On this day seniors conduct all classes and act as the faculty while the teachers attend the School Masters' Club in Ann Arbor.

1st Track Meet Friday; Plymouth Is The Opponent

With one victory to their credit, the Baldwin High diamond players go to Cranbrook Friday afternoon for the first of two games set for this spring.

Tuesday afternoon, in a contest at Springdale Park, Coach George Warters' outfit beat Plymouth in a season-opener which coincided with the opener for the Detroit Tigers, but unlike Detroit, the Birmingham team won, 11 to 5.

The victory was the first in the Twin Valley League schedule, in the first track meet.

'Rumpelstiltskin' Given 28th Time

A dramatization of the old folk tale, "Rumpelstiltskin," was presented as a puppet show by Harry Mack for the Baldwin High School last night at the school building last Thursday.

This was the 28th performance of the play that Harry and his assistants, Nancy Reinhart and Jim Woodruff, have given. New scenery, however, was used this time.

Edison is Participating for the First Time This Year

Ted Corson started on the mound for Edison and was nipped for two runs in the first inning, but his mates came back with three runs. Baldwin scored two more in the second, and six in a fourth-inning rout of Plymouth. Corson allowed one run, one in the third and two in the fifth.

Corson was wild and walked seven of the eight Plymouth players who received pitches. He was followed on the mound in the fourth by Paul Kelly, with Rondeau catching. Plymouth's pitcher, Pratt, was knocked out in the second inning, and followed by another Kelly.

Captain Ken Kirby led the Birmingham attack with two singles and a brace of doubles, and also distinguished himself with a showy rattle in deep centerfield. Art Riedel got three hits, Kennedy a double.

Civics Students Will See County Government in Action

A general study of county government in the form of a field trip to Pontiac will be taken by all of the civics classes Tuesday, April 22, accompanied by Wilson Jenkin, teacher of the classes.

A jury case will be heard at the Circuit Court and the students will also observe other departments such as the Probate and Sheriff's offices of the County and Treasurer and perhaps the county jail.

Some of the students going on the trip are Clark Pardee, Gene McCullough, Bob Kendall, Joe Parkin, Alice Heimiller, Jean Atkinson, Calvin Vary, Bud Statke, Dick Harrell, Glenn Watson, Edie Nisker, Jack Tamm, Herman Hart, Bob Eade and Richard Harvey.
