Continuing, for a moment, your job may be called the "call of the next man," and the "call of the next man" has a different sound from the "call of the next man" of yesterday, but it is just as important. The "call of the next man" is the call of the next man to do the job that is in the news today. The administrative tasks are the very big tasks. The "call of the next man" may be the man who is not at a meeting. He may be the man who is waiting at the corner of a street, or the man who is riding a bus. He may be the man who is not at work, or the man who is at work. He may be the man who is not in the office, or the man who is in the office. He may be the man who is not in the meeting, or the man who is in the meeting. He may be the man who is not in the conversation, or the man who is in the conversation. He may be the man who is not in the thought, or the man who is in the thought. He may be the man who is not in the feeling, or the man who is in the feeling.
