Kingswood Girls Preparing Play

Kingswood School is knee deep in rehearsals for "Cradle Song," their annual junior class play which is to be given at 8:15 May 3 in the auditorium of the school. Assisting the girls will be three boys from Cranbrook School who will portray the male characters in this play which received so much favorable comment when first presented by Eva LaGallie's Repertory Theatre several years ago. Written by Gregorio and Maria Martinez Sierra, Spanish playwrights, it is being directed by Mrs. M. W. Cochrane, instructor at the school.
