

Pine Lake Club Plans Luncheon

Mrs. Russell E. Driver of Detroit and Mrs. Carl V. Essery of Royal Oak are joint committee chairmen of the monthly bridge luncheon to be held Wednesday at Pine Lake Country Club.

Hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. B. T. Larson, Mrs. Robert R. Tanner, Mrs. James B. Dunkel, Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble, Mrs. William Shillady, Mrs. William E. Crotty and Mrs. Karl Koepflinger.

Fall Activities Get Underway With Local Club

Fall and winter activities of the League of Women Voters were outlined this week when plans of the club were revealed by Mrs. Malcolm W. Thomas, president of the organization. The first meeting of the current year is scheduled to be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 in the Community House.

Included in the business to be disposed of at this meeting Monday day is her resignation which Mrs. Welty will tender members of the club. Due to various other activities Mrs. Welty has been forced to abandon the leadership of the League of Women Voters. At this meeting she will suggest Mrs. John K. Ormond as a possible leader of the group.

Study group chairmen as announced by Mrs. Welty this week include the following: International cooperation, Mrs. Charles Shain; child welfare and the legal status of women, Mrs. W. F. Thomas; education, Mrs. Dick Johnston; economic welfare, Mrs. J. N. Hadjiskey; government and its operation, Mrs. Legler Paxton.

Mrs. R. W. Thomas will serve during the coming year as legislative chairman, Membership chairman is Mrs. Russell Barnes and Mrs. Donald T. Stanton will act as social chairman.

Other officers of the club for the current year are Mrs. Frederick B. Smith, Jr., vice president; Mrs. Joseph A. Byrne, secretary; Mrs. Stanley Spiegel, records secretary; Mrs. Donald A. Murray, treasurer. Mrs. Les A. White and Mrs. Angus D. McRay will serve as directors at large.

Preachers Take Over Town, Stop Crime and Accidents

The men who cleaned up Shelby: Police Chief LeRoy Coffey and Mayor D. B. Young.

CRIMINALS shun Shelby, an Ohio town of 7000. Reckless drivers are scarce there, too. The little city had no fatal traffic accidents last year or the year before, won national safety awards in recognition of its record.

How come? Because two ministers stepped out from behind their pulpits, went into action on community vice instead of just talking about it. One of the men is Mayor D. B. Young, pastor of the First Lutheran church, the other is Police Chief LeRoy Coffey, former Baptist preacher.

SHELBY now has police force technique that many a larger community could envy. In place of the usual night officer who walks Main street calling children's attention to the curfew and turning off the lights in the store windows, Shelby has squad cars, a two-way radio system.

The town's seven cops install the radio set-up, learned the Morse code and fundamentals of operation. Cost of the system was only $800; it has produced results worth much more.

Police men engage in regular monthly target practice, have become famed as crack shots. The town has a criminal identification bureau, complete with cameras for "mugging" law-breakers and fingerprinting equipment.

Elected a couple of years ago

Club Notes

The Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will meet Thursday at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beardslee on Square Lake road. A potluck luncheon will be served at this meeting.

The Auxiliary of the V. F. W. will sponsor a rummage sale Wednesday at the Oldsmobile showroom at Woodward avenue and Ruffner street. The sale will continue all day.

First meeting of the American Association of University Women will be held on Oct. 11 according to an announcement made this week by Mrs. R. L. Beers, club president. The meeting scheduled for September has been abandoned, Mrs. Beers stated.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 16

Findin's Keeptin's
Bob (pointing to cigarette stub on floor)—"Smith, is this yours?"
Smith—"Not at all, sir—you saw it first."

On the Ebb
"What, again? Why I felt you money to tide you over yesterday." "I know, but the tide is still going out."

These Fanny Children,
Wee Marjorie (after long contemplation of the fat lady opposite)—Mummy, when I've grown long enough, shall I start and grow sideways, too?

New TREADEASY SHOES FOR FALL

$6.85

BLACKS AND BROWNS IN THE NEW KRUSHED KID

WILLIAMS' BOOT SHOP
115 W. Maple

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 16

Edwards-White Rites Performed

Announcement was made this week of the marriage Saturday of Miss Mary Louise White, daughter of Mrs. Harry Seymour White of Birmingham and Wendell O. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards of Detroit.

The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock at Port Hope near Pointe aux Barques by Rev. C. G. Kaufman in the Methodist church narsong. Unattended, the bride wore a wine cape gown with a wine velvet coat and matching accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and obtained her A. B. degree from Wayne University. Mr. Edwards was graduated from the Royal Oak High School and from Albion College in 1928.

The couple is at home at 816 Pierce street.

