old Hill School immediately following the parade.

Flowers Add Much Beauty Fall flowers added much to the appearance of the Municipal Building Saturday. They were arranged through the efforts of a number of people, principally Mrs. Aaron H. Webster.

Knudsen's Nine Reasons William S. Knudsen, president of General Motors, has nine definite reasons for being interested in Birmingham, Ralph L. Lee, Saturday evening Loyalty Day speaker, said.

Village Players' Float It takes a drama to catch the eye and ear. The Village Players' float on the main parade-old struggle for existence, or something, for their float in the parade, showed a scene from the play.

Parent-Teacher Float The float entered by the Parent-Teacher Associations and the Council was an attractive one. Mrs. Ray H. Bechtold, wife of Baldwin's principal, represented the "goddess of education."

Real Indians on Float A couple of real Indians were riding in the Indian Craft and Gift shop float in the parade—Chief Stanner and Chief Bull, chief of the Chippewas, and his aide, Lone Hawk.

Detroit Sneider Losses License For Month No driving for one month was the punishment meted out to Eddie Tillman, of 3845 Beaver street, Detroit, when he appeared before Forbes S. Harwell, justice of the peace, on a charge of speeding.

Bring in Cash PONTIAC—Since installation, this city's parking meters have taken in $20,045 of which $6,827 has been retained by the city. The meters continue to receive their toll in the city in three months when the machines are paid for.
