U. of M. Correspondence Office Active These Days

Now that summer is nearly over Birmingham residents are turning to thoughts of study and with this change in thoughts come a corresponding increase in the activities of the local office of the University of Michigan correspondence school.

The office, located in the Baldwin Public Library, is utilized by persons interested in completing their high school work, by those seeking freshman college credit, and still others specializing in air conditioning, Diesel engines or radio servicing.

Mrs. Harrison Stringham, director of the center here, says that enrollment in this study group is increasing steadily.

Women's Union Plans Luncheons For Next Week

Following a summer recess of three months the several divisions of the Presbyterian Women's Union will swing back into action for members of the third division to be held in the homes of members. At these meetings plans will be formulated for the fall and winter activities.

The meetings which will take the form of 1 o'clock luncheons will be held Wednesday, Mrs. Sterling Withington will be hostess at her home at Lake Orion at a potluck affair for members of division one. Mrs. Hugh D. McLeese is chairman of this meeting.

Division two will meet with Mrs. Charles B. Randall at her home on Dorchester road, Mrs. F. W. Du Bois will be chairman of the second division affair.

Mrs. Fred Ross will open her home on Willits street Wednesday for members of the third division with Mrs. Glenn Coley acting as chairman.

Division four will meet at the home of Mrs. A. J. Brandt on Kenneway road. Mrs. Robert W. Chisus is chairman of this group.

Members of division number six will meet at the T. A. Henshaw home on Ridgedale avenue. Mrs. Charles F. Butters is chairman of this event.

Division four met this week with Mrs. Walter S. Fisher on Kennersaw road. Mrs. J. Brennan was chairman of this group.

Jean Rutherford, James B. Talman United Saturday

Jean Alice Rutherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Douglas Rutherford, spoke her vows to James B. Talman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Whitely Talman.

Rev. Robert W. Woodruff officiated at the ceremony. Large bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums, accented by arrangements of crimson fever decorated the church. The ring of the chancel was entwined with smilax and white flowers decorated the entrance to the family pew.

The bride wore a Colonial period gown of ivory wedding ring satin, with large leaf of mutton sleeves which were fitted and edged with Chantilly lace at the wrists. The skirt's fullness was caught and tied with silk cord at the bottom to show a hooped underskirt of shirred lace. A long train was fashioned over the small train. Her veil of Illusion, which extended beyond the train, was held in her hair by a comb and net of lace. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of tube roses, lilies of the valley and stephanotis surrounded by shirred lace.

Marilyn Prussing, as maid of honor, wore a period gown of white tulle in a deep corset style with three-layered hooped skirt. She wore a small Godey hat of taffeta with streamers and carried a colonial bouquet of Johanna Hill and pernet roses and blue larkspur frilled with coral tulle. The bridesmaids wore a uniform of Miriam Finkley of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y. Mrs. Walter S. Fisher and Mrs. J. Brennan of Detroit. Their gowns of heavenly blue were fashioned like that of the maid of honor. They wore a colonial bouquet of pernet and Johanna Hill roses and blue larkspur arranged in tulle to match their gowns.

Susan Patterson, cousin of the bride-to-be, will be hostess at a dinner-dance at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Butters on Ridgedale avenue. Mrs. Charles F. Butters is chairman of this event.

Division four met this week with Mrs. Walter S. Fisher on Kennersaw road. Mrs. J. Brennan was chairman of this group.

Following the ceremony a large reception was held at the Detroit Athletic Club. Mrs. Rutherford wore a gown of white tulle with a small brown hat with white and gold trim. Mrs. Talman was gowned in blue lace with which she wore a small hat with mesh and white collar. Out-of-town guests who arrived in Birmingham for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Back of Jacksonville and Mrs. Talman's sister, Mrs. Hoyt Hayes of Saginaw.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 16 Autumn Party Planned By Club

A color scheme carried out in the fall shades will serve as decorations for the opening autumn party to be presented by the women members of Oakland Hill Country Club on Wednesday afternoon at the West Maple club-house.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 16 Julie Kane is Feted By Sorority Sisters

Miss Julie Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Kane of Lake Park drive, was the honored guest at a linen shower recently when Miss Mary Robinson and Marion Dalley of Saginaw were joint hostesses. The shower was on Trombley road, Detroit.

