The Lieutenant Governor

—MEN WHO HAVE SERVED

By ELTON R. EATON Editor and Publisher.

The Plymouth Mail But four times in the history of Michigan has a resident of the great metropolitan part of the state ever nearly one half of their voters resided, been elected Lieutenant Governor.

The first seven Lieutenant Governors of Michigan were appointed by the Governor. In fact, most of the state officials under the state's first constitution were appointed by the Governor.

Following is a list of those who have served as Lieutenant Governor and the places of their residence: Edward Mandy, 1817-1820, Detroit; James Wright Gordon, 1820-1824, Marshall; Thomas J. Drake, 1824-1828, Pontiac; Osgood Richardson, 1828-1832, Pontiac; William L. Greenly, 1832-1836, Adrian; Charles P. Hosh, 1836-1840, Lansing; William M. Penton, 1840-1844, Flint; Calvin
