'Boy Meets Girl' Excellent Play

Ergasterion, that able dramatics club at Cranbrook School, distinguished itself last Friday and Saturday nights when it presented the fast-moving farce, "Boy Meets Girl," ribbing the world's movie capital, Hollywood.

Directed by Carl G. Wonnberger, the boys from Cranbrook and the girls from Kingswood did a really outstanding job for amateurs of their age.

Clever Babcock, attractive Bloomfield Hills girl and student at Kingswood, did an exceedingly able job in her portrayal of Susie, the studio waitress whose liffant son is suddenly lifted to fame on sudden inspiration of the studio's two crackpot writers, played by Don Fine and Sherwood Alan Jeckman. Antics of these two lads gave the play the punch it needed to put it across.

Other important roles were taken by Dave Ketelhut, of Birmingham, Frank Rowland and Milner Thom. The supporting cast consisted of George Bird, Estelle Macauley, Harry Coon, Bob Valpey, Phoebe Otter, Bob Peck and others.

Former Negro Star To Address Club

Eddie Tolan, former University of Michigan sprinter and Olympic star, will address members of the Polygon club at a meeting at 8 o'clock Friday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Tolan is executive director of the Negro Progress Exposition that is to be held in Detroit during May.

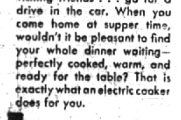
GO OUT FOR THE afternoon

while your electric cooker prepares dinner!

SPEND your afternoon shopping or at the theater or visiting friends . . . go for a drive in the car. When you come home at supper time, wouldn't it be pleasant to find your whole dinner waiting—perfectly cooked, warm, and ready for the table? That is exactly what an electric cooker does for you.



Cooks a whole meal at one time

A roast, two vegetables, potatoes and gravy can be cooked all at one time—or you can prepare all casserole dishes such as waterless pot roast, Boston baked beans, Irish stew, etc., to perfection. You'll be enthusiastic about electric cooking! No other method cooks with such flavor, such tenderness—even for cheaper cuts of meat. And an electric cooker is simple to use: Plug it into any convenience outlet.

20,000 OF YOUR NEIGHBORS now use these electric cookers. See them on display in many different sizes and models—at furniture and department stores, hardware stores, electric appliance dealers and all Detroit Edison offices.

The Golden Text (Matthew 20:28) is: "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Matthew 5:16) is: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 202): "The supreme unity which exist between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be understood."

CHRIST CHURCH

field Hills take place at Christ Church. In addition to the religious leadership in the Cranbrook and Kingswood Schools, Christ Church has always been the center of the Cranbrook Summer Conference which brings together some 250 young people of the diocese for a week of religious study and worship. This conference is held at Cranbrook School each year during the fourth week of June.

Christ Church Cranbrook lends itself for festival occasions and it is often the center for civic, religious and educational groups throughout the state. One of the most widely known and loved of the festival services is the Festival of Gifts which takes place before Christmas. In this service the members of the congregation follow the Magi to the manger which is erected in St. Paul's Chapel, and place their gifts beneath the cradle of the Christ Child.

The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach became assistant minister to Dr. Marquis in September, 1928, and served in that capacity until he accepted a call to become Rector of Christ Church and St. Michael's, Germantown, Pa., in March, 1938. The Rev. Robert W. Woodroofe, Jr., was for six years on the staff of the church and left this past January to assume his duties as assistant minister in St. Bartholomew's, New York City. The present Rector, the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan was called to succeed Dr. Marquis as Rector and he began his rectorship in April, 1939.

From a handful of people in a tent, Christ Church Cranbrook has developed into a sizeable and active group housed in attractive buildings serviceable to the congregation's needs and is the result of dreams, faith and determination through nearly 40 years. Those who have enjoyed this generous benefaction have not just accepted it, but are using it for the increasingly broad fields of service for which it was intended.

We Heard It Said By:

K. B. OLSON, 540 Hawthorne: "I saw seven or eight pheasants on my lawn this morning. We always had them years ago until one of the neighbors got a couple of setter dogs which drove them out. After the setters were taken away by their owners, the birds returned. Now we are even talking about raising a fund to buy some Golden Pheasants for our neighborhood."
