Shirley Wallace Lovely Bride At North Carolina Garden Rites

A warm and beautiful North Carolina afternoon was Mother Nature's blessing on Shirley Jane Wallace when she and Henderson Dale Miller, Jr., exchanged their vows Saturday afternoon at a 10 o'clock ceremony in the magnificent flower gardens of the Miller's summer home in Hendersonville, N. C.

Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wallace, of Bloomfield wore white organdie made with a square neckline, pulled sleeves and a huge hollow skirt. Her Mother's maid in white carried her down the aisle.

Dr. William Gregory Fletcher, of the South Methodist Church in Athens, Va., read the rites.

Phyllis Black, of Indianapolis, was the maid of honor. Her gown was white net made with a heart-shaped neckline. She wore a large white hat and carried garden flowers.

Beverly M. Gough, of Warham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Wortham, of Sealsville, N. Y., was the flower girl. She wore white dotted Swiss and a French blue ribbon sash and carried blue and yellow field flowers.

Dale Miller was his bride's best man.

Miss Wallace wore a turquoise crepe gown with a large natural leather hat and a corsage of yellow orchids. Mrs. Miller, Sr., chose dove blue tulle with a matching picture hat. Her flowers were rubrum lilies.

For the reception that followed the wine and dining room of the house were decorated with a green and white motif. The flowers were chrysanthemums, dahias and gladioli.

After a white wedding trip, the couple will live in Miami Beach. They have taken a suite in the Belle Isle Apartments until their new home is completed.

The orchestra will also play three Spanish dances by Moszkowsky and a trio for two voices and English horn by Beethoven. Selections "Enlinda" and "Walse" by Strauss will conclude the program.

Arrangements are underway for an extra concert to be given Wednesday evening, September 4, to benefit the orchestra. Money from this special program will be used to purchase instruments for the organization.
