

Woman's Club Meetings to Resume Tuesday Afternoon At Two O'clock

First meeting of the Birmingham Women's club for this year will be held at the Baldwin Public Library auditorium Tuesday, Oct. 3 at 2 o'clock according to an announcement made this week by Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, president of the organization.

Speakers for this afternoon meeting will be Mrs. Lulu B. Bachman and Mrs. John E. Martin. Mrs. Bachman is a Detroit attorney and is also legislative chairman for the Detroit Federation of Women's clubs. Her subject will be "The Legal Rights of Women in Michigan." Mrs. Martin of Birmingham will speak on "International Relations at Madras."

The program and tea is open to the public.

The board of directors for the club in addition to Mrs. Hascall, is as follows: Mrs. Earl G. Foster and Mrs. Ford Peabody, vice presidents; Mrs. H. E. Reid, recording secretary; Mrs. George W. Mack, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edward H. P. Elliott, treasurer.

Department chairmen on the board of directors are Mrs. Stuart M. Allen, American home; Mrs. Harry Williams, art; Mrs. Howard Chapped, literature; Mrs. Glen Coley, chairman of the program and Mrs. Harry Allen and Mrs. Warren C. Pratt, directors, are also on the board.

Oct. 18 Is Date Of Country Fair At Barnum School

With the announcement of the date of the Country Fair made this week by Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone, general chairman of this event, comes the promise of one of the largest and most unusual fairs of this type to be held in Birmingham. Oct. 18 is the date set for this annual affair.

The Country Fair, held for the past several years, is sponsored by the Barnum P. T. A. and proceeds from this affair go toward the milk fund carried on by the Parent-Teacher organization to supply milk to needy children of the school.

The fair will open shortly after school is dismissed Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 18 and will continue through the evening. A special program is being planned to divert the attention for a short time at least, of those who attend.

In past years an apron booth, another in which fortunes are sold, one depicting a country store, a booth where elder and doughnuts may be purchased, were all a part of the offerings of the fair.

As part of this year's fair there will be native dances and songs by a Polish group as well as a Chinese booth which will be tended by a Chinese group from Detroit.
