

Bloomfield Hills Busy Preening Itself for St. Hugo's Annual Party

Red, White, Blue To Be Color Motif For This Function

It is difficult these days to get women—and the men too for that matter—out in Bloomfield Hills to talk of anything but the coming dinner, dance and fair which St. Hugo of the Hills is holding Saturday evening, Aug. 24, at Bloomfield Open Hunt.

Plans for this annual function which have been brewing for many weeks are now coming into the home stretch and last minute touches are being made to plans already completed by chairmen of the various committees.

Patriotic colors are to be used this year. Red, white and blue will be carried out extensively in the clubhouse where the dinner is to be held and over the grounds of the club a ceiling of red, white and blue bunting is to be used.

Flags will be used to encircle the ring and the national colors will be employed in decorating the toy and scrapbook booths—the only booths that will be in evidence this year—and the motif will be carried out even to the straws through which the young people will sip

September Date Is Selected By Miss McGavran

With the announcement this week of her wedding on Sept. 14, Hortense Jane McGavran, daughter of Mrs. George Clark McGavran, of Sylvester court, has added her name to the rapidly increasing ranks of early fall brides.

Her marriage to Robert Bruce McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Edward McKenzie, of North Woodward avenue, will be read in the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Detroit by the Rev. Dr. Richard Frerking.

Miss McGavran has asked her sister, Mrs. Edward E. Linsell, of Royal Oak, to be her matron of honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Lawrence G. Kelly, of Toledo, and Margaret Eleanor Grierson, of Detroit.
