

Post Season Concert Being Arranged at Greek Theatre, Cranbrook

Pontiac Orchestra Sentimental Significance Will Give Benefit is Awarded in Christening Tuesday Evening

To benefit the Pontiac Philharmonic Orchestra, a post summer season concert at the Greek Theatre at Cranbrook is to be held Tuesday evening, weather permitting. Cesar Chantone, the symphony's director said this week in case of bad weather the orchestra will be driven indoors where the concert will be presented in the auditorium of Kingswood School.

An all-Tchaikovsky program is being arranged and Margaret Polican, Pontiac pianist, will appear as soloist in the piano concerto by the Russian composer. A performance of the gigantic "1812 Overture" is being planned and the orchestra will also play the dances from the "Nutcracker Suite" and "None but the Lonely Heart."

Proceeds from this concert will be used to purchase instruments for the organization.

Former Residents Are Guests in Hills

Mrs. Perry C. Hill and her daughter, Miss Katherine Helen Hill, of Newport, R. I., formerly of Birmingham, arrived on Friday to visit Mrs. William M. Purves, of Old Salem court. At present, Miss Hill is spending a few days with Miss Maxine Apfeld of Orchard Lake. Honoring Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morley will entertain a few friends at dinner Friday evening, at their home on Cranbrook road.

When the Rev. David Curry, of Philadelphia and formerly of Birmingham, was in town this week to visit his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leith E. Stites, of Bates street, he participated in a christening service Monday that had considerable significance for the parties involved as well as many Birmingham friends.

The service, held at the Stites home, was for three months old Garry William Colby, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Iram Colby, of Detroit.

Mr. Curry, who served as pastor of the United Presbyterian Church as well as the old Henna-ville Congregational Church during his 24 years residence in Birmingham, christened the infant. He had christened the mother, formerly Maxine Davis, of Birmingham, 29 years before. Mrs. Colby is Mr. Stites' niece.

Another bit of sentiment connected with this ceremony was the bond that was used which was given to Mrs. Stites' grandparents for their wedding over 75 years ago.

To the accompaniment of an organ in an upstairs sitting room in the Stites home, Mrs. Stites sang Albert Hay Malotte's setting of "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Fred Stecker.

Following the ceremony tea was served from a table presided over by Mrs. Claude E. Walker.

Sunday afternoon the Stites hold open house for many friends of Mr. Curry, who was here for a few days visit. He has now returned to his home in Philadelphia.

Attending were Mrs. Frank

Grant and Mrs. Veri Kline, both of Pontiac, daughters of Mr. Curry. A son, David Curry, of Brown street, is in California and unable to attend.

Jeanne Murphy To Become Bride Friday Afternoon

Jeanne Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Murphy, of Floyd street, and Elmer Zook, of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Zook, of Lancaster, will exchange their vows Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a double ring ceremony at the Murphy home.

The Rev. J. O. Nelson will read the service before an improvised altar in front of the fire place banked by two large baskets of pastel colored gladioli.

The bride has chosen a street length frock of aqua crepe, made on plain lines and shirred at the waistline. Her accessories will be in a wine color that matches her small, bonnet-like hat. White roses and lilies of the valley will make up the corsage.

Mrs. Donald L. Cummines and Glenn Mead, of Highland Park, are to be the couple's only attendants. Following a week-end spent in Northern Michigan, the couple will reside in Highland Park.

Mrs. Harvey G. Luce, of Wad-dington road, will return on Tuesday, from 19 days' stay in New York.