From the Women's Angle

By Nellie Harley Minifie

Today, only 25 years later, we find ourselves in the midst of another World War. It was just a little more than 22 years ago that Congress voted that America should pull off its coat, roll up its sleeves and jump into the World War. Only 22 years ago we entered a bloody fracas that destroyed an entire generation of our youth in the name of democracy. It was only 22 years ago that the cream of young American manhood was rushed into service in a war which was to end all wars.

Today we can realize the utter hopelessness, the futility of such a struggle. Today we wonder with wide-eyed amazement that we could have been so gullible as to allow financial interests to rob an entire generation of its birthright.

At the same moment we are realizing the stupidity of that last war we are mentally calculating the days, perhaps weeks or months, before we find that the web which has been encircling us has again sucked us into the mire.

The power to stop this inevitable force, which again looms so horribly close to us, rests not, as we would like to believe, with the silk hatted statesmen but rather with you and I as average citizens. From early childhood our minds have been hypnotized to the very idea of the man in the top hat. Every bit of ruffianism we ever admired, every spread-eagle speech we have ever applauded makes our entry into this war inevitable. Every country in the world, composed of men and women just as you and I, must learn the lesson of life and live else it is not too unlikely that the human race may be completely extinguished. Man MUST be taught that he can live peacefully and profitably in a frontiersless world. This goal will be reached only when the world has been led away from selfishness, ignorance and fear.

By Katherine W. George

Maybe it's a perverted taste, but I like rain. Of course, I don't mean I like to get caught in it unprepared but I do think it is one of the most interesting of the elements.

I love rainy days after a long hot spell when sunshine has become a drug on the market, when I can sit dry and protected on the porch and watch the warm restorative rain soaking the gardens and making the lawns look unaturally green. And I love chilly days in the spring and fall when wind and rain together produce a mighty symphony of gound, heaving and slashing against the windows and through the trees, while I curl up before a roaring fire with a book.

Then there are days by the sea when rain merges with the waves to create a translucent, liquid world. It is fun to go bathing in the rain and it is fun to motor in the rain with the steady beat of the drops against the top of the car and myself cosy and comfortable inside. I even like to walk in the rain, done up in raincoat and rubbers and an old hat.

But best of all, I think, are rainy nights, even stormy nights when thunder rumbles and lightning streaks through the dark sky and rain falls in torrents. To sleep on such a night in a tent or a tin-roofed cottage is a satisfying experience. I may be just ornery, but I think rain on the roof is a lullaby upon which musicians have never been able to improve.

Looks At Clock, Hits Stopped Car

Tuesday evening at 7:50 in front of the S. S. Kresge store on Woodward avenue, a car driven by Jack Bates, 298 East Iroquois, road, Pontiac ran into the rear of a car driven by A. Zamek, 500 East Kenneth street, Pontiac, but doing very little damage to either car.

According to local police, Bates was looking at a clock in his car when he struck the back of Zamek, who had stopped to permit a third party to back out of an angle parking space. Thelma Bates was cut over the eye and was treated at the office of a local doctor.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 16

ART ACADEMY OPENS

Cranbrook Academy of Art will open its first term next Monday, September 11. Courses will be offered in drawing, painting, design, ceramics, weaving, modeling, and sculpture.

F. J. MULHOLLAND CO.

... and now that it's school time again, and you have (or you haven't) the children all fixed up in new togs for the fall season ...

Mothers - - AND GROWN-UP SISTERS - -

IT'S YOUR TURN NOW!

Fall Dresses

- In Glorious New Colors
- Striking New Styles
- Beautiful Tailoring
- Reasonably Priced

$2.95 to $5.95

Delightfully new for Fall—are these new frocks of Spun Rayon and Wool. Also smart Silk Prints in a wide selection. See them at once and make your selection early. Sizes for all (1/2 sizes included).

YVONNE AND GENEVIEVE GAY

Studio of Dancing

Will Re-Open Soon . . . Ballroom, Ballet, Tap, Acrobatic

For Enrollment Call Birmingham 1458

Private and Class Lessons

From the Women's Angle

By Nellie Harley Minifie

Today, only 25 years later, we find ourselves in the midst of another World War. It was just a little more than 22 years ago that Congress voted that America should pull off its coat, roll up its sleeves and jump into the World War. Only 22 years ago we entered a bloody fracas that destroyed an entire generation of our youth in the name of democracy. It was only 22 years ago that the cream of young American manhood was rushed into service in a war which was to end all wars.

Today we can realize the utter hopelessness, the futility of such a struggle. Today we wonder with wide-eyed amazement that we could have been so gullible as to allow financial interests to rob an entire generation of its birthright.

At the same moment we are realizing the stupidity of that last war we are mentally calculating the days, perhaps weeks or months, before we find that the web which has been encircling us has again sucked us into the mire.

