Recreation Program will Benefit From P.-T.A. Party

Bridge, Dance Plans Nearing Completion For Annual Reunion Event At High School

Final arrangements are complete for the annual party of the community recreation program, the affair this year for the first time adds dancing to the attraction of the bridge table. The dance, under the direction of Mrs. Willor U. Johnstone, will be held in the gymnasium, while the bridge party, in charge of Mrs. Robert F. Watt, will be in the small auditorium.

The dance committee is making plans for a floor show to be given at 10 o'clock and half of the cast is to be dressed in sports costumes of the gay '30's and the other half will wear sports costumes to be in vogue this summer. All balcony seats have been reserved so that bridge players who wish to see the floor show may do so without extra charge.

Assisting Mrs. Johnstone with plans for the dance are the following committees: Flowers and decorations, Mrs. Andrew N. Watson, Mrs. John T. Burdick, Mrs. Fred W. Gueckelberg, Mrs. Warren C. Upper, Betty Lou Cook, Betty Kuhlman, Memorie Unger, arrangements, Charles W. Minding, Andrew N. Watson, Willor U. Johnstone; floor show, Miss Nina Kette, Mrs. L. Colgrove, music and lighting, Tom H. Johnson; refreshments, Mrs. Clyde E. Harry, Lee, Mrs. Joseph Lemko, Mrs. Frank Macaskill, Mrs. Ed. Kette, Mrs. Harry Root, Mrs. Harry Shrewood, hospitality, Mrs. Louis Hook, Mrs. Frank McCarby, Mrs. small K. Plumstead, floor committee, Mrs. and Mrs. James R. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. C. Casson, Bill Cole, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Corvick, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Crim, F. W. Dobbie, Herbert P. Gahn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Harvey, Edward C. Merry, Donald K. Plumstead and Shelton Wright.

Those taking part in the floor show include Lucille Chamnade, Barbara Allison, Meldred Benschoter, Betty Lou Hook, Virginia Johnston, Carol Watt, Juanita Greenbush, Betty Price, Peggy McFriede, Beverly Johnston, Paul Stutte and Earl Reuter.

Although it is anticipated that the bridge party will break up after 11 o'clock as usual, the dance will continue until 12:30. For the reunion all students below the ninth grade will be expected to leave immediately after the floor show at 10:30.

In addition to the names of committee heads already published, Mrs. Watt is being assisted by Mrs. Melvin Updegraff, in charge of the check-room committee, and Mrs. W. S. Gilbreath, Jr., in charge of decorations.

Guid's Bridge Tea To Be Held on May 8

A large crowd is anticipated by members of St. Agnes Guild of St. James Church for their bridge tea which is to be held Wednesday afternoon, May 8, in Guild Hall at Cranbrook.

Mrs. D. Hasztreiter is general chairman and on her committee are Mrs. P. W. Guest, Mrs. Ward H. Barnett, Mrs. R. G. Bradley, Mrs. Francis C. Wadley and Mrs. Frederick A. Carey.

Mrs. L. M. Baker, Mrs. A. Edwards Phillips, Mrs. George T. Hendrie and Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth will preside at the tea tables.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Marquis are back in the Hills at their home on Lone Pine road after spending the winter in Florida.

Plans Nearing Completion For Annual Reunion Event At High School

Elaborate preparations were nearing completion for the annual reunion breakfast that will bring to the year's close the International Relations Club which has been conducted by Mrs. Charles J. Shain for the past 18 seasons. This event is to be held Friday morning at the Community House at 9:30.

Speaker at this breakfast is to be Prof. Harry David Gidson, president of Brooklyn University, who will analyze America's present position in the European war.

Prof. Gidson was for six years a member of the Chicago Round Table and an oratorical student at the University of Chicago. He was born in the Netherlands and educated in Columbia and Geneva, Switzerland. He was lecturer in economics at Harvard College and Columbia University for two years and director of international students' work in Geneva. He served as assistant professor of economics at Rutgers University and was associate professor of economics at the University of Brooklyn in New York City.
