Next Big Headache To Be Jap Beetle

Next major insect pest headache for Michigan likely to be the Jap, as these beetles, products Ray Hutton, head of the entomology department at Michigan State College.

To date the beetle apparently has appeared only in Detroit and even there it has been held in check on its way into the state from the east where it has become prevalent. But chances to keep the pest out permanently are slim, Hutton believes.

Conservation Dept. Protects Mergansers

LANSING—No control of fish ducks—common American mergansers—is exercised by the game division of the department of conservation except when severe winter conditions concentrate them on trout streams.

Old Tree Removed

While at Camp George last week-end, troop B-7 accomplished a feat which is notable and deserves mention, to wit: they removed the huge old dead white oak that stood near the camp until last Sunday. The tree, as you remember, stood between the second bridge and the camp proper, right next to the road, and formed as nice a combination of traffic hazard and eyesore as could be imagined.

Troop Holding Party

Troop B-7 is holding a get-together and banquet next Thursday, April 7, at Barnum School for the members of the Troop and their parents. One was held last year for the first time and was a great success, so the "feet" seem destined to become an annual affair.

MEANEST MAN DUPES BOY

MASON (M.P.A.) Terminated one of its most important means of advertising, when victimized a local high school youth recently. He sold the boy to oversee addressing of envelopes and delivery of samples and also to endorse a check when the check bounced.

Forced Into Pole, Driver Tells Police

In order to avoid striking another car, Charles Booth, Jr., of 284 Woodward, drove into a pole at Puritan, stopping for Oak, when a car going west on Oak suddenly turned onto Puritan and forced him into the pole. The other car did not stop. Booth's car received damaged right front wheel and fender.

Youngster is Hero

MARION (M.P.A.)—When his mother discovered the roof of their home was blazing, nine-year-old Gerald Heimbold jumped out of bed and grabbed a pail of water. He poured it and still wearing his pajamas, he climbed from a shed to the roof of the house and calmly put out the fire. He then went back to bed and was soon fast asleep.

WE'RE talking here to those thousands who have not yet achieved a lifetime ambition. That is to say, they don't yet own a Buick. We want to point out a few facts about the Buick SPECIAL pictured here—show how it swings wide the door on a golden opportunity. Step into this sleek, sweetheart. Your treadle foot touches off a trigger-quick Dynaflex straight-eight engine, that's just about the smoothest thing that runs, thanks to micro-poised-balancing after assembly. Swing through the gear changes and you find the same easy, finger-flick shifting as in the most costly Buick. And the same reglommounted Knee-Action, soaking up bumps before they reach your hand on the steering wheel. Take a rough road in stride. You'll find that Buick Special muffs out the bumps—and they'll never need lubrication. SPECIAL costs no more than some sixes with lower advertised prices. So look into the Buick SPECIAL and "step up" to the car you've always wanted. You can take a trial drive any time just by asking your Buick dealer. Prices begin at $895 for Business Coupe—Sedan prices start at $955. *Insured at Flint, Mich. Transportation based on rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice. "Best buy's Buick!" EXEMPLAR OF GENERAL MOTORS VALUE Birmingham, Mich.
