

Breeders' Show on Sept. 7 Heralds Opening of Fall Hunt Club Season

Thomas E. Wilson General Chairman Of Many Workers

A sure sign that fall is definitely in its way is the announcement of the date of the forthcoming annual "hunter-breeders' show" which members of Bloomfield Open Hunt will hold Saturday morning and afternoon, Sept. 7, at the Metanora branch of the club.

The show, opening at 10 o'clock in the morning is being arranged by a large committee that has as its general chairman Thomas E. Wilson.

Mariners At Camp At Lapeer This Week

Girls in the Birmingham mariners' scout troop have taken over Camp Sherwood, the Girl Scout camp near Lapeer, for this week after the camp was cleared over the weekend of all Scouts who had been there during the regular camping period.

Luncheon And Bridge Aug. 24 At Pine Lake

Wednesday is the date of the monthly ladies' bridge luncheon at Pine Lake Country Club.

Children Attend Birthday Party At Devon Gables

A number of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills children were invited to Kitty Scheifele's 10th birthday party last week when Mrs. Webster Scheifele, of Northwood, entertained at a luncheon and party at Devon Gables for her young daughter.

Among those attending were Betty and Margot Yaw, Ann Bottell, Sally Speck, Dorothy Booth, Alys and Patsy Chubbuck, Louise Thompson, Patricia Potter, Mary Mahon, Peter Norriss, Max Cornell and Stuart Scheifele.

Candles burning in a bowl of water filled with multi-colored lily pads formed the center piece which was banked by china swan nut cups from which various streamers led out to the individual places.

Charles Murray, 11, Has Swimming Party

Eleven year old Charles Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Murray, of Fairview avenue, observed his birthday anniversary Thursday with a luncheon and swimming party at Orchard Lake Country Club.

His guests included George Campbell, Billy Eastis, Rob Grindley, Langrene Crane, Jimmie Buchanan and Jack McBride.

Fowlers Leaving Town Busy Days Precede Their Departure

The Forest K. Fowler business hold out on Labor day is in a perpetual state of uproar these days as the family hastens to recover from sickness, to pack all their belongings prior to setting off for Nashville, Tenn., and at the same time, to wind up their social life in Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, who have lived here since they were in swaddling clothes, are finding themselves the center of much festivity during these busy days before the leave for Nashville and included among the affairs was a tea Tuesday afternoon which Mrs. Richard C. Fowler gave at her home in Lakeside.

On Wednesday Mrs. Robert W. Muzzy entertained 12 friends at a luncheon at Pine Lake Country Club.

Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. Russell B. Stephens will have them for dinner and the following week will be devoted to the couple's families. Monday evening they will be with Mrs. Fowler's parents and Tuesday night they will be guests of Mr. Fowler's parents in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Dixon will entertain at their home on Kimberly Road, at a Sunday evening supper for the Fowlers. Included in the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Muzzy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Leavenworth, the Halvorsens and Mr. and Mrs. Strunk.

Mr. and Mrs. Muzzy will entertain for the Fowlers one night this week at a dinner at Pine Lake Country Club, the exact date as yet undetermined.

The Fowlers and their children, Kendall, and Kay, will leave for the south on Wednesday.

Local Artists Are Represented In Pontiac Gallery

The Sponsors League Art Gallery on North Perry street in Pontiac is filled with works of Birmingham artists, it has been announced.

Included in the pieces on display are works of Mrs. Alice Hagerman Thurber of Oak street, and her daughter Rosemary Thurber.

Both Mrs. Thurber and her daughter are members of the Detroit Society of Women Painters and have exhibited at the Scarab Club in Detroit and at the Michigan Art League.

Mrs. Thurber is represented in "Who's Who in Art" and is a pupil of Joseph Gies, Frederick Fierman and W. W. Kriehbell-Saugtuck. She has received awards for her water colors and oils. She has also exhibited at the Michigan League at the University of Michigan.

Miss Thurber is a pupil of Robert Herzberg, well known Detroit teacher and painter. She studied at the Students' League in New York with Kenneth Hayes Miller and with W. W. Kriehbell.

She is a member of the New York Independent Artists group. She works largely in water colors.

Mrs. Dorothy Lee Boal, of Brown street, is also represented in these galleries with some interesting oils of a decorative quality.

Mrs. Beals is a pupil of Mrs. Ada L. Whitney, supervisor of art in the Detroit school system.

The gallery is open to the public daily from 1 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Myra Bassett Has 75th Birthday

An open house this afternoon marks the 75th birthday of Mrs. Myra Bassett who resides with her daughter, Miss Ethel Bassett, on Lakeside avenue.

Mrs. Bassett, who as her daughter said this week, has "always lived in a stone house in Birmingham," was born at Thirteen Mile and Franklin roads. She was born in the house that when it burned early this summer was said to have been over 100 years old.

Mrs. Bassett lived in this house until 1886 when she married Frank Bassett and set up house-keeping at a home on Fourteen Mile and Lakeside roads.

Graduating from the old Hill School here in Birmingham in 1884, Mrs. Bassett, born Myra Coynt, went immediately to the Wing Lake School where she taught for two years. In those days Mrs. Bassett taught summer and winter for to close the schools for a summer vacation was unheard of at that time.

Mr. Bassett died in May of 1911 and the following year, Mrs. Bassett and her daughter, Ethel and Jennie—now Mrs. Herbert W. Masters—moved into Birmingham where they have lived in the same house for 28 years.

Mrs. Fern Thatcher and Miss Jean Smith will entertain Friday evening at a party shower for Jeanne Murphy whose marriage to Elmer Zook, of Detroit, will be an event of Aug. 30. The affair will be held at Mrs. Thatcher's home on West Maple avenue.

The guest list for this party includes Betty Sheridan, Phyllis Porter, Iris Beavin, Mrs. Lila Akerley and from Pontiac: Alice and Marjorie Mitchell, Wilma Plumb, Frances Hyden and June Hamiston.

Miss Murphy and Mr. Zook will be married at a ceremony to be performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Murphy, of Floyd street, The Rev. J. O. Nelson, of the First Baptist Church, will officiate.

Kitty Keller, Lynn Lyle and Betty Ruth Middleton returned Saturday from Osoda, where they were guests of Margaret Stanton at a house party.

Barnum P.-T. A. Is Sponsoring Street Dance

Rain or shine, hot or cold, the street dances go on week after week after week. The dance Friday evening is to be held at the Baldwin High School and is under the sponsorship of the Barnum Parent-Teacher association.

Donald K. Plumstead is chairman and the following will serve as patrons: Mr. and Mrs. Heber P. Gahm, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Keogh, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Heitsch, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson C. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Bronson.

Assisting Mrs. Andrew N. Watson on the refreshment committee will be Mrs. F. R. Groves, Mrs. John W. Meredith, Mrs. H. Doc Lowe and Mrs. Frank Macaskill.

The dances, which begin at 8:30, continue through 11:30.

Mrs. J. S. O'Grum, Jr., entertained her bridge club at luncheon Tuesday, at her home on Abbey road.

Gifts for Weddings

Among many services which this shop purveys, none is more important than providing Gifts for Weddings. And, gift by gift, we find our own pleasure in knowing that these beautiful things become a splendid contribution to the young couples' happiness, and to the giver as well.

For the pleasure you get from presenting such gifts as these is one thing—a substantial thing at that, well worth the price. But the pleasure derived by the recipient is even greater.
