

Street Dance At Baldwin Attracts Many Local Youth

Attendance at the street dances reached a new high last Friday evening at Baldwin High School. This estimate, based on the number of soft drinks sold and the general appearance of the floor, was advanced by both Mr. Andrew N. Watson, chairman of the refreshment committee, and Mrs. James Quinn, general chairman from the Holy Name School Parent-Teacher Association.

Local Canadians to Hold Dist. Field Day

Commander B. Halcrow, of Pontiac Post, Canadian Legion, has indicated that there will be a large turnout at District 1 Field Day, Aug. 10, at Edgewater Park, on Sunday, August 26th. Unsurpassed enthusiasm is evident throughout the whole District.

If you desire "Willkie for President" buttons or campaign literature you may get them by contacting Henry Groehn, chairman of the Wayne County Young Republican Club, at 414 Transportation Building, Detroit, or Harry Horgan, of 112 East Fourth Street, Royal Oak.

Gay G. Lyman, former resident of Birmingham, now of Detroit, is a Republican candidate for State Representative this fall. When he lived in Birmingham 20 years ago he inspired and directed several ice skating championship races at Wing Lake; at one of these races guests of honor were former Governor Alex J. Groves and U. S. Senator James C. Furness, both lovers of the winter pastime.

A Banner Laundry Co. truck and a passenger car came together Monday afternoon at the corner of Pine and Safford avenues. No one was injured, and neither car was damaged very much, according to local police reports.

At the annual football and bonnet-together at Culver Military School over the past week-end was Richard M. Martin, a student here. Another Birmingham student at Culver was George A. Justin, of Woodward Drive, who is one of 22 placed on the honor roll for naval achievement during the year.

In these days of aerial bombardment, when enemy planes fly low over a countryside, leaving cities, towns, and village hamlets, the item which reached our desk from the woman working on the Street Dance committee brought a smile to the lips of the Wanderer. In reading of the elaborate decorations to be carried out at Friday evening's dance at Barnum School, we were reminded of the fact that there is a little known fact that whole families are enlisting their services to help blow hundreds of balloons.

What Sherwin Davidson calls "the quintessence of something" is the woman who this week walked in his dad's shoes in the parade in some other color than red, white and blue.

It was pretty warm in the City Commission's room in the Municipal Building Monday night. Mayor Martz, Commissioners Bissett, Hancock, Palmer, Packard, and manager Egbert sat in their shirtsleeves, while Commissioner Moody, in a light suit, kept his coat on. When Commissioner Carvel arrived he kept his coat on, for a half hour, then joined the majority in their habituated attire.

The wife of John T. Hunter, the man after whom Birmingham named its new Woodward highway cut-off, was the greatest granddaughter of Mrs. J. A. Vandenberg, a lady from Albert Lea, Minnesota, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Baker, of Southfield avenue. So when Mrs. Vandenberg offered

Police Department last Monday evening that a dog had bitten seven-year-old Ginger Biglow, 1000 Covington Avenue, Detroit, who was visiting them that day. Sergeant Earl Moody and Officer Grant Springstead investigated the complaint, and told the owner of the dog, J. H. McNeil, 1122 Brookwood street, to keep the dog tied.

A theft of $21 was reported to the Hill police last Monday evening by Everett Appie, an attendant at a gas station at Woodward Avenue and Frank street. Police believe someone entered the station and took the money while Appie was busy elsewhere around the station.

All was quiet in the City of Bloomfield Hills last week, the Hills City Office reported yesterday.