The power to stop this inevitable force, which again looms so horribly close to us, rests not, as we would like to believe, with the silk hatted statesmen but rather with you and I as average citizens. From early childhood our minds have been hypnotized to the very idea of the man in the top hat. Every bit of ruffianism we ever admired, every spread-eagle speech we have ever applauded makes our entry into this war inevitable. Every country in the world, composed of men and women just as you and I, must learn the lesson of life and live else it is not too unlikely that the human race may be completely extinguished. Man MUST be taught that he can live peacefully and profitably in a frontiersless world. This goal will be reached only when the world has been led away from selfishness, ignorance and fear.

By Katherine W. George

Maybe it's a perverted taste, but I like rain. Of course, I don't mean I like to get caught in it unprepared but I do think it is one of the most interesting of the elements.

I love rainy days after a long hot spell when sunshine has become a drug on the market, when I can sit dry and protected on the porch and watch the warm restorative rain soaking the gardens and making the lawns look unaturally green. And I love chilly days in the spring and fall when wind and rain together produce a mighty symphony of gound, heaving and slashing against the windows and through the trees, while I curl up before a roaring fire with a book.

Then there are days by the sea when rain merges with the waves to create a translucent, liquid world. It is fun to go bathing in the rain and it is fun to motor in the rain with the steady beat of the drops against the top of the car and myself cosy and comfortable inside. I even like to walk in the rain, done up in raincoat and rubbers and an old hat.

But best of all, I think, are rainy nights, even stormy nights when thunder rumbles and lightning streaks through the dark sky and rain falls in torrents. To sleep on such a night in a tent or a tin-roofed cottage is a satisfying experience. I may be just ornery, but I think rain on the roof is a lullaby upon which musicians have never been able to improve.

Looks At Clock, Hits Stopped Car

Tuesday evening at 7:50 in front of the S. S. Kresge store on Woodward avenue, a car driven by Jack Bates, 298 East Iroquois, road, Pontiac ran into the rear of a car driven by A. Zamek, 500 East Kenneth street, Pontiac, but doing very little damage to either car.

According to local police, Bates was looking at a clock in his car when he struck the back of Zamek, who had stopped to permit a third party to back out of an angle parking space. Thelma Bates was cut over the eye and was treated at the office of a local doctor.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 16

ART ACADEMY OPENS

Cranbrook Academy of Art will open its first term next Monday, September 11. Courses will be offered in drawing, painting, design, ceramics, weaving, modeling, and sculpture.

The new Fall Sensation . . . Direct from California Style Centers

Loom-Tog BLOUSE AND SKIRT ENSEMBLE

$5.95

Smart Spun Rayon and Fine Wale Corduroy, in shirtwaist style with full yoke, and new elbow length sleeves. Skirts are flared and have novelty belts. Beautiful new shades for Fall.

CHILDREN'S WASH FROCKS

Youthful little numbers in Spun Rayon, Broadcloth and Percale . . . styled to delight the little folks . . . by Jane Preston, Shirley Temple, Judy Garland and Lucette. Sizes 1 to 16.

$1.00 to $1.95

BLOUSES

Button-on and tuck-in styles in Prints and plain colors. Tailored styles in Broadcloth and Percale. Also Ric-rack and Lace-trimmed styles. Sizes 2 to 8.

$1.00

SKIRTS

Twoed mixtures and plain flannels in the popular suspender styles, with pleated and flared skirts. The ideal thing for the school girl, when she's tired of dresses, when worn with a smart blouse.

$1.95 to $2.95

SWEATERS

Wool sweaters in the popular styles, Pastel and dark shades. Many novelty weaves from which to choose.

$1.00 to $1.95

Tailored BLOUSES

These neatly styled blouses are perfect complements to your suits and skirts. In white and subtle pastels.

BLOUSES

Crepes and Satins in new Fall shades. Tailored styles, with hand stitched tucks from neckline, short sleeves.

$1.00 and $1.95

Skirts $1.95 to $5.95

Plain colors, plaids and twoeds—pleated and flared skirts. Wool Tweeds, Crepes and Flannels.

GOLDEN GUERNSEY MILK—THE HEALTH BUILDER

At least one quart per day for children and one pint per day for adults.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. (the largest in the world) says "If milk were put up in bottles of a different shape, and size, if it were given a fanciful name, and announced for what it really is as 'the greatest body builder and Health Restorative in the world,' people would flock to buy it at fancy prices. But because it costs so little and is delivered every morning at your doorstep, we seldom give it virtues a thought. We are apt to disregard the value of familiar things."

Remember—"A BOTTLE OF MILK IS A BOTTLE OF HEALTH"

Produced from our own herds on our own farms. Disease free, tested under State and Federal Supervision.

ENDICOTT FARMS

PHONE BIRMINGHAM 716