Gardeners' Corner

Selling plants in the spring can be a rewarding activity. It allows you to share your love of gardening with others and to earn some extra money. The key to successful plant sales is to have a variety of plants available. This will attract more customers and increase sales. Some tips for successful plant sales:

- Choose a location that is visible and accessible to potential buyers.
- Display your plants attractively, using signs and labels to provide information about the plants.
- Price your plants reasonably, taking into account the cost of production and your desired profit.
- Be prepared to answer questions about the plants.
- Accept a variety of payment methods, including cash, check, and credit cards.

Now's Best Time To Plant Peonies
By HOMONSA BOUTO

Peonies are one of the most beautiful flowers you can plant in your garden. They come in a variety of colors and bloom from late spring to early summer. Peonies require full sun and well-drained soil to thrive. They prefer a pH of 6.0 to 7.0.

- Best time to plant: March to early April.
- Planting depth: 2-3 inches below the soil line.
- Water regularly and keep the soil moist.
- Apply a balanced fertilizer in the spring.