Miss Kane, a September bride-elect, will marry Frederick S. Hunter, Jr., son of Mrs. Frederick S. Hunter of Evanston, Ill.

Guests at the party were members of Collegiate Sorority with Miss Kane during her undergraduate days at the University of Michigan.

Go Gypsy Marian Liebold Exchanges Vows With Local Man

Madonna lilies massed against white chrysanthemums filled the chancel of the Metropolitan Methodist Church Saturday evening when Marian Elizabeth Liebold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Liebold of East Bayton boulevard, and Dr. Dean Nickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Nickerson of Oakland avenue, Birmingham, exchanged their vows.

Rev. M. S. Rice officiated at the service which was performed at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in the chancel of the church. The altar was decorated with the lilies and mums were arranged near the bride.

The bride wore ivory slipper satin. The bodice of the gown was fitted and was distinguished by a row of white buttons. The full length sleeves puffed slightly at the shoulders with a narrow edge of the lace at the wrists. Small covered buttons fastened the dress from the neck to the waist. The skirt was full and a sweeping train was gathered onto the waistline in the back.

The bride's veil of ivory tulle was shirred to a small net cap which was trimmed with a narrow band of blue. She carried a formal bouquet of white orchids with streamers of lilies of the valley. Kathleen Leibel, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of silver and blue brocade. Her dress was made with heart-shaped neck, short puffed sleeves and a wide skirt with a modified bustle effect in the back. Her hat was of blue velvet to line her gown.

The bridesmaids, Ruth Liebold, sister of the bride, Mildred Sims, Mrs. Charles B. Randall, Mrs. Revere, Adele Skillman and Mrs. Harry Skillman, all wore gowns in rose and blue. The bridesmaids carried an arm bouquet of blue delphinium with a shower of white stephanotis and the bridesmaids' flowers were pink roses with showers of the stephanotis.

Dr. Morris V. Rieff assisted Dr. Nickerson as best man and seating of the guests were Nelson Liebold and Ernest G. Liebold, Jr., brothers of the bride; Harry Skillman, H. Philip Morgan of Flint, George Olmsted and Richard Taylor of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club at the reception which followed the ceremony.

Throughout the rooms of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club at the reception which followed the ceremony, there were arrangements of southern smilax and white gladioli in tall standards and bowls. The receiving line formed by a screen of the smilax and palms and standards of the gladioli were arranged at either end.

A white satin cloth covered the bride's table and in the center was a chandelier, a slim skirt and brief sleeves, under a lynx jacket. Her accessories were brown and her shoulder bouquet was of white orchids.

Miss Caroline Watkins entertained at her home on Ridgedale avenue Thursday at an informal tea from 3 to 5 o'clock. Miss Barbara Scott presided at the tea table which bore a centerpiece of roses. Guests were Kitty Keller, Betty Middleton, Barbara Gibson, Constance Conroy, Marilyn Gould, Margaret Brenkert, Elaine Stutte, Ruth Mary Potter, Carolyn Case, Phyllis Chapel and Jane Ray.

Fashion Tips

"Fall gloves seem to be getting longer. Some of the day-tone gloves have as many as eight buttons. Evening lengths go as far as eighteen buttons in some cases.

Some of the new sports gloves combine light gray reindeer for the palms and pinkish brown for the backs. They have a mochetta and light pinkkin are also used for sport wear.

Formal gloves are of course much dressier than these. Some are piped with gold, others are gold braided bands or are bound with gold clips.

Hats have definitely passed the funny stage. Their function of being a head covering rather than something amusing, has been revived.
