October 21 is Date Set by Janet Peabody for Her Marriage to Donald Parry

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 12 (AP)—Miss Janet Parry, flagship of the Peabody family, has announced that she will marry Donald Parry, Jr., the Director of the American Tobacco Co., on the 21st. Miss Parry is the only unmarried member of the group which will hold the Peabody home on the occasion of Miss Janet's engagement. In 1940 Parry was married to the daughter of Arthur, former president of the American Tobacco Co., and one of the 12 largest chemical and coal companies in the country. Miss Parry is the granddaughter of the late John T. Parry, who was president of the Peabody company for over 40 years. The ceremony will take place at the Grosse Pointe Country Club, and the reception will be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. After the reception, the newlyweds will leave for a trip to Europe.
