

Ferndale Girl Becomes Bride Of Dick Painter

Jane Madeline Bowler, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Bowler, of Ferndale, and Richard Painter, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Painter, were married at 8:30 p. m. Saturday morning in the home of the bridegroom's parents at 859 Watkins street, Birmingham.

The Rev. J. O. Nelson of the First Baptist Church, performed the ceremony before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace decorated with masses of garden flowers and white hydrangeas above which burned tall white candles.

The bride chose a Street length dress of moss green and white and wore a corsage of white roses with lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor was Alice Painter, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a white dress trimmed in green and a corsage of sweetbriar, roses and baby's breath.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bowler wore a brown and white sheer dress with a corsage of tall, red and baby's breath. Mrs. Painter wore white with blue trim and a corsage of white carnations and bachelor buttons.

White hydrangeas, sweetbriar roses and baby's breath were used in decorating the home. A wedding luncheon followed the ceremony. The couple took a short trip and are at home at 859 Watkins street. The bride was graduated from the High School of Commerce, Detroit, and the bridegroom received his degree from the University of Detroit.

Bonstelle Party Is Being Planned For Miss Landis

A party which promises to attract much attention, both here and in Detroit, is a function which Casper Linsgeman is planning and which has tentatively been called a "Bonstelle Party." The arrival of Jessie Royce, Landis in Bloomfield Hills to appear in "No Time for Comedy" at the Will-O-Way Bloomfield Playhouse has proved the impetus for this affair. Miss Landis is a former Jessie Bonstelle alumna. No date has as yet been set for the party.

Among the other affairs which are being arranged in Miss Landis' honor are a luncheon and party at the Detroit Golf Club Friday at which Mrs. Jay Poole will be hostess and a luncheon Tuesday at the Colony Club given by Mrs. James B. Steep, of Grosse Pointe. Wednesday evening Miss Leik Callaway entertained Miss Landis at dinner at her home on Wildmore avenue in Detroit.

Miss Nancy Hamilton, of New York, arrived Wednesday evening for a short stay with Brenda Forbes, of Will-O-Way, Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Forbes are room mates in New York.
