EARLY AMERICAN HOME

In Quarters Lane Estates, three blocks from school, has brick, fieldstone and clapboard exterior nicely complemented by shrubs and flowers.

The first floor: Large living room dining room, homey kitchen and lavatory.

The second floor: Master bedroom with bath, three comfortable bedrooms and bath, and view of the lavatory.

Air conditioned oil heat, recreation room, large laundry, 2-year old garage complete the setting of this home built two years ago. $11,000 with easy terms makes it yours.

Call

MAX BROOK Inc.
112 S. WOODWARD AVE.
3087 W. GRAND BLVD.
BIRMINGHAM 1212
MADISON 8782

Town Hall Series
For Coming Year
Ist This Week

Durango, the noted movie director who will screen the Town Meeting Boys series, will be the featured speaker this week. His knowledge of the subjects will be most impressive. The meeting will be in the Town Hall auditorium, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Home Bought

OAKLAND COUNTY BRIEFS

PERALDI: Patronize local stores. John Peraldi, Post 27, in the University of Michigan, will speak on the local police department.

ROYAL OAK: County Treasurer, John W. Peraldi, at the Royal Oak Civic Center, will speak on the work of the county treasurer.

PONTIAC: Industrial activity in this city is increasing with the new town of 200 employees of the Michigan Paper Co., for its paper mill at Pontiac. The company has been in operation for three years and is expected to double its production within the next year.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 18

The annual event in Pontiac will be held on this day. The Pontiac Chamber of Commerce will hold a parade through the streets of the city, followed by a ceremony at the park. There will be music, speeches, and a reading of the civic oath. The event is open to all.

Homestay Available

For Immediate Occupancy

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Annual Red Cross Report Released

The annual financial report of the Oakland County Chapter of the Red Cross was released on September 7, 1959. It shows that the chapter raised $32,500 during the year, which was used to aid war veterans and families of servicemen.

CIVIC LOYALTY DAY, Sept. 18

What's Looking At Meads?

A new fiberglass canoe has been ordered by the town of Meads. The canoe is expected to arrive within the next week and will be used for recreational purposes. The canoe is made of fiberglass and is designed for use on the town's lake.