Birmingham Women's Club Legion Auxiliary Has Lovely Christmas Tea Yule Party to Be On December 17

The auditorium of the Community House was taken over Tuesday afternoon for the Christmas program and tea of lovely appointments which the Birmingham Women's Club Legion Auxiliary has with its December meeting.

Club presidents or representatives of over 50 clubs in the Detroit federation were guests of the local club at this Presidents Day program.

Lovely cellophane angels were used as the centerpiece of the tea table that reflected both the spirit of Christmas and the President Day theme. Further carrying out the Yule idea was the wide red satin ribbon that was placed upon the green cloth that covered the table. Also an important part of the centerpiece were the lovely silver stars that were just slightly tipped and raised up from the table.

The tea table was arranged by Mrs. R. D. Gage, Mrs. Lewis Ward was general chairman and assisting her was Mrs. D. A. Green, Mrs. F. W. DuBois, Mrs. Howard Chapel, Mrs. R. W. Bricker, Mrs. A. W. Gillespie and Mrs. S. H. Knowlton.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Fred S. Ross, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Warren Pratt, Mrs. Caroline Uptegrove, Mrs. Thomas Thuber and Mrs. E. F. Painter.

Mrs. H. H. Gardner was chairman of the hospitality committee and working with her were Mrs. B. Dow Ellwood, Mrs. G. W. Mack, Mrs. H. T. Ellerby, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. F. A. Carey, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. W. S. Toothacker, Mrs. L. B. Bishop, Mrs. Uptegrove, Mrs. Fred G. Crawford and Mrs. Bricker.

Mrs. A. L. McNaughton was in charge of invitations.

Following a short business meeting with Mrs. Forbes S. Haswell presiding, a Christmas play written and directed by Mrs. Earl G. Potter, was given. Entitled "The Spirit of Christmas Must Live," the play was staged in a beautiful setting of fir trees, Mrs. William O. Merrill was in charge.
